Mark R. Walter

Owner & Chairman

Mark Walter is a visionary business leader and strategic investor, serving as Chairman and CEO of TWG Global, a diversified holding company focused on scaling innovative businesses across financial services, insurance, corporate and financial lending, merchant banking, AI and technology, sports, media, and entertainment. Under Walter's leadership, TWG Global guides businesses with untapped potential to new levels of growth.

One of the most influential sports owners of his generation, Walter holds a portfolio featuring some of the world's most iconic franchises—including the Los Angeles Dodgers, Los Angeles Lakers, Los Angeles Sparks, and Chelsea F.C. Walter is a founding financier of the Professional Women's Hockey League (PWHL), the first unified professional league in women's hockey, and is a significant investor in the Billie Jean King Cup, the world's largest international women's team tennis competition. Walter has also built a significant presence in global motorsports series with holdings in Formula 1, NASCAR, INDYCAR, Formula E, and IMSA.

An active philanthropist, Walter is committed to strengthening communities, expanding opportunity and access, advancing education, and promoting conservation. Walter and his family have founded and funded numerous organizations to expand opportunities for underserved youth and, through the Walter Family Foundation, they are deeply engaged in global conservation—protecting endangered species, safeguarding wilderness areas, and establishing assurance populations.

Walter is a trustee of Creighton University, Northwestern University, the Explorers Club, the Field Museum, and the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation and holds a B.A. from Creighton University and a J.D. from Northwestern University School of Law.

Stan Kasten

President & CEO

For four decades, Stan Kasten has been a highly respected sports figure and developed a reputation for creating winning franchises, relying on three pillars – scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience and community outreach – to establish franchises built for long-term success on and off the field.

That track record has continued during his tenure with the Dodgers, where the club has had an unprecedented run of success. With the 2025 World Series title, Los Angeles has now won three of the past six World Series, five National League pennants in the past nine years and 12 NL West titles in the past 13 seasons. With four World Series titles and more victories, postseason appearances and division titles than any other in the Majors in the past 50 years, no team executive can lay claim to as much success in baseball as Kasten.

Since Kasten became the Dodgers' President and CEO in 2012, the team has topped the Majors in attendance each full season under his leadership while continuously making improvements to Dodger Stadium to keep the league's third-oldest stadium among the best facilities in baseball. The Dodgers were also named ESPN's 2020 Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year for the work and community impact of the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation. These achievements led Major League Baseball to award the Dodgers the 2022 All-Star Game, bringing the league's jewel event back to Los Angeles for the first time since 1980.

Kasten has been a member of numerous MLB, NBA and NHL ownership committees during his professional career and is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. In 1999, Kasten became the first sports figure to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously, doing so with MLB's Atlanta Braves, the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and the NHL's Atlanta Thrashers. Kasten has continued to push the envelope with his leading roles on the Advisory Board of the Professional Women's Hockey League, founded in 2023, and in the transformation of the Billie Jean King Cup women's tennis team competition.

In 1979, at age 27, Kasten launched his career in sports by becoming the youngest general manager in NBA history with the Hawks, a position he held until 1990. Kasten became the Hawks' president in 1986. During his lengthy tenure in the Hawks' front office, Kasten built the Hawks into a perennial contender, including four consecutive 50-win seasons from 1986-89 and a stretch of seven consecutive playoff appearances in the 1990s, and became the first – and only – NBA executive to win back-to-back Executive of the Year awards in 1986-87.

Kasten also became president of the Braves in 1986. From 1987-2003, the Braves won more games than any other team in MLB and won 14 consecutive division titles (1991-2005), five National League pennants and the 1995 World Series.

In 1999, when the NHL awarded Atlanta an expansion team, Kasten added the title of president of the Thrashers, as well as chairman of the newly constructed Philips Arena (now State Farm Arena). Kasten held all three positions until 2003, when he stepped down.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Kasten was president of the Washington Nationals from 2006-10, where he worked to re-energize a dormant baseball fan base and simultaneously established a crown jewel franchise in Washington, D.C.

Kasten, the Los Angeles Sports Council's 2013 Executive of the Year, is former Director of the Sports Lawyer Association and serves on the LA84 Foundation Board of Directors, the Rose Bowl Institute Advisory Board as well as the Board of the US Japan Foundation.

A native of Lakewood, N.J., Kasten is a graduate of New York University and Columbia University Law.

Andrew Friedman

President, Baseball Operations

As the Dodgers' President of Baseball Operations, Andrew Friedman has instilled a winning culture that has created the "Golden Age" of the Dodgers, resulting in a playoff berth in each of his 11 seasons (including six straight NL West titles from 2015-2020 and four more consecutively from 2022-25), five National League pennants and three World Championships (2020, 2024, 2025). Under Friedman's leadership since 2015, the Dodgers lead MLB with a .614 winning percentage (1,026-645), including a franchise record 111 wins in 2022 as well as a club-best .717 winning percentage during the shortened 2020 season (43-17).

Entering his 11th full season with the club after being named to the post on October 14, 2014, Friedman has overseen the development of one of baseball's top-ranked farm systems, positioning the organization for the long-term success, and also reorganized and built out the team's front office. Friedman was named Major League Baseball's 2020 Executive of the Year and the Dodgers have twice (2017, '20) been recognized by Baseball America as its Organization of the Year, honoring the team for its success from top to bottom.

Friedman previously served as Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations of the Tampa Bay Rays where, despite overseeing one of the league's lowest payrolls, he led the Rays to four postseason appearances, including two division titles (2008, 2010), in nine seasons from 2006- 14. During Friedman's time in Tampa Bay, the Rays posted the franchise's first winning season and won the American League pennant in 2008, when he was named Sporting News' Executive of the Year. After finishing below .500 in each of their first 10 years of existence, the Rays finished above the .500 mark in six consecutive seasons under Friedman from 2008-13. Friedman joined the Rays in 2004 and spent two years serving as director of baseball development.

Prior to his career in baseball, Friedman was an analyst for two years with New York City-based investment firm Bear, Stearns & Co., Inc., and spent three years as an associate for the private equity firm MidMark Capital.

Friedman received a baseball scholarship to Tulane University, where he played outfield for the Green Wave and graduated with a bachelor of science in management with a concentration in finance.

Friedman and his wife, Robin, have two sons, Ethan and Zachary, and a daughter, Sadie.

Bob Wolfe

Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer

Long-time baseball executive Bob Wolfe enters his 15th season with the Dodgers and eighth as the club's Chief Operating Officer after joining the club as executive vice president in 2012. In his role, Wolfe is responsible for carrying out the club's day-to-day business operations and advising and executing on organization-wide operating strategies. He also serves as the team's liaison to MLB on a variety of matters and is a board member of the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation.

In Los Angeles, Wolfe rejoined Dodger President and CEO Stan Kasten with whom he teamed with at the Atlanta Braves and Washington Nationals, where he served as executive vice president from 2006-11. Prior to that, he worked in various capacities with the Braves and NBA's Atlanta Hawks for more than 20 years, including serving as Braves' senior vice president of administration from 1992-2003. After working in the Braves' accounting department from 1980-84, Wolfe accepted a position as Hawks business manager in 1985 and was promoted to the role of vice president in 1988.

Wolfe and his wife, Kelly Koelker, live in Pasadena.

Brandon Gomes

Executive Vice President & General Manager

Brandon Gomes enters his 10th season with the Dodger organization and fifth as Executive Vice President and General Manager, after being appointed to the post on Jan. 18, 2022. Gomes, 41, became the 12th General Manager in Los Angeles Dodgers history. He originally joined the Dodgers prior to the 2017 season as the organization's Pitching Performance Coordinator before serving as the club's Director of Player Development in 2018 and its Vice President and Assistant General Manager from 2019-21.

In his first season as the GM, the club won a franchise record 111 games and then followed up their record setting campaign in 2022 with 100 wins in 2023, his second year in the role. In his four seasons as General Manager, the Dodgers are 402-246 (.620) with four NL West titles, two NL pennants and two World Championships (2024-25).

Gomes focuses on the Major League club and works closely with President of Baseball Operations, Andrew Friedman, as he had previously since being named Director, Player Development in December 2017.

Gomes enjoyed a five-year Major League career, all spent with the Tampa Bay Rays (2011-15), going 11-12 while posting one save and a 4.20 ERA in 173 games, all out of the bullpen. He was originally selected by the Padres in the 17th round of the 2007 First-Year Player draft out of Tulane University, where he double majored in finance and legal studies.

A native of Fall River, Massachusetts, Gomes was a two-time All-State selection, the 2002 Massachusetts Gatorade High School Player of the Year and a member of the National Honor Society at Durfee High School.

He and his wife, Blair, live in Los Angeles with their two children.

Lon Rosen

Executive Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer

Entering his 15th season with the Dodgers, Lon Rosen has fueled the evolution of the Dodger brand into a global powerhouse through landmark partnerships, a purposeful marketing strategy and an embrace of fans worldwide. As their executive vice president and chief marketing officer, Rosen has directed the Dodger organization's revenue generating departments and reinvented the Dodger Stadium experience into a true event, enticing thousands of Dodger fans to arrive to games well before first pitch. The Dodgers' record-breaking attendance in 2025, surpassing 4 million fans for the first time, and exponential growth across all media testify to Rosen's impact in helping to make the Dodgers a role model across sports.

In addition to consistently driving innovation in the club's marketing and content creation, Rosen has encouraged a deeper involvement for the Dodgers in the surrounding Southern California community. In January 2025, as a notable recent example, Rosen brought together 11 other Los Angeles franchises across seven professional leagues to host a donation event to benefit victims of the Pacific Palisades and Altadena wildfires.

Rosen has made an imprint on the Los Angeles sports scene for more than four decades. Upon his graduation from USC, Rosen headed straight to Inglewood's Fabulous Forum, where he began his sports career with the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers and the NHL's Los Angeles Kings. He worked his way from an internship to the position of director of promotions for the Lakers, Kings and Forum Special Events, where he served seven years (1980-87). From there, he started his own sports marketing company, First Team Marketing, with Magic Johnson as his first client.

For two years starting in 2004, Rosen also served as EVP/CMO for the Dodgers before reuniting with the Laker legend at Magic Johnson Enterprises. Rosen focused his efforts for Magic on business development, television productions, sports consulting and new media ventures, in addition to his representations of broadcasters, coaches, hosts and other entertainment personalities. In 2012, Rosen was instrumental in assisting Johnson and the club's new owners in their acquisition of the Dodgers.

Rosen resides in Los Angeles with his wife, Laurie. They have two sons and a granddaughter.

Janet Marie Smith

Executive Vice President, Planning and Development

During her 13 years with the Dodgers, Janet Marie Smith has overseen major improvement and expansion projects at Dodger Stadium, Camelback Ranch (the club's Spring Training home in Arizona) and Campo Las Palmas (the club's academy in the Dominican Republic). From modernizing the stadium to incorporating the club's rich history into the ballpark experience, Smith's fan-friendly approach has helped keep Dodger Stadium, the third-oldest ballpark in major league baseball, among the premier venues in all of sports.

A centerpiece of this work is the 2.5-acre Centerfield Plaza, which serves as Dodger Stadium's "front door," and was an immediate hit with fans. Completed in 2020, this project also included renovations to the right and left field pavilions and a vertical circulation path around the building made up of new escalators, elevators, and bridges. Additional improvements, including new fan amenities and a renovation of the Dodgers' clubhouse, were completed for the 2025 season.

In 2023, Smith and Fran Weld formed Baltimore based Canopy Team, a woman-led company focused on the design and development of sports venues and their surrounding developments. Dedicated to urban revitalization and community enrichment, Canopy specializes in projects that seamlessly blend sports, design, and urban planning, as well as intimate scales within museums, retail, and public parks. Smith's work with Canopy includes projects with the Pittsburgh Pirates, National Baseball Hall of Fame, Polar Park, and Attain Sports & Entertainment ballparks.

Smith is widely recognized in baseball for her leadership on Oriole Park at Camden Yards, which set the standard for a new wave of ballparks after its opening in 1992. She served as Vice President of Planning and Development for the Baltimore Orioles from 1989-94 during the design and construction of the park. She later re-joined the club from 2009-12 to direct renovations and expansion of the Orioles' spring training facility in Sarasota, FL, and upgrades to Camden Yards.

Smith initially joined the Dodgers as Senior Vice President in 2012 and was promoted to Executive Vice President of Planning and Development in 2020. From 2002-2009, Smith served as Senior Vice President of Planning and Development for the Boston Red Sox, overseeing the preservation and expansion of Fenway Park. Earlier in her career, Smith was President of Turner Sports and Entertainment Development and Vice President of Planning and Development for the Atlanta Braves from 1994-2000, when she helped transform the 1996 Olympic Stadium into Turner Field and she oversaw the development of the Philips Arena (now State Farm Arena), home to the NBA's Atlanta Hawks.

Outside of baseball, Smith has worked on major development projects including Battery Park City in New York, Baltimore's waterfront redevelopments, and renovation plans for the Rose Bowl stadium in Pasadena, CA. She served as the Edward P. Bass Visiting Professor at Yale University in both 2017 and 2025.

In recognition of her lasting impact on the industry, Smith was recently named to Sports Business Journal's "The 125 Most Influential in Sports Business of the Past 25 Years" and was selected as a 2026 WISE Women of the Year honoree.

Nichol McKenzie-Whiteman

Chief Executive Officer, Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation

As the leader of the award-winning Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation (LADF), Nichol McKenzie-Whiteman serves as the Chief Executive Officer where she guides LADF in tackling the most pressing problems facing Los Angeles. With a mission to improve education, health care, homelessness, and social justice for communities across Los Angeles and beyond, Nichol sees herself in the population she serves and works to narrow access gaps. Tasked with relaunching LADF in 2013 with just a $600,000 budget, a new name, and logo, Nichol's leadership has resulted in $76 million in investments in its programs and grants to local organizations impacting more than 11 million youth and 300 nonprofits.

Under her leadership, Nichol also led LADF in rebranding its signature initiative now known as Dodgers Dreamteam — a program that soared from 2,700 participants in 2014 to over 14,700 as of 2025. Prior to joining LADF, the Spelman alumna served as the Vice President, Western Region Officer for the Jackie Robinson Foundation and continues to nurture a relationship between the two iconic brands.

A product of Nichol's vision, the Dodgers Foundation is the proud owner of an ESPY—having been named the 2020 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year. She led LADF in receiving the 2020 Beyond Sport Award for Reducing Racial Inequalities and has been featured in Forbes Magazine, the New York Times, Sports Illustrated, and the L.A. Times to name a few.

An unwavering advocate for sharing best practices through mentorship, Nichol guides students and young professionals as she fights for the opportunities that all communities deserve. She resides in Los Angeles with her two sons, Timothy Jr. and Nicholas.

Erik Braverman

Senior Vice President, Marketing, Community Relations & Broadcasting

Erik Braverman is in his 17th year with the Los Angeles Dodgers and has played a key role in the continued growth of the Dodger brand well beyond the game of baseball. As Senior Vice President, Marketing, Communications, Community Relations & Broadcasting, Braverman oversees the club's local and national broadcast relationships and leads its marketing and community relations efforts, helping drive ticket sales and positioning the Dodgers as Major League Baseball's attendance leader in each of the last nine seasons.

In addition, Braverman oversees the Dodgers' internal productions, creative strategy, and social media platforms, which have become an industry benchmark for innovation and fan engagement and rank among the most followed in all of professional sports.

An openly gay executive, Braverman leads the Dodgers' PRIDE Business Resource Group and launched the organization's first Pride Night in 2013. The event has since grown into the most well-attended annual Pride Night in all of sports and has helped establish a strong, year-round relationship between the Dodgers and the LGBTQ+ community.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Braverman served as Vice President of Programming and Operations for ABC Radio's KABC, ESPN Radio, and Radio Disney from 1996–2008. He was instrumental in the launch of ESPN Radio in Los Angeles in 2000, overseeing programming for the Disney-owned flagship station. From 1994–1996, he was Director of Talk and Sports Programming at Westwood One Radio, where he managed several nationally syndicated programs. Braverman began his Los Angeles career in 1989 as an Executive Producer at KFI and KOST Radio.

Royce Cohen

Senior Vice President, Business Strategy

Royce Cohen is the Senior Vice President of Business Strategy for the Los Angeles Dodgers. Currently in his 17th season in the baseball industry, he built and manages the Dodgers' Business Strategy and Analytics department. Additionally, he manages strategic planning for various revenue streams, directs the building of internal data systems and processes, drives the organization's marketing priorities, and negotiates contracts with several club partners.

Cohen led the creation of and oversees Dodgers 365, which manages all the Dodgers' non-baseball revenue streams, including stadium events and initiatives outside of Dodger Stadium.

Alongside Billie Jean King, Ilana Kloss, and Stan Kasten, he is a member of the Advisory Board for the Professional Women's Hockey League and was instrumental in the formation of the league, including in the acquisition of assets of the Premier Hockey Federation and the negotiation of a collective bargaining agreement with the Professional Women's Hockey Players' Association, and is also integral in the day-to-day operations of the eight-team league that plays in Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Vancouver, Minnesota, New York, Boston, and Seattle.

Cohen also works alongside Elysian Park Ventures, the Dodgers' venture capital arm that has invested in over 70 companies.

A native of Bensalem, Pennsylvania, Cohen graduated summa cum laude from The Wharton School in 2012 and was named one of Sports Business Journal's 2023 and 2025 Forty Under 40 honorees.

Joe Crowley

Senior Vice President, Stadium Operations

Joe Crowley enters his eighth season as the Dodgers' Senior Vice President of Stadium Operations after joining the club in 2018.

Previously, Crowley worked at the United States Tennis Association for 10 years as the organization's Senior Director of Stadium Operations, where he oversaw operations at the Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in Flushing, NY before helping with the planning, opening and operations at the USTA's National Campus in Orlando, FL.

Prior to his time at the USTA, Crowley served as Senior Director of Stadium Operations for 10 years at what is now Hard Rock Stadium in Miami, heading operations for the multi-sport facility which hosted the Marlins, Dolphins, University of Miami football and special events. He also worked for 10 years in operations for UPS in his native Massachusetts.

A University of Massachusetts graduate, Crowley and his wife Kelly reside in Pasadena, and have a son, Anthony.

Ralph Esquibel

Senior Vice President, Information Technology

Ralph Esquibel is in his 18th season with the Dodgers as an IT executive and fifth as the club's Senior Vice President, Information Technology. In this role, Esquibel oversees the organization's efforts in innovation, technology infrastructure, cybersecurity, compliance, application development, end-user support services and delivering overall organizational technology solutions that align with the Dodgers' mission and business goals.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Esquibel held various technology positions within IBM, Toyota Motor Sales, American Honda Motors and Pioneer Electronics.

Esquibel attended California State University, Los Angeles and served in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves. He and his wife, Nancy, have a daughter, Alyssa and a son, Roman.

Eric Hernandez

Senior Vice President, Finance

Eric Hernandez is in his 16th season with the Dodgers and fifth as Senior Vice President, Finance. Since joining the organization in 2010, Hernandez has held several roles in the finance department, including controller and Vice President, Finance. In his current role, he oversees accounting, finance, payroll, purchasing and financial planning and analysis for the club. Hernandez worked on the ownership transition in 2012 as well as having instrumental roles in the financial overview of construction projects at Dodger Stadium and Campo Las Palmas. He currently serves as the Executive Sponsor for the Dodgers' SOMOS business resource group.

Prior to working for the club, Hernandez held various jobs in public accounting at White, Nelson and Co., and private industry at Dexter Corporation, Life Technologies, Invitrogen and eBioscience.

Hernandez graduated from Cal State Fullerton with a degree in Business Administration, Accounting and also passed the CPA exam in the state of California. A Southern California native, he and his wife, Remy, live in Rossmoor with their two daughters, Brooklyn and Noelani.

Dan Martens

Senior Vice President, General Counsel

Managing and Coaching

• The 2016 NL Manager of the Year and three-time World Series champion skipper enters his 11th season at the helm of the Dodgers and begins the year with the highest winning percentage by a manager in Major League Baseball history (minimum 850 games managed) at .621 (944-576)

• His 69 Postseason victories are third all-time, trailing just Joe Torre (84) and Tony La Russa (71)

• Roberts is one of two current managers (Terry Francona) who have been at the helm of multiple World Series winning teams and the only one with three…since 2000, he (5) and Bruce Bochy (4) are the only big league managers to have taken part in four or more World Series

• Is the only National League manager in history to lead his team to the playoffs in his first 10 seasons and first to accomplish that feat since Joe Torre led the Yankees to the playoffs in his first 12 seasons at the helm

• In 2020, he joined Cito Gaston (Toronto, 1992, 1993) as the only Black managers to win a World Series

• Has won the National League West division in nine of 10 seasons (2016-2020, 2022-25) while capturing the NL pennant five times (2017, 2018, 2020, 2024 and 2025)… guided the Dodgers to a then franchise-record 106 wins in 2019 and 2021 and followed that up by winning a franchise record 111 games in 2022. Has won at least 100 games in five of 10 campaigns

• Is one of five managers all-time with five 100+ win seasons, joining Bobby Cox (6), Joe McCarthy (6), Connie Mack (5) and Earl Weaver (5) …is the quickest manager in history to record five 100+ win seasons

• Roberts' 944 wins rank fourth in franchise history, and he, Walter Alston (4) and Tommy Lasorda (2) are the only Dodger managers to win a World Series

• Became the first Major League manager to skipper three straight All-Star teams (2018, 2019, 2021) since Joe Torre guided four straight American League squads from 1999-2002…in 2026, he will manage the NL squad for the fifth time

• Has received Manager of the Year votes in nine of his 10 seasons as Dodger manager in the Baseball Writers' Association of America balloting, finishing first (2016), second (2017, 2022), fourth (2019), fifth (2020, 2021, 2023), sixth (2018) and seventh (2024)…in the only year he didn't receive votes, L.A. won the World Series (2025)

• In 2017, led the club to the best record in the Majors for the first time since 1974 with a 104-58 mark and the National League's best record for the first time since 2009

• Managed his club to the best 50-game stretch in franchise history, as the Dodgers won 43 of 50 games from June 7, 2017 until August 5, 2017…it was the best stretch in the Majors since the 1912 New York Giants, who went 43-7 from May 6 until July 3; and according to Elias Sports Bureau, only four teams have put up a stretch of winning 43 of 50 games or better in baseball history: the 2017 Dodgers, the 1912 Giants, the 1906 Cubs and the 1884 St. Louis Maroons

• In his first season as Dodger manager in 2016, he was named NL Manager of the Year on Nov. 15, 2016, receiving 16 of 30 first-place votes, to join Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda (1983, '88) as the only managers in Dodger history to win the award since its inception in 1983…it was just the sixth time the award went to someone who was in his first full season as a manager…also became the first manager of Asian descent to win the award

• In his first season as the club's manager, he led the Dodgers to an NL West title, becoming just the second rookie manager ever to lead Los Angeles to a division title, joining Tommy Lasorda (1977)

• Honored as the Sporting News' 2016 NL Manager of the Year, becoming just the third Dodger manager to receive the award by the publication, joining Hall of Famers Leo Durocher (1939) and Walter Alston (1955, '59,'63)

• Made his Dodger managerial debut on April 4, 2016 in San Diego with a 15-0 victory over the Padres, the largest margin of victory in a shutout win on Opening Day in MLB history

• Named the 28th manager in Dodger franchise history on Nov. 23, 2015…is the 10th skipper in Los Angeles Dodger history and the fourth to both play and manage for the team, joining Tommy Lasorda, Bill Russell and Glenn Hoffman

• Became the first manager of color in Dodger franchise history

• Following the conclusion of his playing career, spent the 2010 season in San Diego's front office, before becoming the Padres' first base coach from 2011-13… served as San Diego's bench coach for the 2014 and 2015 campaigns…managed the Padres for one game on June 15, 2015, following the departure of Bud Black

Playing Career

• Played in the Majors for 10 seasons, debuting with the Cleveland Indians on Aug. 7, 1999…played for the Indians (1999-2001), Dodgers (2002-04), Red Sox (2004), Padres (2005-06) and Giants (2007-08)

• In 832 career games, batted .266 with 243 stolen bases, including a career high 49 in 2006…also hit a career-best .293 with San Diego in 2006

• Was the Dodgers' starting center fielder from 2002-04, hitting .262 in 302 games and stealing 118 bases in 143 attempts (82.5%)

• Was traded by the Dodgers to the Red Sox at the 2004 trade deadline, and then famously stole second base off the Yankees' Mariano Rivera in the ninth inning of Game 4 of the 2004 ALCS…the steal put him in position to score the tying run later in the frame as Boston became the first team in MLB history to rally from a 3-0 series deficit in the Postseason and win a seven-game series

Career Summary

* On the heels of his first full season as a shortstop, enters his 13th Major League season riding a .290/.369/.512/.881 slashline

* Named MLB's 2025 winner of the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award, bestowed upon the Major Leaguer who best represents the values Clemente: extraordinary character, community involvement, philanthropy and positive contributions both on and off the field

* Ranks fourth among active players with 75.2 WAR, per Baseball Reference, and second among position players behind Mike Trout (87.5)

* Stands within reach of several major milestones: 400 doubles (394), 300 homers (291), 1,000 RBI (913) and 200 stolen bases (196).

* Poised to become the 19th player in MLB history with 400 doubles, 300 homers and 200 stolen bases … and the 16th such player also with 1,200 runs

* Since the year of his MLB debut in 2014, leads MLB in runs while ranking fourth in doubles and seventh in hits

* Has earned several league accolades throughout his big-league time: MVP (2018), All-Star (2016-19, 2021-24), Silver Slugger (2016, 2018-20, 2022-24), Gold Glove (2016-20, 2022), All-MLB First Team (2020, 2022-24), and Wilson Defensive Player of the Year (2016, 2018)

* In 2018, became the only AL player to ever win the World Series and earn MVP, Gold Glove and Silver Slugger awards in a single season

* Owns eight career games with at least four hits and at least five RBI (most recently September 10), tied with Hall of Famers Joe DiMaggio and Al Simmons for third-most all-time, trailing Hall of Famers Lou Gehrig (10) and Charlie Gehringer (9).

* Only player in MLB history to steal 20+ bases and hit 40+ doubles in four consecutive seasons

* With 19 career postseason doubles, leads all Dodgers in franchise history

* In 2022, became the first Dodger with at least 35 home runs and 40 doubles in a season since Babe Herman accomplished the feat in 1930…also the only Dodger in franchise history to record 40+ doubles and 35+ homers in back-to-back seasons (2022-2023)

* His 12 HR in May 2022 tied the Dodger record for most in May with Roy Campanella…his 22 extra-base hits were the most in franchise history during the month of May

* Hit for the cycle on August 9 at Toronto, the only MLB player to do so in 2018…singled in the first inning, tripled in the second, doubled in the fourth and homered in the ninth to become the 21st player in Red Sox history to accomplish the feat

* Made his Major League debut on June 29, 2014 at New York (AL) and recorded his first major league hit that same night with a single off Chase Whitley in the fourth inning

* Slugged his first big league home run on July 2, 2014 against Chicago (NL) off RHP Carlos Villanueva…later belted his first career grand slam on August 29, 2014 at Tampa Bay against RHP Chris Archer

* Drafted by the Boston Red Sox in the 5th round of the 2011 MLB June Amateur Draft…signed by Danny Watkins

Year-By-Year

• By winning the 2025 Roberto Clemente Award, he joined Justin Turner (2022), Clayton Kershaw (2012) and Steve Garvey (1981) as previous Dodgers to win the honor.

• After entering the season with 73 career starts at shortstop, started 148 games at the position and became an NL Gold Glove finalist, as well as winning the Fielding Bible Award

• Hampered by an early season stomach virus that led to a weight loss of approximately 20 pounds, had a career-low .258 batting average, .326 OBP, .406 slugging and .732 OPS – yet still finished second on the Dodgers with 4.9 WAR (Baseball-Reference).

• Blasted a three-run, walk-off homer to cap a two-homer day and a five-run bottom of the 10th inning for the Dodgers to rally past Detroit, 8-5.

• Finished the regular season strong, batting .317/.376/.516/.892 over his final 47 games

• His 8.7 at-bats per strikeout in 2025 was the best mark for the Dodgers (minimum 400 plate appearances) since Aaron Miles (9.3) in 2011

• Recorded multiple RBI in five consecutive games from September 6-10, the longest streak of his career and longest by a Dodger since Matt Kemp also did so in five straight games from September 28-October 3, 2010.

• Named NL Player of the Week for the period ending September 14, going 12 for 26 (.462) with two homers, 10 RBI, three doubles, three walks, seven runs scored, an .808 slugging percentage and a .517 on-base percentage across six games.

• In the NL Wild Card Series against the Reds, went 6 for 9 with a walk and three RBI … his three doubles in Game 2 tied an NL record for a playoff game…for the Dodgers, Jim Gilliam also achieved the feat in 1953 WS Game 4

• Played one inning in right field all season, on an eighth-inning double-switch against the Angels on August 11.

• Utilityman slashed .289/.372/.491 in 116 games with 24 doubles, five triples, 19 home runs, 75 RBI and 16 stolen bases

• Named National League Player of the Month for March/April, slashing .368/.477/.624 with 10 doubles, two triples, six home runs and 23 RBI in 32 games…led players with 100+ plate appearances in batting average, on-base percentage and OPS (1.101)

• Voted a fourth consecutive NL All-Star after slashing .304/.405/.488 in 72 games…did not appear due to injury

• Appeared in each of the Dodgers 16 Postseason games, hitting .290 (18-for-62) with 14 runs, five doubles, four home runs and 16 RBI…went 4-for-6 with a double, a home run and four RBI in Game 4 of the NLCS against NYM

• After the season, was named Silver Slugger for the seventh time in his career and to the All-MLB 1st team for the third consecutive year (fourth overall)

• Played in 152 games, hitting .307 (179-for-584) and finishing with a career-high 39 homers and 107 RBI

• Set a franchise record with his 12 round-trippers leading off a game…ten of his 12 leadoff homers were prior to the All-Star break, which set a new Major League record prior to the break

• Finished among the National League leaders in hits (4th, 179), runs (4th, 126), homers (6th, 39), RBI (5th, 107), extra-base hits (3rd, 80), OBP (4th, .408), SLG (3rd, .579) and OPS (3rd, .987)

• Appeared in 70 games (62 starts) at second base, his most games at the position while with the Dodgers…racked up a .991 fielding percentage, only committing two errors in 225 total chances over 485.0 innings… appeared in right field for a majority of the season (107 G, 77 GS) and also at shortstop (16 G, 12 GS)

• Recorded 40+ doubles and 35+ homers for the second straight season

• Named the NL Player of the Month in August after hitting .455 (51-for-112) while setting the Dodgers record for hits and runs (35) in a calendar month. He became one of four Dodgers in franchise history to hit over .450 in a calendar month with a minimum of 75 at-bats and was just the third player in MLB history with a .450 average, 50+ hits and 10+ HR in a calendar month, joining Lou Gehrig (June 1930) and Babe Ruth (July 1923 and 1924)

• Won his sixth Silver Slugger and third as a Dodger…he joins Mike Piazza (1993-97) as the only two players in franchise history with three or more Silver Slugger awards and he also joins Barry Bonds (12), Mike Trout (9), Manny Ramirez (8), Ken Griffey Jr. (7), Guerrero Sr. (7), Tony Gwynn (7), Juan Gonzalez (6) Kirby Puckett (6) and Sammy Sosa (6) as outfielders that have won the award six or more times

Finished second in voting for the National League Most Valuable Player, receiving all of the second place votes…after driving in two runs on Sept. 23, he has most RBI out of the leadoff spot in MLB single season history (105)…hit 4-for-4 with two runs, two home runs, three RBI, one walk and one stolen base on June 2 against the Yankees, as well as other two other 4-for-4 performances as well as a 5-for-5 game on Aug. 23 at Cleveland…amassed two separate 15-game hitting streaks from July 21-Aug. 8 and Aug. 10-27, hitting .328 and .542 respectively

Year-By-Year

• Tied Jack Dreyer for the most relief innings for the Dodgers with 68 … in 43 relief appearances, faced an average of 6.7 batters per outing.

• Pitched a perfect inning in the Dodgers' Opening Day win in Tokyo on March 18, then again in his first Los Angeles game of the year on March 29 … pitched three hitless innings with six strikeouts in the Dodgers' 7-5, 13-inning win at New York-NL.

• Despite a six-run outing on April 12 against the Cubs, was outstanding through the end of May, with a 2.72 ERA, 1.76 FIP and 42 strikeouts compared to seven walks in 36.1 innings…with the Cubs' game removed, ERA would have been 1.30 in that stretch.

• In back-to-back relief appearances April 27 vs. the Pirates and May 5 at Miami, pitched 7.2 innings and allowed one run with 10 strikeouts, earning the victory in both games…won six of his first seven decisions

• Allowed .719 OPS against RHB, .715 OPS against LHB…allowed a .591 OPS with a 2.79 ERA in 38.2 innings on the road

• Finished the regular season with Triple-A Oklahoma City, going 2-0 with a 3.38 ERA in five games (5.1 innings), walking none and striking out seven

• Included on the Dodgers' NLCS roster vs. the Brewers, but did not pitch

• Started the season in the minor leagues, playing 21 games between Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City…combined to go 6-4 with a 3.35 ERA (33 ER/88.2 IP) while holding batters to a .199 average with 106 walks

• Was out from June 19-July 14 with an oblique injury

• Went 2-0 with a 2.16 ERA (2 ER/8.1 IP) in three Major League outings…struck out five batters in his second career Major League appearance on Sept. 22, tying Michael Grove for the most strikeouts by a

Dodgers reliever in an outing during the season

• Began the season with Advanced-A Great Lakes (8 GS) before spending a majority of the season with Double-A Tulsa (18 G, 13 GS)

• Combined to go 6-7 with a 5.27 ERA (63 ER/107.2 IP) with 120 strikeouts against 55 walks

• Named Midwest League Pitcher of the Week on April 16 after pitching 6.0 scoreless innings with Advanced-A Great Lakes, giving up only two walks and striking out five

• Began the season with Single-A Rancho Cucamonga before being promoted to Advanced-A Great Lakes on May 28

• Combined to go 2-6 with a 5.22 ERA (52 ER/89.2 IP) in 27 games (16 starts) with 110 strikeouts against 46 walks

• Picked up his first professional win on May 20 with Single-A Rancho Cucamonga, tossing 5.0 innings and giving up five hits, one run and one walk while striking out a season-high eight

• Split his first professional season between Rookie-level ACL Dodgers and Single-A Rancho Cucamonga, combining to go 0-0 with a 3.00 ERA (2 ER/6.0 IP) in five games (one start)

Career Highlights

* Southern California native enters his fifth season in Dodger Blue after spending his first 12 years in Atlanta

* Finished the 2025 season first among active players in doubles, hits, total bases, runs, RBI and intentional walks

* Also among active players, sits second in plate appearances, at-bats and singles, third in games, fifth in walks and sixth in home runs

* Has hit two legendary extra-inning homers in the past two World Series…in 2024, the first walk-off grand slam in World Series history in the bottom of the 10th inning of Game 1, then in 2025, a solo walk-off in the 18th inning of Game 3

* Named 2024 World Series MVP after slashing .300/.364/1.000 in five games with a triple, four home runs and 12 RBI…his 12 RBI tied the World Series record (Bobby Richardson, 1960 Yankees) while he also became the second person to hit a home run in the first four games of the World Series (George Springer, 2017 Astros)

* Named the 2020 National League MVP after slashing .341/.462/.640 with a 1.102 OPS across 60 games in the shortened season…scored 51 runs and totaled 37 extra-base hits (23 doubles, one triple, 13 home runs) for 53 RBI and received 28 of 30 first-place votes

* Has racked up the year-end accolades across his 16 Major League seasons: nine-time All-Star (2013-14, 2018-19, 2021-25), All-MLB First Team (2020), MLB Players Choice NL Outstanding Player (2020) and three-time All-MLB Second Team (2019, 2021, 2022

* At the plate, boasts more honors as a three-time Silver Slugger (2019-21), National League Hank Aaron Award winner (2020) and Baseball America MLB Player of the Year (2020)

* For his fielding, he is a Gold Glove winner (2018) and two-time Wilson Defensive Player of the Year (2018-19)

* Three-time National League Player of the Month (September 2016, September 2020, May 2023)

* Named the Dodgers' 2022 Roy Campanella Award winner, given to the Dodger player who best exemplifies the spirit and leadership of the late Hall of Fame catcher

* Has played all 162 games in a single season twice in his career (2016, 2014) while with the Braves…played 161 of 162 games for the Dodgers in 2023, resting only the day after they clinched the NL West title

* In 2,168 career games, has started 2,114 at first base, 16 at third base and three as a designated hitter…has never played third base or designated hitter for the Dodgers…led the NL in games at first base in 2014, 2016, 2018 and 2020

* Has hit for the cycle twice: August 8, 2021 at Miami and again on June 15, 2016 vs. Cincinnati…became the first Braves player in the modern era (since 1900) to hit two cycles in his career

* Made his Major League debut with the Braves on September 1, 2010 against the Mets, going 0 for 3 in his first contest…later collected his first Major League hit on September 5 against the Marlins and smashed his first big league home run on September 21 at Philadelphia off Hall-of-Fame pitcher Roy Halladay

* In his career, has hit .332/.451/.543/.994 with runners in scoring position – the fifth-best OPS among active players – and .342/.366/.594/.960 with the bases loaded

* Originally selected in the second round in the 2007 First-Year Player Draft by the Atlanta Braves

Career Highlights

* Santa Clarita native enters third season with the Dodgers after spending the previous nine with Pittsburgh (2016-18) and Tampa Bay (2018-23)

* With the Dodgers, owns a 13-9 record in 40 starts with a 3.37 ERA and 274 strikeouts in 224.1 innings (11.0 K/9)…among Dodger pitchers with at least 40 starts, holds the lowest WHIP in franchise history (1.01)

* Since 2019, carries a 3.17 ERA in 100 starts …during that time, he has the second-highest K/9 (11.89) in baseball with at least 500 innings, trailing Jacob deGrom (11.92)

* Made his Major League debut on July 7, 2016 with Pittsburgh at St. Louis, tossing 5.1 innings and giving up three hits, four runs, a home run and two walks while striking out five in the loss…singled off Wainwright in his second at-bat for first big-league hit

* Recorded his first Major League win on May 2, 2017 at Cincinnati, giving up four hits, three runs, a homer and four walks while striking out five in six innings…also singled, walked twice and had three RBI at the plate…became the first Pittsburgh pitcher since Al McBean in 1967 to record two walks and three RBI in the same game

* In the fall of 2025, lowered his career playoff ERA to 4.43 in 16 appearances (13 starts)…previously was 2-6 with a 5.72 ERA in 10 Postseason games with Tampa Bay, with two starts coming in the 2020 World Series against the Dodgers (10 R/9.1 IP, 15 K)

* Drafted in the fifth round of the 2011 draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates…picked up his first professional win with Single-A West Virginia on April 29, 2013 against Savannah, firing five scoreless innings and giving up two hits and two walks while striking out seven

• Finished the regular season with a 4-3 record, 3.19 ERA and 10.6 strikeouts per nine innings

• Despite missing 65 games from April 28 through July 8 with right shoulder inflammation, finished fourth on the Dodgers with 90.1 innings and second with 106 strikeouts

• In the playoffs, pitched in six games (five starts) with a 1.69 ERA, allowing four earned runs in 21.1 innings while striking out 25

• Pitched six shutout innings, surrendering five baserunners, in the Dodgers' 2-1, 11-inning, NLDS-clinching Game 4 victory over the Phillies on October 9…followed that with a 5.2-inning, one-run performance in a 3-1 NLCS Game 3 victory over the Brewers on October 16…struck out eight in each game

• Earned the save in the must-win Game 6 of the World Series on October 31, grabbing three outs on only three pitches, the last being the Kike Hernandez-Miguel Rojas double play

• Came out of the bullpen again the next night to throw 2.1 critical innings in the Dodgers' 5-4, 11-inning

Game 7 victory, earning his final three outs on eight pitches including a strikeout

• His top regular season game came on September 8 against Colorado with seven hitless innings and 11 strikeouts, allowing one run on a walk and eventually a sacrifice fly…was one of three seven-inning outings on the year that also included a season-high 12 strikeouts against the Twins on July 23

• Equally effective against RHB (.591 OPS allowed) and LHB (.586)

• Began a rehab assignment with Triple-A Durham on Sept. 7 and made four starts, allowing one run in seven innings pitched with 14 strikeouts

• Threw 50 pitches (32 strikes) in three innings at Cleveland in first MLB start since June 14, 2021, allowing two hits (solo homer, single) to start the third inning

• Five days later at Boston on Oct, 3 at BOS, made his second start and struck out seven out of 11 batters faced in 3.2 scoreless innings

• Started Game 2 of the AL Wild Card Series at Cleveland on October 8, yielding two hits (both singles) in five scoreless innings of a game that remained scoreless until the bottom of the 15th inning

• Recorded a 5-2 record with a 2.65 ERA, holding batters to a .176 average in 14 starts before leaving his June 14 start at CHW after four innings due to a right elbow strain, ending his season…underwent Tommy John surgery August 4, performed by Dr. Keith Meister in Arlington

• At the time of his injury, ranked second in the majors with 123 strikeouts behind CLE Shane Bieber (130) and sixth in the AL with a 2.66 ERA

• According to Stats LLC, became the third pitcher in the modern era (since 1900) to have at least 29 strikeouts and no more than one run allowed over their first three starts of a season…joined Philadelphia's Curt Schilling (one run, 34 strikeouts) and Boston's Pedro Martínez (one run, 32 strikeouts) both in 1998

• Limited batters to a .083 avg. (7-for-84) in at-bats ending with the curveball and led the majors at the time of his injury with 58 strikeouts on the curveball despite using the pitch only 13.7 pct. of the time

• Breaking pitches combined for 143 swings-and-misses, third in the majors at the time of his injury behind Cleveland's Shane Bieber (191) and the Dodgers' Clayton Kershaw (174)

• Had double-digit strikeouts in all six home starts, totaling 66 SO in 43.2 IP at Tropicana Field

• Recorded double-digit strikeouts and allowed five hits or fewer in his first five home starts…according to Stats LLC, the only other pitcher since 1900 to do so in five consecutive home starts at any point in a single season was Minnesota's Johan Santana over six starts in 2004

• Went 3-1 with a 1.67 ERA (7 ER/37.2 IP) in six starts during April…his 56 strikeouts in April were the most in club history, passing Chris Archer (43) in April 2016 and second for any calendar month in Rays history behind Archer (58) in May 2017

• On April 1 at MIA, took a no-decision in his first career Opening Day start despite allowing one baserunner in six innings, a 76 mph first-inning infield single by Jesús Aguilar

• During pandemic-shortened season, led the team with 57.1 innings and 91 strikeouts…tied for 2nd with five wins behind Pete Fairbanks (six)

• His 91 whiffs were fourth in the AL behind Cleveland's Shane Bieber (122), the White Sox' Lucas Giolito (97) and the Yankees' Gerrit Cole (94)

• Led majors (min. 50 innings pitched) with 14.28 strikeouts per nine innings, the second highest figure in club history behind Brad Boxberger (14.47) in 2014

• According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 81 strikeouts through his first 50 innings pitched of the season were the 2nd-most by a starting pitcher in major league history behind Bieber (82), also in 2020

• Went 5-0 with a 3.00 ERA (14 ER/42.0 IP) and 64 SO in his last seven starts beginning on Aug. 19, lowering his season ERA from 7.04 to 4.08…ended the season with at least seven strikeouts in eight straight starts, the longest such streak in club history

• On Aug. 25 vs. Baltimore, recorded a career-high 13 SO, the most by a Rays pitcher since Blake Snell (13) on April 2, 2019 vs. Colorado

• Limited batters to a .120 avg. (10-for-83) in at-bats ending with the curveball, fifth in the majors (min. 25 at-bats), and recorded 48 strikeouts on a swing-and-miss against his curveball, most in the majors

• In Games 1 and 5 of the World Series against the Dodgers, allowed 10 runs in 9.1 innings, 14 runs in 15.1 innings, including five home runs… went 2-3 with a 6.28 ERA in six starts overall in the Postseason

• In Game 2 of the ALDS vs. the Yankees, recorded a Rays postseason-record 10 strikeouts, but Giancarlo Stanton hit a solo homer to lead off the second inning and a three-run homer in the fourth

• Finished his first full season with Tampa Bay 6-1 with a 1.78 ERA (12 ER/60.2 IP) in 12 starts…Rays went 10-2 in those games

• On April 10 at Chicago-AL, recorded a career-high 11 strikeouts and became the third pitcher since 2000 to whiff that many after a first-pitch temperature of 38 degrees or less…hit 100.4 mph on his fastball

• Named AL Pitcher of the Month for March/April, marking the third straight regular-season month a Rays pitcher won the award, following AL Cy Young Award winner Blake Snell in August and September 2018

• Before suffering a right forearm strain in mid-May ranked among AL leaders (min. 40 IP) in ERA (1.86, 1st), WHIP (0.91, 2nd), BB/9 (1.68, 3rd), K/BB (6.11, 3rd) and HR/9 IP (0.56, 7th)

• Reinstated from the 60-day IL on September 8, with a 1.46 ERA in 12.1 innings afterward

• In his postseason debut in Game 1 of the ALDS at Houston, his only runs allowed in 4.1 IP came on a two-run homer by José Altuve, his last batter faced, to break a scoreless tie…in the decisive Game 5, yielded four runs on five hits in the first inning

• Went 6-0 with a 1.47 ERA (7 ER/43.0 IP) and 46 strikeouts through his first seven starts, becoming the second AL pitcher since ERA became an official stat in 1913 to go 6-0 (or better) with a sub-1.50 ERA and at least 45 strikeouts over his first seven starts, joining Boston's Roger Clemens (1991)

• Began the season with Pittsburgh before being acquired by Tampa Bay at the non-waiver trade deadline

• His 34 appearances with the Pirates were all in relief, going 1-2 with a 4.34 ERA (27 ER/56.0 IP), striking out 72 batters against 34 walks

• At the time of the trade, ranked third among NL relievers in strikeouts behind Milwaukee's Josh Hader (99) and Colorado's Adam Ottavino (77)…his 19 relief apps of at least two innings pitched were most in the majors

• Made 11 appearances, all starts, with Tampa Bay, going 1-5 with a 4.20 ERA while holding batters to a .208 average

• On August 1 vs. the Angels, made his Rays debut in his first start since September 13, 2017 at Milwaukee…his only run allowed was a first-inning solo homer to Kole Calhoun

• On September 17 at Texas, recorded his first win with the Rays, going six innings for the longest scoreless start of his career…did not allow a hit until Isiah Kiner-Falefa singled with two outs in the 5th inning… both hits allowed were infield singles

• Allowed one run or fewer in five of his 11 starts with the Rays…yielded three hits or fewer in six of his 11 starts and two hits or fewer in five starts

• Excluding openers, was the first pitcher in franchise history to begin his Rays career with four consecutive starts of three hits or fewer

• On August 7 vs. Baltimore, recorded a career-high nine strikeouts, becoming the second Rays pitcher with at least nine strikeouts in an outing of four innings or fewer, following Scott Kazmir on May 17, 2007 vs. Texas

Career Highlights

* Hard-throwing right-hander enters his seventh big league campaign and sixth season as a Dodger after missing spending all of the 2025 season on the Injured List, following labrum surgery on his right shoulder on November 14, 2024

* Last pitched for the Dodgers on October 30, 2024, his third appearance of the 2024 World Series, allowing one run in a total of 2.1 innings during the Fall Classic

* Has a career 1.85 ERA in 25 postseason games, with 16 strikeouts and 23 baserunners allowed (no home runs) in 23.1 innings

* Pitched eight consecutive postseason games without allowing a run or inherited runner to score from Game 5 of the 2021 NLCS through Game 3 of the 2024 World Series...capping a 19-inning October stretch with a 0.47 ERA

* Has pitched in seven regular season games since the end of the 2023 season, also missing most of 2024 with shoulder and hamstring issues

* Enjoyed a standout year in 2023, with a 1.20 ERA that was the fourth lowest in Dodger history with a minimum of 40 innings pitched, behind Hung-Chih Kuo and Eric Gagné

* Did not surrender an earned run in his last 25.0 innings to end the season (July 25-September 29), the longest scoreless streak by a Dodgers reliever since the team moved to Los Angeles in 1958

* Set career highs in 2023 in wins (4), ERA (1.20), games (68), innings (67.1), strikeouts (48) and saves (7)

* In 72 minor league games, most recently in 2024 rehab appearances, he has a 23-8 record with a 2.84 ERA and 1.04 WHIP and 9.76 K/9 (254 strikeouts in 234.1 innings)

* Signed by the Minnesota Twins as an undrafted free agent on August 29, 2014 by scout Jose Leon

• Spent the year rehabilitating from right shoulder surgery performed by Dr. Neil ElAttrache

2024

• Passed the majority of the season on the injured list with right shoulder inflammation from March until August and a hamstring strain from early August until September

• In seven games with the Dodgers, went 0-0 with a 2.45 ERA (2 ER/7.1 IP) with seven strikeouts, including seven shutout innings from September 20-24

•Appeared in three World Series games, tossing 2.1 innings and giving up two hits, one earned run, four walks and one strikeout

• Posted a 64.4-percent groundball rate in 2023 which was fourth-highest in the majors with a minimum of 40 innings pitched…Induced 11 double plays on the year which ranked second behind Clayton Kershaw (16), despite pitching only 67.1 innings

• Picked up his first save of the season on April 23 against the Cubs, firing 2.0 scoreless innings while only allowing three hits

• Held opponents to a .213 batting average with runners in scoring position

• In the NLDS vs. Arizona, pitched three shutout innings over two games, tying a regular-season high with two innings in Game 2

• Spent majority of the season with the Dodgers, pitching in just four games for Triple-A Oklahoma City on a rehab assignment for right shoulder inflammation

• Recorded his first big league save on June 26 vs. the Atlanta Braves…the first of four saves in five opportunities on the season

• Struck out three batters in a perfect two innings on May 21 at Philadelphia

• For the second straight year, threw two innings four times and allowed no runs…in one of those games, stranded two inherited runners to save an 11-9 victory at Chicago on Jul 10

• Limited right-handed batters to a .165 batting average and kept hitters to a .180 average on the road

• Placed on Injured List retroactive to July 11 due to right shoulder inflammation and sent to Triple-A Oklahoma City Dodgers on August 12 for rehab assignment

• Allowed two hits and one unearned run in two postseason games, in the NLDS vs. San Diego

• Pitched for both the Dodgers and Triple-A Oklahoma City during season…recalled August 3 to the big club and spent the rest of the season in the majors

• Appeared in eight Dodger postseason games, allowing one earned run over 9.0 innings and striking out struck out seven batters without issuing a walk… held the opposition to a .129 batting average

• Pitched two shutout innings four times, including perfect outings July 25 vs. the Rockies and August 11 at Philadelphia

• Was tough on the road, garnering a 1.42 ERA (3 ER/19.0 IP) with 15 strikeouts while limiting hitters to a .176 average

• Faced bases-loaded situations in six games and did not relinquish a hit…limited hitters to a .189 average across 24 instances with runners in scoring position

• Over 17 games (16.2 innings) with Triple-A Oklahoma City, held hitters to a .194 average with 10.8 strikeouts per nine innings

• In his first season with Los Angeles, held opponents to a .225/.273/.288 slash line, allowing just three extra-base hits (two doubles, one home run)…limited right-handers to a .164 batting average (9-for-55)

• Tied with Kansas City's Josh Staumont with the Majors' fastest average sinker at 99.3 MPH and threw the second fastest average four-seamer at 98.8 MPH (behind Dustin May, 99.1) among pitchers with a minimum of 250 pitches

• Used twice as an opener, allowing one run in 2.0 innings in that role in starts vs. Houston (September 13) and at San Diego (September 16)

• In his Dodger playoff debut, tossed scoreless relief in eight of his nine Postseason appearances, posting a 3.52 ERA with one save, a 0.91 WHIP and a .207 opponents' batting average

• Did not allow a run in his three World Series appearances (2.0 IP)

• Made his big league debut on September 1 at Detroit, tossing a scoreless inning of relief with a strikeout

• Earned his first Major League win on September 14, 2019 at Cleveland, pitching 2.0 scoreless innings with no hits, no walks and three strikeouts in a Twins 9-5 victory

• Entered the season ranked third among Minnesota prospects according to Baseball America

• Combined to go 7-0, 1.92 ERA (13 ER/61.0 IP) with 23 walks, 61 strikeouts, a .179 opponents' batting average and one save in 18 games (11 starts) between Triple-A Rochester, Double-A Pensacola and the GCL Twins…named a Mid-Season All-Star for Double-A Pensacola

• Missed nearly 10 weeks with a shoulder impingement from May 25-August 7

• Combined to go 8-4 with a 2.74 ERA (31 ER/102.0 IP) and 107 strikeouts in 19 games with Single-A Cedar Rapids and Advanced-A Fort Myers

• Named Midwest League Mid-Season All-Star after going 2-2, 2.48 ERA (36.1 IP/10 ER) with six walks and 42 strikeouts in seven starts before the All-Star break

• Spent two stints on the 7-day Injured List from May 8-14 with back spasms and May 30-June 6 with a right hand contusion

• Returned from elbow surgery on August 26 and finished the season with a 4-1 record and a 2.70 ERA (12 ER/40.0 IP) and 45 strikeouts in 10 games (seven starts) with the GCL Twins and Rookie level Elizabethton

• Ranked the fifth-best prospect in the Twins system by Baseball America

• Spent the entire season recovering from Tommy John surgery

2015

• Made his professional debut on June 3 for the DSL Twins, tossing 3.0 innings while allowing five hits and striking out five batters

• Went 0-1 with a 2.45 ERA (3 ER/11.0 IP) but had his season cut short after undergoing Tommy John surgery on his right elbow on June 20

Career Highlights

* Versatile utility man returns for his 13th season overall and 10th with the Dodgers after reupping with the team February 11 on a one-year deal

* Starts the season on the 60-day Injured List following November surgery to repair a torn extensor muscle in his left elbow, an injury originally suffered in May

* Among current Dodgers, ranks second in career games for the franchise with 920, trailing Max Muncy's 924

* Well-established October hero has a career slashline of .272/.339/.486/.826 in postseason games with 16 home runs, 14 of those as a Dodger

* In Game 2 of the 2025 World Series, passed Justin Turner for most postseason games by a single Dodger in franchise history with 87 (now has 92)

* In the ninth inning of Game 6 of the 2025 World Series, made a sprinting catch in shallow left field and threw to Miguel Rojas, doubling Addison Barger out at second base and sending the series to Game 7

* In a monster 2021 Postseason for Boston, went 20 for 49 with five homers for a .408/.423/.837/1.260 line

* As the Dodgers clinched the 2017 National League pennant with an 11-1 NLCS Game 5 win over the Cubs, hit three home runs with seven RBI, including a grand slam…one of 12 three-homer games by a player in MLB playoff history, the past three by Dodgers (Chris Taylor, 2021 NLCS Game 5 and Shohei Ohtani, 2025 NLCS Game 4)

* Also one of 10 players all-time with a five-hit game in the Postseason…with the Red Sox, went 5 for 6 with two doubles in a 14-6 ALDS Game 2 victory over Tampa Bay in 2021

* In the regular season, has appeared at every defensive position except for catcher at the Major League level, with 314 starts in center field, 221 at second base, 132 at shortstop, 106 at third base, 79 in left field, 37 in right field and 35 at first base (as well as two as a designated hitter)

* Owns a 12.60 career ERA in 10 appearances as a pitcher, including five in 2015…had three consecutive scoreless outings (September 14, 2024; April 29, 2025; May 31, 2025)

* After throwing three pitches in the 52-55 mph range, caught Christian Koss of the Giants looking at an 86.9 mph fastball on June 14, 2025 for his only career strikeout

* Was a member of Team Puerto Rico in the 2017 World Baseball Classic, and hit .267 (4-for-15) with one run, one triple and two RBI in six games

* Traded twice during the 2014 calendar year, moving from the Astros to the Marlins on July 31 in a six-player deal and being acquired by the Dodgers on December 10 in a seven-player swap

* Made his Major League debut on July 1, 2014 with Houston vs. Seattle, knocking an RBI double off Dominic Leone in his first at-bat and going 2-for-2 after entering the game in the seventh inning

* Selected by the Astros in the sixth round of the 2009 First-Year Player Draft

Year-By-Year

• According to Opta Stats, he is the only MLB player in the modern era to score multiple runs, play multiple positions and have a scoreless outing on the mound all in a game he did not start (April 29 vs. Miami)

• Had his best month in May, slashing .300/.364/.460 with two doubles, two home runs and five RBI

• Tallied seven total bases with a single, double and homer in the Dodgers' 14-11 victory at Arizona on May 9…hit a pivotal RBI double in the squad's six-run ninth inning and scored on a Max Muncy single that tied the game at 11-all

• On May 31 vs. the Yankees, joined teammate Shohei Ohtani as the only two players in baseball to hit at least 10 home runs while making at least four pitching appearances

• Missed time from July 7 through Aug. 25 with left elbow inflammation, which ultimately led to postseason surgery

• Knocked two hits in five different October games, NLWC Games 1-2, NLCS Games 1-2 and the 18-inning Game 3 of the World Series

• A dynamo in the postseason for the World Champs, batted .294/.357/.451/.808 in 14 games …had his best game in Game 3 of the NLCS, going 2-for-5 with two runs, a home run and two RBI

• Playoff performance followed a regular season-best month of September, hitting .308 (16-for-52) in 20 games with three home runs and nine RBI

• Slashed .191/.258/.299 in 71 games before the All-Star Break compared to .274/.307/.458 in 55 games after the break

• Appeared in five games for Puerto Rico in the World Baseball Classic, slashing .300/.391/.400

• Drove in the tiebreaking run in the top of 10th inning of a 3-2 Boston triumph over the Yankees on June 11

• After playing 313 games with the Red Sox since the start of 2021, came back to the Dodgers via trade and went 2 for 4 in his return vs. Toronto on July 26

• Boasted four games where he went 3 for 5, three of those contests with Los Angeles

• Led the Red Sox in batting average with runners in scoring position (.316, 31-for-98)

• Spent 60 games on the Injured List due to a right hip flexor strain from June 8-August 15

• On September 6, agreed to a one-year contract extension through the 2023 season

2021

• Led MLB hitters in the playoffs with 10 extra-base hits (a Red Sox record) and 41 total bases…tied with three others for the lead in home runs

• Caught fire in four games from ALDS Game 2 (vs. the Rays) through ALCS Game 1 (vs. the Astros), going 13 for 21 with four doubles and four home runs (1.972 OPS)

• In the regular season, set career highs in hits (127), runs (84), doubles (35), extra-base hits (58), total bases (228), walks (61) and at-bats (508)

• With 4.9 WAR according to Baseball-Reference, finished second on Boston behind Xander Bogaerts (5.2)

• Batted leadoff in a career-high 118 games, with an OPS of .799 in that slot…hit 19 leadoff home runs, the seventh-highest total in the Majors

• Became the fourth player born in Puerto Rico to bat leadoff for the Red Sox in the team's season opener, joining Wil Cordero (1996), Luis Alicea (1995) and Juan Beniquez (1975).

• Reached safely in 17 consecutive games from June 26-July 17 and in 16 consecutive games from August 8-26

• Hit his seventh career leadoff homer on Patriots' Day (April 19 vs. the White Sox)...is one of two Red Sox players with a leadoff HR on Patriots' Day, joining Ellis Burks in 1988 vs. Texas

• Knocked a team-high nine home runs over 25 games from June 20-July 21, after a 23-game homerless streak

• Became the first Boston player with three leadoff homers in a span of five days: June 27 vs. the Yankees (Gerrit Cole), June 28 vs. the Royals (Danny Duffy) and July 1 again vs. Kansas City (Kris Bubic)

• Also the first Red Sox player in the expansion era (since 1961) to have 10 straight hits go for extra bases, all from the leadoff spot, from July 9-23

• On Opening Day (July 23 vs. San Francisco), went 4 for 5 with a homer and career-high five RBI... became the first Dodger since Raul Mondesi (1999) to record 4+ hits and 4+ RBI on Opening Day (also Rick Monday, 1978)…second consecutive year with at least one Opening Day homer

• During the regular season, hit .344 (11-for-32) when runners were in scoring position, with three HR and 17 RBI

• In Game 7 of the NLCS, hit a game-tying, pinch-hit HR in the bottom of the sixth inning, only the second pinch-hit HR in a Game 7 of any series in postseason history (also Troy O'Leary, 2003 NLCS)…homered twice in the NLCS overall

• Played in all 17 postseason games for the World Champions

• Became the fifth Dodger to hit two homers on Opening Day, joining Roy Campanella (1954), Raul Mondesi (1995 and 1999), Yasmani Grandal (2017) and Joc Pederson (2019)

• Hit his second career grand slam in the seventh inning on June 18 against San Francisco

• Stole two bases in a game for the only time in his career two nights later against the Giants…the steals of second and third base (with Madison Bumgarner on the mound) came one pitch apart in the first inning

• Launched a pair of three-run, pinch-hit homers, May 27 vs. the Mets and June 27 at Colorado

• On August 22 against Toronto, stroked his first career walk-off hit, an RBI single in the ninth for the team's 12th walk-off victory and second in as many nights

• Finished the second half slashing .277/.345/.415 with 36 hits, nine doubles, three homers and 21 RBI over 44 games

• Appeared in three Postseason games, going 3 for 7 in the NLDS against Washington, including a single and home run in Game 5

• Set career-highs in games played (145) and home runs (21)

• Became the first Dodger in franchise history to play every position (not counting catcher) in a season and was one of three players in 2018 in the Major Leagues to play those eight positions

• Slashed .349/.429/.548/.976 with 26 runs, nine doubles, two triples, four homers and 15 RBI in his final 46 games after the beginning of August…during that span, his batting average ranked third-best in the Majors (min. 150 PA) and his .976 OPS ranked ninth

• With the Dodgers having run out of pitchers in the 16th inning at Philadelphia on July 24, made his first career pitching appearance and allowed a three-run walk-off home run by Trevor Plouffe… according to STATS, he became the first full-time position player in MLB history to surrender a walk-off home run.

• In a rare October struggle, appeared in 15 postseason games for the Dodgers, going 5 for 41 (.122) with two homers and three RBI

• Attained Postseason legend status with his three home runs in Game 5 of the NLCS to send the Dodgers to the World Series with an 11-1 victory against the Cubs at Wrigley Field

• Became the first Dodger to belt three homers in a single Postseason game and just the 11th Dodger to record a multi-homer game in a Postseason contest

• Also the fifth player in big league history to hit three homers in a series-clinching Postseason win, joining Babe Ruth (1928 WS), Reggie Jackson (1977 WS), Adam Kennedy (2002 ALCS) and Adrian Beltre (2011 ALDS)

• Stroked a grand slam in the third inning, becoming just the fourth Dodger in franchise history to hit a grand slam in a Postseason game, joining James Loney (2008 NLDS Game 1), Ron Cey (1977 NLCS Game 1) and Dusty Baker (1977 NLCS Game 2)

• Set an NL playoff record and tied the MLB playoff record with seven RBI, joining Edgar Martinez (1995 ALDS Game 4), Mo Vaughn (1998 ALDS Game 1), John Valentin (1999 ALDS Game 4) and Troy O'Leary (1999 ALDS Game 5)

• In the regular season, hit two home runs on July 16 at Chicago-AL, recording his second career multi-homer game

• Prior to the beginning of the season, he joined Team Puerto Rico in the 2017 World Baseball Classic, going 4-for-15 (.267) with one run, one triple and two RBI in six games…the team lost in the finals at Dodger Stadium against Team USA

• Registered his first career multi-home run game on April 15 against the Giants, slugging his first career leadoff home run in the first inning and a solo shot in the third, both off Madison Bumgarner…also doubled to finish the game with 10 total bases

• Placed on the DL with a left ribcage inflammation from June 29-July 31, missing 26 games

• Opened the season with Triple-A Oklahoma City before being called up to the Majors for good on April 28

• Missed nearly a month with a left hamstring strain, August 31-September 28

• Saw his first postseason action and started four NLDS games against the Mets, going 4 for 13 (.308)

with a stolen base and three runs scored

• On November 4, underwent an arthroscopic debridement of his right shoulder, performed by Dr. Neal ElAttrache in Los Angeles

• Selected to Major League roster on July 1 by Houston and made MLB debut that night vs. Seattle, knocking an RBI double off Dominic Leone in his first at-bat and going 2 for 2 after entering the game in the seventh inning as a defensive replacement

• Blasted his first homer, a solo shot off Chris Young, in his first start (at DH) on July 2…after being traded to the Marlins, launched his first grand slam in the ninth inning of the second game of the team's September 26 doubleheader at Washington, off Nats reliever Craig Stammen

Career Highlights

* Stunned baseball fans everywhere by holding Toronto scoreless from the 15th to 18th innings in Game 3 of the 2025 World Series, before Freddie Freeman's walk-off home run

* After allowing nine runs in 7.1 innings in 2024, enjoyed regular-season success with the Dodgers after coming to the organization in June trade with Seattle, delivering a 2.35 ERA over 15.1 innings (14 games) with 21 strikeouts, all career bests.

* Red-bearded righty has pitched in 22 MLB games overall across two seasons for the Royals, Athletics and Dodgers, posting a 5.16 ERA with 28 strikeouts against 16 walks in 22.2 innings.

* • Across five seasons in the minors, is 14-12 with a 5.33 ERA in 195 games, striking out 388 in 265.1 innings (13.2 K/9) while walking 202.

* • Selected by the Royals in the fifth round (135th overall) of the 2020 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

Year-By-Year

2025

• After not appearing on the playoff roster in each of the first three rounds, was added to the active squad for the World Series and pitched five shutout innings over two appearances.

• In his first game action in four weeks, pitched a shutout inning against the Blue Jays in World Series Game 1

• Emerged as the winning pitcher in Game 3, allowed two singles and a walk while striking out five on 72 pitches (previous high in a game for the Dodgers was 36)…the four innings were the most he had thrown in a game since 2020 at Eastern Illinois…retired 10 of the first 11 batters he faced, then struck out Tyler Heineman on a full-count curveball with the go-ahead runs at second and third base

• Pitched 1.2 shutout innings with a walk and two strikeouts in his Dodger debut on June 21…four days later, threw two shutout innings with three strikeouts.

• Of his 14 regular-season appearances, 11 were scoreless, and 11 went at least one inning as well

• Left-handed batters hit .171/.250/.229/.479 in 40 plate appearances (6 for 35, three walks, no extra-base hits)

• Had a 6.14 ERA in 42 minor-league games, starting with a 7.17 ERA in Tacoma (21.1 innings), followed by a 5.16 ERA in Oklahoma City…was recalled by the Dodgers on three separate occasions during the regular season: June 20, July 1 and September 19

2024

• Made his Major League debut with the Royals on April 28 at Detroit, tossing a scoreless inning of relief with two strikeouts

• Went 1-0 with a 11.05 ERA (9 ER, 7.1 IP) with six walks and seven strikeouts in eight games between Kansas City and Oakland

• Earned first career win on June 2 vs. San Diego, tossing a scoreless ninth inning

• Pitched a perfect ninth and 10th inning on May 22 at Omaha to become the winning pitcher in a 9-8 victory over Columbus

• In the minors, held the opposition to a .184 batting average at Triple-A Omaha, walking 27 batters in 37.2 innings with 38 strikeouts…ranked T-10th in the International League in saves (9).

• Added to Kansas City's 40-man roster on November 14, after a season in which he made 49 appearances across two levels of the organization

• Earned three saves in a six-day stretch from July 23-28

• Represented the Royals organization as the 2023 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game selection

• Logged 43.2 innings over 30 appearances despite an injury that forced him to miss the first six weeks of the season.

2021

• Named an MiLB.com Organization All-Star following his professional debut season, in which he went 7-1 in 36 appearances with a 3.20 ERA (25 ER, 70.1 IP) and 121 strikeouts (15.5 K/9) with High-A Quad Cities

• Struck out 121, the most in Minor League Baseball by pitchers who did not record a start

• Whiffed six batters on five separate occasions

Year-by-Year

• Had two appearances with the big club, one as a starter on April 16 against Colorado and one in relief against the Mets in New York on May 24

• Against the Rockies, took a 7-1 lead into the third inning but then allowed five runs, including a grand slam by Michael Toglia, preceding a solo shot by Mickey Moniak…did strike out seven in his three innings

• In his MLB debut as a reliever, surrendered a run in two innings against the Mets, retiring the final five batters he faced

• Made 11 starts with Triple-A Oklahoma City but none after July 22…pitched out of the bullpen in his final 19 games

• From July 30-August 20, pitched 8.2 innings over eight games without allowing an earned run, striking out eight batters with a 0.46 WHIP…pitched a perfect inning in five of the eight games

• Picked up his first professional save on September 18 against Tacoma, inheriting the tying runs and then striking out the two batters he faced to preserve a 12-10 Comets victory

• Had his best outing in his first game of the season, throwing six scoreless innings with a career-high 11 strikeouts against three baserunners in a 6-3 Dodger win over the Cardinals on March 29

• After three starts, placed on the Injured List retroactive to April 10 with right shoulder inflammation…returned to the major-league active roster on June 19, when he went a season-high 6.1 innings at Colorado

• Made four June-July starts before being optioned to Oklahoma City on July 10…recalled on August 17 and made six MLB starts over the remainder of the season

• Picked up the win in his Major League debut against Atlanta on May 23 after spinning five innings and giving up four hits, one run and one walk while striking out five

• Allowed one run over six innings against Washington in his next start, becoming the first Dodger rookie win in his first two career starts since Jose De Leon in 2016

• Had back-to-back, scoreless six-inning starts on June 4 against the Yankees and June 10 at Philadelphia, allowing nine baserunners in the 12 innings while striking out 14

• Had the longest scoreless innings streak for the Dodgers this season with 20…through the first four games of his MLB career, his ERA was 0.78

• Made his first Postseason appearance, starting Game 2 of the 2023 NLDS…gave up four hits, three runs and two walks in 1.2 innings while striking out two in a 4-2 loss to the Diamondbacks

• Started the 2022 All-Star Futures Game at Dodger Stadium on July 16 as a representative of Double-A Tulsa, punching out three of the five batters he faced… gave up one hit and one walk in his inning

• In his final start for Tulsa, pitched 7.1 shutout innings vs. Midland on August 14, striking out nine…promoted to Triple-A Oklahoma City two days later

• Struck out a career-high 14 batters in six innings vs. Round Rock on September 1 for the Comets, including eight strikeouts in a row

• In his first professional season, saw action across two levels, Advanced-A Great Lakes and Double-A Tulsa

• Earned his first pro win on July 4 at Fort Wayne, pitching in relief for 4.2 innings while giving up one earned run on three hits and a walk, striking out five

• Had his best month in July, registering a 2-1 record across four games (two starts) with a 1.62 ERA and 19 strikeouts

• Spent time on the injured list from August 5-September 2…promoted to Tulsa on September 8

• Pitched with the Glendale Desert Dogs in the AFL and was named a Rising Star

* Enters his 11th pro season and ninth with the Dodgers, ranking seventh in franchise history in career home runs and fourth in Los Angeles history with 209 home runs, behind Eric Karros (270), Ron Cey (228) and Steve Garvey (211) … would move into second place if he hits 20 homers this year

* Also begins the year fourth in walks with 575 and eighth in RBI with 587…with 76 games this year, would become the 21st player to reach 1,000 career games in Los Angeles

* All-time Dodger leader in postseason home runs, with his 16th playoff blast of his career in the eighth inning of Game 7 of the World Series igniting the Dodgers' title-winning comeback…also the team's all-time leader in postseason walks with 65, 25 more than second-place Mookie Betts

* Has started 441 career games at third base, 249 at first base, 161 at second base, 40 at designated hitter and 13 in right field throughout his career

* Served as the Dodgers' primary third baseman from 2022-25, first baseman in 2019-21 and utility in 2018

* Hit a career-high three homers on May 4, 2024 vs. Atlanta

* Set the MLB record for most consecutive plate appearances reaching base in a single postseason with 12 (tied with Reggie Jackson if multiple postseasons are included)

* Had a breakout season during his first full year with the Dodgers in 2018, leading the team and finishing fifth in the NL with 35 homers and a .582 slugging percentage…participated in the Home Run Derby and was selected for the NL's All-Star Final Vote, where he placed third

* Ended the first 18-inning game in World Series history when he hit a walk-off homer on a full-count pitch by Boston's Nathan Eovaldi for a 3-2 Dodger victory in Game 3 in 2018…went 2 for 6 with two walks in the game

* Made his MLB debut on April 25, 2015 with Oakland vs. Houston and picked up his first big league hit with a seventh inning single off Scott Feldman

* Stroked his first career Major League home run on May 17, 2015 against the White Sox, a two-run shot off Jeff Samardzija

* In 96 career games for the A's, never faced the Dodgers…in his career against the A's, has homered five times in 38 at-bats

* Selected by Oakland in the fifth round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft

2025

• Had two games with two home runs and a career-high seven RBI just 22 days apart, first against the Yankees on May 31 and then on June 22 against the Nationals…marked the fewest number of days between games with 7+ RBI since the Pirates' Ralph Kiner (14 days: June 4-18, 1951)...became the 28th player in MLB history with three career games of at least seven RBI

• Hit a bottom-of-the-ninth, game-tying home run off the Mets' Huascar Brazobán on June 3, with the Dodgers going on to win in 10 innings, 6-5

• Suffered a left knee injury one batter before Clayton Kershaw recorded his 3,000th career strikeout on July 3…returned from the Injured List on August 4 and on the next night, went 4 for 5 with two homers

and four RBI

• Returned to the injured list August 13 with a right oblique strain, then was activated on September 8

• In the eight games between his injured list stints from August 4-12, he slashed .348/.531/.870 with eight hits, four home runs, nine walks and nine RBI

• Against left-handed pitchers, hit .267/.409/.514/.923 with 16 homers in 243 at-bats, alongside 57 walks against 61 strikeouts…hit eight home runs in 51 at-bats in the cleanup spot of the batting order

• With runners in scoring position, slashed .298/.413/.738.1,151 with 11 home runs in 84 at-bats

• Opened the season with hits in all six games in March for the Dodgers, going 8 for 23 with a .906 OPS… was 3 for 8 with two walks in the season-opening series against the Padres in Seoul

• Less than two weeks after his first career-three homer game on May 4, went on the Injured List from May 17-August 19 with a right oblique strain…enjoyed a .925 OPS in 126 plate appearances for the remainder of the season

• In his record-setting postseason streak of reaching base 12 consecutive times, homered and walked twice in his final three PAs of NLCS Game 2, then had a single, homer and three walks in Game 3, followed by three walks and a single in Game 4 before striking out in the eighth inning to end the streak

• Tied a career high with 36 homers and set a career high with 105 RBI…member of the Dodgers' 100-RBI quartet, along with Mookie Betts (107), J.D. Martinez (103) and Freddie Freeman (102)

• Became the second Dodger to have at least four seasons of 35+ home runs (Duke Snider, 1953-1957)

• Let MLB hitters with 11 home runs in April…had his best game of the season on April 10 at San Francisco, launching a three-run home run and a grand slam for seven RBI, to go with a single and walk

• Awarded NL Player of the Week on April 23 after slashing .385/.593/1.222/1.815 with five home runs and seven RBI

• Tallied a career-best five multi-homer games on the season (April 10, April 12, April 22, May 15, July 29)

• Spent April 25-28 on the paternity list, and later June 16-27 on the Injured List with a left hamstring strain

• Appeared in all three NLDS games against Arizona, hitting .182 (2-for-11) with one walk and four strikeouts

2022

• Finished third in the Majors and first on the Dodgers with 90 walks…third on the Dodgers in home runs with 21

• Notched a season-long eight-game hit streak from September 2-13, batting .394 (13 for 33) with four homers and 10 RBI

• Hit a go-ahead two-run double against the White Sox in the fifth inning on June 9, followed by a three-run homer in the very next inning, for a season-high five RBI

• Roped two homers with 10 total bases (both season highs) on September 6 against the Giants

• In the NLDS against San Diego, went 4 for 14 with a double, home run and two walks (.946 OPS)

• Led the Dodgers in home runs (36, fourth in NL), RBI (94), walks (83) and runs (95)

• Started 101 games at first base, 31 games at second base and three at third base

• Suffered a torn UCL in the regular season finale October 3 against Milwaukee on a defensive collision at first base, knocking him out of the postseason

• Had two separate streaks reaching base 22 consecutive games, from May 8-June 2 and June 10-July 17…from May 8-July 17, batted .317/.424/.677/1.101 with 16 homers in 48 games, capped by a 4-for-5, two-homer night at Colorado

• Homered in three straight games on two occasions, from May 11-14 and again from June 28-July 1

• In his second career All-Star Game in 2021, started at designated hitter, batting second, and went 0 for 2…grounded to second base against Shohei Ohtani of the Angels in the bottom of the first inning

• Best offensive month was May, producing a .330/.440/.714 clip with 10 home runs, 19 RBI and 23 runs scored

• Landed on Injured List from June 12-22 with a right oblique strain…on paternity list July 23-26

• For the only time in his career, led the Dodgers in games (58) and plate appearances (248), starting 31 games at first base, 14 games at third base and 11 games at second base…the only other Major Leaguer to start double-digit games at all three of those positions was Colorado's Ryan McMahon

• Fourth in the Majors in pitches per plate appearance (4.43)

• Walked 20 times, the second-most in any single postseason (behind Barry Bonds in 2002)…26 of his 80 postseason plate appearances reached a full count

• Hit a grand slam to cap the Dodgers' MLB playoff record-setting 11-run first inning in NLCS Game 3 at Atlanta…reached base four times in the 15-3 victory

• In the World Series against the Rays, went 7 for 22 with a home run and five walks (.944 OPS)…homered off future teammate Tyler Glasnow for the final run of the Dodgers' 4-2 Game 5 victory

• Played every defensive inning during the postseason

• Made his first Opening Day roster and hit his first Opening Day homer in his second season with the Dodgers…hit 35 homers for the second year in a row

• Reached base a career-high 34 consecutive games from May 17-June 25, with a .994 OPS in that stretch

• Came off the bench to play second base in the 2019 All-Star Game at Progressive Field in Cleveland after his first All-Star selection of his career…went 0 for 2 but served as the middleman between Paul DeJong and Pete Alonso on two double plays

• Went to the Injured List from August 29-September 13 with a right wrist fracture

• Enjoyed a massive game August 4 at San Diego, going 4 for 5 with two doubles, including a two-out, full-count, eight-pitch, walk-off two-bagger off Kirby Yates to rally the Dodgers from a 10-9 deficit to an 11-10 win

• Homered in a career-best five consecutive games from August 15-21, walking seven times with an HBP in the process…capped the streak with a walk-off homer in the 10th inning against Toronto for a 2-1 Dodger win

• In the NLDS against the Nationals, drove in three runs in Game 1, then homered in three of the next remaining four games, including a first-inning two-run blast in Game 5 off Stephen Strasburg

• Led the Dodgers in home runs (35) despite ranking seventh in games played (137), and also led in slugging percentage (.582)

• Across the NL, ranked third in OPS, fifth in slugging percentage, tied for fifth in home runs and first in at-bats per home run (11.3)

• Saw his first action as a Dodger after entering the season as a non-roster invitee in big-league camp… in his first career plate appearance came in the 11th inning and resulted in a pinch-hit single April 17 at San Diego

• The next night, in his first career start for the Dodgers, hit his first homer for the club, a two-run shot off the Padres' Luis Perdomo

• Nearly made the All-Star team after finishing third in the NL's Final Vote, but still participated in the Home Run Derby where he won the first round against the Cubs' Javier Baez before being eliminated by the eventual champion Bryce Harper

• Inaugurated his postgame career with three walks and a three-run homer in Game 1 of the NLDS vs. Atlanta, plus a stolen base

• Appeared in all 16 of the Dodgers' Postseason games, going 10-for-50 (.200) with three homers and six RBI

• His walk-off home run in World Series Game 3 ended the longest Fall Classic game ever in both time (7:20) and innings (18)

• Designated for assignment by Oakland on January 3, remained in the organization as a minor leaguer but was released at the end of Spring Training before signing with the Dodgers

• Spent the entire season with Triple-A Oklahoma City…batted .366 with runners in scoring position and .309 with runners on base

• Made the only three pitching appearances of his pro career, throwing 2.1 scoreless innings while allowing two hits and a walk

• Optioned and recalled by the A's on three separate occasions, remaining in the majors from July 25 to the end of the season

• Knocked a season-best two hits in his first regular-season game of the year, May 21 vs. the Yankees

• Saw his first big league action in his fourth professional season…had only two plate appearances in the Majors vs. left-handed pitchers (0-for-1, BB) with his other 110 PA coming vs. righties

• Opened the season with Nashville, his first career Triple-A action…following his MLB debut, sent from Oakland to Nashville and then back on three subsequent occasions, finishing the campaign in the big leagues

• In the first full month of his MLB career, posted an .828 OPS in May

• During the 2015-16 offseason, went 8 for 25 with a home run for Jalisco in the Mexican Pacific Winter League

• Led the Texas League with a .385 OBP and 87 walks, which tied for fifth in all of minor league baseball…earned a Texas League mid-season All-Star selection

• Named Texas League Player of the Week for July 14-20 after going 10-for-23 (.435) with six runs scored, one double, three home runs, 16 RBI and 10 walks

• Batted .237 with two home runs, three RBI, three walks and seven runs scored in nine postseason games to help Midland win the Texas League Championship

• Began the year at Single-A Stockton before earning a promotion to Double-A Midland July 14…tied for second in minor league baseball in games played and tied for 10th in RBI

• Led the A's farm system in home runs, RBI, walks (88) and total bases (249), ranked third in runs (89), hits (143) and extra base hits (53), fourth in slugging (.476) and fifth in on-base percentage (.381)

• Had a .400 on-base percentage with Stockton, ranking fourth in the California League…was named to the Cal League mid-season All-Star team

• Made his professional debut with Single-A Burlington…led the squad with a .383 OBP

Personal

Maxwell Steven Muncy…married to Kellie with three children: daughter Sophie Kate (born July 2021), son Wyatt James (April 2023) and daughter Macie Grace (January 2026)…graduated from Keller (TX) High School…attended Baylor University, where he was a Freshman All-American (2010), breaking Baylor freshman school records of HR (11) and RBI (53), and was a two-time All-Big 12 Conference selection at first base (2011 and 2012) for the Bears…his namesake, Maxwell Price Muncy, shares the same birthday (12 years younger) and emulated the elder Muncy by also making his MLB debut with Oakland, just under 10 years apart...selected by Oakland in the fifth round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft and signed by scout Armann Brown.

All-Star (5; 2021- 25)

Silver Slugger (4; 2021, 2023-25)

Rookie of the Year (2018)

Career Highlights

* Enters his third Dodger season with four career league MVP awards, second in MLB history behind Barry Bonds (7), and is the only player to win the award unanimously three times, including both times as a Dodger

* Stands as the second player in MLB history to win the award in both leagues after Frank Robinson (Cincinnati 1961, Baltimore 1966)

* Has been named AP Male Athlete of the year three straight years (2023-25) and a record-tying four overall (also Tiger Woods, Lance Armstrong and LeBron James)…only other MLB player to win multiple times is Sandy Koufax (1963, 1965)

* Has been named an MLB First-Team All-Star and Edgar Martinez Outstanding DH of the Year each of the past five years

* Arguably authored baseball's greatest postseason game: three homers at the plate, six shutout innings with 10 strikeouts on the mound in NLCS Game 4 against Milwaukee on October 17, 2025

* Arguably authored baseball's greatest regular-season game: 6 for 6, three homers, 10 RBI, 17 total bases while establishing the 50/50 homer/steal club at Miami on September 19, 2024

* In 2025, hit 55 home runs to break the Dodger record of 54 he set in 2024, becoming the sixth player (seventh occurrence) to hit 50+ homers in consecutive years

* With 109 homers, already ranks 22nd among Dodgers all-time since the team arrived in Los Angeles…needs 53 home runs to catch Shawn Green and Andre Ethier to move into the top 10 (Mookie Betts needs 10)

* Also has the second-most single season home runs in Angels history with 46 in 2021, behind Troy Glaus' 47 in 2000…ranks No. 8 on the Angels' all-time homer list with 171

* Hit for the cycle for the first time in his pro career (including Japan) on June 13, 2019, becoming the first Japanese-born player in Major League history to do so

* Named the 2023 World Baseball Classic MVP after leading Team Japan to the title, batting .435 with a 1.345 OPS while going 2-0 on the mound with a 1.86 ERA, striking out Mike Trout of Team USA for the series-clinching out

* Made his Major League debut in 2018 with the Angels, starting as the designated hitter against the Athletics on Opening Day (March 29) and singling to right in his first career at-bat

* In 13 professional seasons that include five in Japan from 2013-17, has 1,050 hits including 280 home runs, has 165 stolen bases and has pitched 1,093.2 innings with a 2.95 ERA and 1,321 strikeouts

* Came to MLB on a minor league contract with the Angels on December 9, 2017

Year-By-Year

• Filled another shelf in his trophy case as NL MVP, Silver Slugger winner at DH, All-MLB First Team, Edgar Martinez Outstanding DH of the Year, National League Hank Aaron Award and AP Male Athlete of the Year

• Led MLB in runs scored (146) and total bases (380), and led the NL in slugging percentage (.622), OPS (1.014), OPS+ (179) and extra-base hits (89)

• Chosen as NL Player of the Month for May after batting .303/.398/.782/1.180 with 15 homers, 27 RBI and 86 total bases in 27 games…his 15 home runs in May tied the record for most home runs by a Dodger in a month with Pedro

Guerrero (June 1985) and Duke Snider (August 1953)

• Named the 2025 NLCS MVP after crushing three home runs and pitching 6.0 scoreless innings while striking out 10 in Game 4 against Milwaukee…at 469 feet, his second homer of the game cleared the Right Field Pavilion and made him the seventh player (including Willie Stargell twice) and second Dodger (Mike Piazza in 1997) to hit one out of the stadium

• Smashed MLB records by reaching base nine times with five walks (four intentional) in the Dodgers' 18-inning WS Game 3 win over Toronto…also had the game-tying round-tripper in the bottom of the eighth inning as part of his two-homer, two-double night

• Hit 11 home runs in 17 postseason games, including three multi-homer games (also 2025 NLWC Game 1 and 2025 WS Game 3), while going 2-1 with a 4.43 ERA in 20.1 innings with 28 strikeouts on the mound

• Only the second player to hit 50+ home runs and record 50 strikeouts as a pitcher, after Babe Ruth (1921)

• Set the franchise record for runs scored with 146 after setting the previous record of 134 in 2024…became the third player in the last 20 years to score 140+ runs, joining Ronald Acuña Jr. (149, 2023) and Alex Rodriguez (143, 2007)

• Named the All-Star Game starting DH after receiving the most votes in the NL…went 1-for-2

• Became the first player to record 25+ home runs, 10+ stolen bases and 5+ triples before the start of July (according to OPTAstats)

• His three-run homer in the top of the ninth at Arizona on May 9 broke an 11-11 tie and capped a six-run Dodger rally for a 14-11 win

• Joined Ichiro Suzuki and Hideki Matsui as the third Japanese-born player to reach 1,000 hits in MLB with a 440-foot home run on August 6

• Had four games with two home runs, most recently September 7 at Baltimore…drove in six runs with two homers and a sacrifice fly in the Dodgers' 19-2 victory over the Athletics on May 15

• In his first official pitching appearance since August 23, 2023 and first as a Dodger ever, tossed one inning, giving up two hits and one run, on June 16 vs. San Diego

• On July 21 vs. Pittsburgh, hit the first homer by a Dodger pitcher since Hyun-Jin Ryu (September 22, 2019 vs. Colorado)…marked the first time in Major League history that a pitcher both allowed and hit a home run in the first inning

• Got his first win as a Dodger on August 27 against Cincinnati, firing five innings and giving up two hits, one run, a home run and two walks while striking out a season-high nine batters

• Pitched five hitless innings against the Phillies on September 16, striking out five and allowing one baserunner (first-inning walk to Bryce Harper)…followed that performance with six shutout innings at Arizona on September 23 and ended the regular season with 16.2 consecutive scoreless innings

• OPSed 1.010 at home and 1.018 on the road…hit 12 leadoff home runs

• Slashed .310/.390/.646 in 159 games during his first season with the Dodgers, establishing career-high marks in each category…also set career-high marks in hits (197), doubles (38), home runs (54), RBI (130) and stolen bases (59)

• Ranked first in the NL in homers, runs, RBI, OBP, slugging, OPS, plate appearances and total bases…ranked second in stolen bases (59) behind Elly De La Cruz

• On September 19 in Miami, became the first player in Major League history to enter the 50/50 club for homers and steals…went 6 for 6 with three home runs, 10 RBI, two doubles and two stolen bases in the game, breaking the club record of nine RBI held by Gil Hodges (1950) and James Loney (2006) to tally 10 RBI in one game

• Previously cemented himself as the fastest player in MLB history to achieve the 40/40 mark on August 23 with his first career walk-off grand slam…on July 30, became the third Dodger in franchise history to join the 30/30 club, joining Raul Mondesi (1997, 1999) and Matt Kemp (2011)

• From July 23 on, finished the year with 36 straight successful stolen-base attempts

• On April 21, smacked his 176th career home run to become the MLB home run leader among Japan-born players…notched his 200th career home run on July 13 at Detroit

• Was named the NL Player of the Month in September, after slashing .393/.458/.766/1.224 in 26 games with 10 home runs, 32 RBI and 16 stolen bases…was named NL Player of the Week four times throughout the season (May 5, June 23, September 22, September 29)

• Earned his fourth All-Star Game selection after batting .316/.400/.635/1.035 in the first half with 29 homers, 69 RBI, 23 stolen bases and 75 runs scored

• In his first career Postseason, celebrated a World Series title after swatting three home runs and amassing 10 RBI over 16 games for a .230/.373/.393 slashline…before suffering a partial dislocation of his left shoulder on a stolen-base attempt in Game 2, he was hitting .277/.414/.489/.903 in 12 playoff games, then went 1 for 14 with two walks over the final four Fall Classic contests

• Completed another MVP season in his last year with the Angels, leading the AL in home runs, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, OPS, extra-base hits (78) and total bases (325) … on the mound, led AL pitchers in opponents' batting average (.184) while finishing second in strikeouts per nine innings (11.4)

• Threw his first MLB shutout July 27 at Detroit, retiring the first 12 batters before Kerry Carpenter singled to start the bottom of the fifth for the only hit…in the game, struck out eight against three walks in the Angels' 6-0 victory

• Had his best pitching month in April, going 4-0 with a 2.25 ERA in 28 innings with 36 strikeouts against 14 walks while holding batters to a .102 average

• Broke a 5-5 tie in the 12th inning with a homer to left field off Cole Regans at Texas on June 12

• Struck out 12 Dodgers in seven innings on June 21, but a fourth-inning homer by Freddie Freeman gave the Dodgers the run they needed in a 2-0 win over the Angels

• Suffered a torn ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow on August 23 vs. Cincinnati, ending his season as a pitcher…ended the year on a streak of 20.1 scoreless innings

• Sidelined completely as a batter as well after September 3, due to an oblique injury

• Became the only player in MLB history with 10+ pitching wins and 30+ home runs in the same season

• His 15 wins were the most by an Angels pitcher since Garrett Richards in 2015 (15) while his 219 strikeouts were the most since Jered Weaver in 2010 (233)

• As a batter, ranked in Top 10 in the American League in total bases (304, 5th), intentional walks (14, 3rd), extra-base hits (70, T-3rd), slugging (.519, 5th), home runs (34, 4th), OPS (.875, 5th), triples (6, T-4th), RBI (95, 7th), walks (72, 7th) and runs (90, T-8th)

• Named to the All-MLB First Team as a starting pitcher and Second Team as a designated hitter…finished second in the MVP race to the Yankees' Aaron Judge after garnering 280 points in the voting process

• Selected to the All-Star Game as both a pitcher and position player for a second consecutive season, starting the All-Star Game as the AL designated hitter and recording the first leadoff All-Star hit since Mike Trout in 2015

• Tallied six multi-homer games, which tied Troy Glaus's franchise record…set what was then a single-game career high (MLB or NPB) with eight RBI on June 21 vs. Kansas City

• In final 19 games, pitched to a 1.67 ERA over 118.2 innings with 154 strikeouts

• From June 9-July 13, became the fourth pitcher all-time to go 6-0 with at least strikeouts and at most two earned runs allowed in a six-game span, joining Cy Young winners Johan Santana (2004), R.A. Dickey (2012) and Clayton Kershaw (2014)

• The two-way player won his first career AL MVP award (as a unanimous selection, with Vladimir Guererro Jr. finishing second), becoming the first Japanese-born player to win the award since Ichiro Suzuki in 2001

• Led the AL in triples with eight and intentional walks with 20…ranked in the Top 10 in extra-base hits (80, 2nd), slugging (.592, 2nd), OPS (.965, 2nd), home runs (46, 3rd), walks (96, 3rd), total bases (318, T-4th), stolen bases (26, 5th), OBP (.372, 5th) and runs scored (103, 8th)

• Posted gaudy ranks as a pitcher as well, including winning percentage (.818, 1st), opponent batting average (.207, 3rd), K/9 (10.77, 5th) and ranked 10th with a 28.9% swing and miss rate (min. 125 IP)

• In 2021, became the fourth player all-time and first American Leaguer to tally 45 HR, 100 RBI, 100 R and 25 stolen bases in a single season, following Barry Bonds in 1993, Larry Walker in 1997 and Chipper Jones in 1999

• Made 14 pitching starts while also holding at least a share of the Major League home run lead...was the first pitcher to make multiple pitching starts in a season while leading Majors in home runs since Babe Ruth (1919)

• First MLB player to ever be selected to the All-Star Game as both a pitcher and position player...started the All-Star Game as both the AL starting pitcher and starting DH. Going 0 for 2 at the plate but earning the win for the AL after working a perfect first inning against Fernando Tatis Jr., Max Muncy and Nolan Arenado

• Established a new single-season home run record for a Japanese-born player (previously 31 by Hideki Matsui in 2004)…set an AL record with 16 HR in a 21-game span (June 15-July 9) and was the first player in Major League history with 32+ HR and 12+ SB before the All-Star Break

• Went 6-0 with a 1.95 ERA (78.1 innings) and 93 strikeouts in 13 home starts

• Was the first player in MLB history to record 10+ HR as a hitter and 100+ strikeouts as a pitcher in the same season and the first with 20+ stolen bases and 10+ pitching appearances in the same season

• In what was also his toughest season at the plate, limited to two starts as a pitcher after being diagnosed with a grade 1-2 strain of the flexor pronator mass…made his final mound appearance of the pandemic-shortened season on August 2

• Hit a two-run homer in the bottom of the sixth inning August 10 vs. Oakland that tied the game at 9…Angels went on to win, 11-9

• Led the Angels in stolen bases for the second straight season

2019

• By hitting for the cycle on June 13, became the seventh player (eighth occurrence) in Angels history to do so and first since Mike Trout on May 21, 2013 vs. Seattle…hit a three-run homer in the first inning, doubled in the third, tripled in the fifth and singled in the seventh

• Joined Hall of Famer George Sisler (five wins, two cycles) as the only players in the modern era (since 1900) to win multiple games as a pitcher and hit for the cycle in career

• Missed the first 34 games of the season while recovering from Tommy John surgery (activated from the Injured List on May 7)…did not pitch during the season

2018

• Nabbed the AL Rookie of the Year Award, leading AL rookies (min. 300 PA) in OPS, on-base percentage, slugging percentage and at-bats per home run (14.82)...became the seventh rookie in American League history to post a .925 OPS with 10 stolen bases in a single season, joining Mike Trout (2012), Mitchell Page (1977), Fred Lynn (1975), Earl Averill (1929), Ben Paschal (1925) and Joe Jackson (1911)

• Earned his first MLB win April 1 at Oakland (six innings, three runs) and hit his first home run in his next game, April 3 off Cleveland's Josh Tomlin

• Had the first two games of 10 total bases in his MLB career, August 3 at Cleveland and September 5 at Texas – homered and singled twice with three RBI and a stolen base in each contest

• Set an Angels record with 63 strikeouts through first 10 career starts (previous was 56 strikeouts by Bo Belinsky in 1962)

• Recorded 57 of 63 (90.5%) strikeouts on a swinging strike three, which was the highest rate in Majors (min. 50 IP)

• Held opponents to an .036 batting average against his splitter (2 for 55)… opponents had a swing-and-miss rate of 55.8% against the pitch

Career Highlights

* On the heels of his instantly legendary catch in Game 7 of the 2025 World Series, enters his ninth professional season and third on the big-league level

* Awarded the MLBPAA Dodgers Heart and Hustle Award in 2025

* Burst onto MLB's radar with numerous honors in 2019 with Rookie-League Ogden, including Baseball America Rookie All-Star

* Solidified his top prospect status by winning the High-A Central MVP Award with Great Lakes in 2021

* Needed only 16 games at the Triple-A level before earning his first promotion to the Dodgers…made his Major League debut on April 16, 2024, getting a hit on the first pitch he saw…finished the day 1-for-4 with a run

• With the bases loaded and two out in the bottom of the ninth inning of a tied World Series Game 7, sprinted 121 feet in 5.5 seconds (22 feet per second) and saved the Dodgers with a Series-saving catch of a 366-foot drive by Ernie Clement, while crashing into left fielder Kiké Hernández…had only been inserted into the game one batter earlier

• Finished second for the Dodgers in games, home runs and steals…as well as third in hits, doubles, total bases and extra-base hits (tied)

Career Summary

* Venezuelan born infielder returns for his fourth straight season with the Dodgers and fifth overall…made his Major League debut with the Boys in Blue on June 6, 2014, before going to Miami that December in a seven-player deal

* Stunned the baseball world by becoming the first player ever to hit a game-tying home run in the ninth inning of a World Series Game 7… had not had a ninth-inning home run since September 3, 2019 for Miami at Pittsburgh

* Moments later, with the bases loaded and one out in the bottom of the ninth, fired a strike to home plate off his back foot for the game-saving force out

* In his 11th MLB game, memorably saved Clayton Kershaw's no-hitter on June 18, 2014 with a seventh-inning backhanded snag of a ground ball by Troy Tulowitski, firing the ball to first base for the out

* Widely regarded as a clubhouse leader, was voted by his Dodger teammates and coaches as the 2024 and 2025 Roy Campanella Award winner for the player who best embodies the spirit and leadership of the late catcher…was also the Miami Marlins nominee for the 2020 Roberto Clemente Award

* Honored with the first annual BBWAA Los Angeles Chapter Good Guy Award in September 2025, "for his exceptional professionalism, leadership, and helpfulness to media and teammates on and off the field"

* Won similar awards as a Miami Marlin: the MLBPAA Heart and Hustle Award in 2019 and 2021, and the Jeff Conine "Mr. Marlin" award winner by the South Florida BBWAA in 2018 and 2021

* Started his first Major League game on June 8, 2014 at Colorado at third base and notched his first career hit, an RBI single to score Jamie Romak…hit first career home run on July 9, 2014 at Detroit off of Max Scherzer

* Signed as a non-drafted free agent on November 24, 2005 by the Reds by scouts Luis Baez and Maximo Rombley

Year-By-Year

• After going 3 for 5 playing in both games of the Dodgers' NL Wild Card Series sweep of Cincinnati, did not have a hit from October 2-31 before his 387-foot World Series Game 7 blast on November 1…only had one regular-season homer after mid-July, coming on September 19 against the Giants

• Hit the big homer off Toronto right-hander Jeff Hoffman, only his second homer of the year off a same-side pitcher (previously, Logan Porter of San Francisco on June 14)

• Before the season, changed his uniform number to 72 so that teammate Roki Sasaki could have the number 11

• OPSed .879 against southpaws, compared with a .594 OPS against righties

• Had a season-best 3-for-3 night vs. Miami on April 28…hit .348 (8-for-23) in 14 May games with two home runs and four RBI

• Started 23 games at third base, 22 at second base and 10 at shortstop…for the season, charged with four errors in 746 defensive innings

• Went 6 for 14 with a .429/.467/.786/1.252 line as a pinch-hitter, including a pinch-hit homer in the seventh inning at Atlanta

• Pitched in four games for the Dodgers, including the final two innings of a 16-0 loss to Chicago on April 12…pitched shutout ball in his final two outings, allowing two hits and two walks over two innings

• In his first 24 games with a hit (March 29-June 26), Dodgers went 24-0, with the streak ending June 28 at San Francisco…hit .476 (40-for-84) in those games…Dodgers also won his first 16 games with at least one run

• Had a four-RBI game June 29 at San Francisco, his most since 2020…finished the day 3-for-5 with a run scored

• Slashed .323/.357/446 in 19 June games with a home run and 10 RBI

• Spent July 22-August 7 on the Injured List with a right forearm strain

• Started 86 of his 103 games, with 67 starts at shortstop, 11 at second base and eight at third base

• Pitched a shutout inning at Atlanta on September 14, retiring three of four batters on 14 pitches

• Started the first three NLDS games against San Diego before reinjuring his adductor, missing the NLCS but appearing in one game for the World Series…batted .182 on October (2-for-11)

2023

• In his first year back with the Dodgers following eight seasons in Miami, started 91 games at shortstop, producing a .986 fielding percentage, with six errors in 430 total chances over 953.2 innings… played seven innings at second base and two innings at third base

• Tied a career-high with a four-hit performance on September 10 against the Nationals (Last: April 20, 2021 vs. the Orioles)

• Ended the season by producing his best month in September, slashing .300/.338/.429/.767 with two homers and seven RBI

• Made his first career pitching appearance on July 30 against the Reds, going 1.0 inning, giving up two hits and one run…collectively in three appearances, allowed two runs and five baserunners in three innings

• Went 1 for 2 in each of his first two NLDS games vs. Arizona, finishing the series 2 for 6

• In his final season with Miami, led the team in games, plate appearances, at-bats and hits

• Started 132 games at shortstop (136 games played), producing a .987 fielding percentage, committing just seven errors in 531 total chances…also appeared at first base for 10 games

• Stole nine bases, tying his second-highest mark (2019)

• Produced his best offensive month in June, slashing .281/.330/.416/.746 with three doubles, three homers and 11 RBI

2021

• Led the Marlins in games played, plate appearances, hits and doubles

• Had 36 multi-hit games on the season…posted a .768 OPS at home (69 games) compared with .658 OPS on the road (63 games)

• Played shortstop for 128 games (124 starts) for a total of 1073.0 innings, committing 11 errors in 485 total chances

• Missed 18 games from May 28-June 18 with a left index finger dislocation

• Started the pandemic-shortened season 7 for 10 with a home run, double, triple and five RBIs before landing on the Injured List on August 4

• Hit a game-tying three-run home run July 26 against Philadelphia to help win the opening series of the season, part of a 3-for-4, four-RBI game

• In his first at-bat back from the IL on August 21, hit a three-run home run off Washington's Patrick Corbin in the second inning at Nationals Park

• Tied a career-high with four hits (in five at-bats) on September 7 at Atlanta, capped by what proved to be a game-winning double in the top of the 10th inning off A.J. Minter

• Had hits in each of his first three Postseason games, including a home run in the second inning of Game 1 of the Division Series against Atlanta off Max Fried

• Named a Rawling Gold Glove Award finalist at shortstop at the end of the season after making three errors in 165 chances (.982)

• Set a career high in hits…put together a career-long 12-game hitting streak from July 21 through the second game of a doubleheader on August 5 (hit .372/.400/.651/1.051 in 45 plate appearances)

• Left game two of that doubleheader with a right hamstring strain and was placed on 10-day IL on August 7, returning September 1… batted .288 (23-for-80) over his final 19 games of the season

• Homered in three consecutive games from July 27-29, all coming from the leadoff spot, with the first two leading off the game…became the third Marlin (fourth time) to homer in three straight games when batting leadoff, joining Hanley Ramirez (June 29-July 1, 2008; August 4-7, 2007) and Cliff Floyd (April 1-3, 1998).

• Also became the second player in Club history with a leadoff homer in back-to-back games, joining

Hanley Ramirez, who did so on July 17-18, 2006 vs. Washington

• On September 17 at Arizona, went 4-for-6 with three doubles and six RBI, setting a career high in RBI and tying a career best in doubles... became just the second MLB shortstop since 1900 to record at least three doubles and six RBI in a single game (also St. Louis's Ozzie Smith, on June 17, 1993)

• Continued to set career-highs for games and home runs…had homered once in each of his first four MLB seasons before hitting 11 in his fifth season

• First Marlin playing primarily at shortstop to reach 10 home runs since Jose Reyes in 2012 (11)

• Recorded first career walk-off hit on March 30 vs. Cubs (single)

• Launched his first career multi-HR game on May 20 at Atlanta.

2017

• Started the season with the Marlins before being placed on the Injured List on May 8 with a right thumb fracture…activated on July 18

• Went 3 for 3 with a walk on April 14 vs. the Mets, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth for a 3-2 Marlins victory

• Posted first career walk-off RBI with sac fly in 11th inning on August 26 vs. San Diego

• Drove in four runs on September 25 at Colorado

2016

• Made first of 41 career appearances at first base on April 5 vs. Detroit, and first of three starts there on July 24 vs. the Mets, making no errors in 104.1 innings at first base, none in 170.2 innings at second base, and none in 43.0 innings at third base…made 4 errors in 208.2 innings at shortstop

• Had first career stolen base on June 23 vs. Cubs

• On June 26, became the seventh player in Miami history to go 2 for 2 with two runs scored coming off the bench and the first since Gaby Sanchez on April 16, 2010

• Opened season with Triple-A New Orleans in the Marlins organization after an off-season trade with the Dodgers with teammates Dee Gordon and Dan Haren

• Earned the Marlins' Minor League Player of the Month Award in May, hitting .347

• Batted .301 in 65 games through June 26 with Triple-A New Orleans before being recalled to Marlins for remainder of season...led the Zephyrs in hits at time of recall

• Made his Marlins debut on June 27 vs. the Dodgers, his former team (0 for 3)

• Knocked a three-run pinch-hit double on August 5 vs. the Mets, the first such hit by a Marlins' player since Brett Carroll on September 2, 2009 vs. Atlanta

• Hit .354 (23-for-65) over last 20 games, with three doubles, a home run, and nine RBI...his average over that stretch (September 11-end of season) led Major League shortstops.

• Opened season with Triple-A Albuquerque and hit .302 in 51 games prior to selection to Major League roster on June 6, making his MLB debut at Colorado as a defensive replacement at shortstop in the eighth inning…later made his first career start on June 8 at Colorado at third base and notched his first career hit (single) and RBI in top of sixth inning

• Dodgers were 59-26 (.694) when Rojas appeared in a game...had first career multi-hit game on June 17 vs. Colorado (2-for-3), and recorded first multi-RBI game next night, also vs. Rockies

• Appeared in team-high 130 games for Double-A Chattanooga as the team's primary shortstop…tied for second on the team in both triples and walks

• Selected as the Dodger Pride Award winner for the month of July after posting a .280 batting average with seven runs, 21 hits, three doubles and four RBI in 25 games...recorded four consecutive multi-hit performances from July 27-30 and recorded his first four-hit game on July 14

• Split his season between Triple-A Louisville and Double-A Pensacola in the Reds farm system…was transferred between the two clubs five times in the season..signed by the Dodgers as a free agent to a minor-league deal on November 13

MLB Debut: March 19, 2025

Career Highlights

* Made his Major League debut during the Tokyo Series against the Cubs, starting the second game and tossing three scoreless innings with three strikeouts while allowing one hit, one run and five walks…struck out Seiya Suzuki on six pitches in the bottom of the first for his first MLB strikeout

* Retired the first 15 batters he faced at home to begin his Postseason career in 2025...the only longer streaks by any player to begin their postseason career at home in MLB history are by Don Larsen (30, including his perfect game) and Jim Lonborg (19)

* Picked up his first career save in Game 1 of the 2025 NLDS, where he and Ohtani became the first Japanese-born starter/reliever combo to earn the save and win in the same Postseason game…became the first pitcher in MLB postseason history to toss a perfect eighth, ninth and 10th innings in a series-clinching victory (NLDS Game 4)

* Went 30-15 with a 2.02 ERA (93 ER/414.2 IP) in four seasons with Chiba Lotte, striking out 524 batters (11.4 K/9)…posted a 0.88 WHIP in 69 career games

* Named an NPB All-Star in 2022 and 2023

* Is the 13th Japanese-born player to wear a Dodger uniform, joining Dodger manager Dave Roberts (2002-2004), Hideo Nomo (1995-1998, 2002-2004), Masao Kida (2003-2004), Kazuhisa Ishii (2002-2004), Norihiro Nakamura (2005), Takashi Saito (2006-2008), Hiroki Kuroda (2008-2011), Kenta Maeda (2016-2019), Yu Darvish (2017), Yoshi Tsutsugo (2021) and teammates Shohei Ohtani (2024-) and Yoshinobu Yamamoto (2024-)

* Pitched a perfect game on April 10, 2022, becoming the 16th pitcher in NPB history to toss a perfect game and the first player since Hiromi Makihara (1994)…he struck out 19 batters in the game, including 13 in a row to set a record for consecutive strikeouts in a game

Year-By-Year

• Picked up his first Major League win on May 3 at Atlanta, giving up six hits, three runs (one home run) and two walks while striking out four in 5.0 innings

• On April 12 vs. the Cubs, started and suffered his first MLB loss despite pitching five innings of one-run ball in a game the Dodgers eventually dropped, 16-0

• Set career highs for innings pitched in three consecutive starts, going four innings April 5 at Philadelphia, five innings April 12 vs. the Cubs and six innings April 19 at Texas…ERA was 2.40 during that span

• Went on the Injured List following his eighth appearance of the season, May 9 at Atlanta, with a right shoulder impingement

• In seven games (five starts) on a rehab assignment with Triple-A Oklahoma City, went 0-2 with a 6.10 ERA (14 ER/20.2 IP)

• Switching to the bullpen for the Dodgers after his rehab assignment, appeared in the seventh inning of two regular season games and retiring six of seven batters with four strikeouts

• Dodgers went 6-2 in his eight starts and 8-2 in his 10 appearances…with runners in scoring position, opponents went 4 for 32 with eight walks (.598 OPS)

• Kicked off stellar postseason by retiring the final three batters of the NLWC series against the Reds on a total of 11 pitches with two strikeouts

• Dominated the Phillies in the NLDS, saving both Games 1 and 2 and then throwing three perfect innings (on 36 pitches) in the 11-inning Game 4 clincher

• After allowing his only October run in NLCS Game 1 at Milwaukee, earned the save in Game 3 and for the second time closed out a playoff series with a shutout ninth inning in Game 4

• In the Dodgers' 18-inning victory in Game 3 of the World Series, entered the game with two runners on in the top of the eighth and induced two groundouts to preserve a tie, then pitched around a walk, infield single and walk for a shutout ninth inning

• Finished October with a 0.84 ERA and six strikeouts in 10.2 innings, allowing six hits, five walks and one hit batter

• En route to his 129 strikeouts in 111 innings, his splitter produced a 57.4 percent whiff rate, compared with an MLB average on the pitch of 34.5 percent…whiff rate on slider was 40.7 percent

• ERA of 2.35 was the highest of his Chiba Lotte career

• Posted by Chiba Lotte on November 8, creating a 45-day window for MLB teams to pursue him

• On April 28, tied Shohei Ohtani for the fastest pitch by a Japanese player in NPB history, 102.5 mph

• Debuted for Team Japan in the World Baseball Classic, striking out eight in 3.2 innings vs. the Czech Republic on March 11, allowing one unearned run…finished with a 3.52 ERA and 11 strikeouts in 7.2 innings for the WBC champions

• Perfect game on April 10 came against Orix, the team of future Dodger teammate Yoshinobu Yamamoto and the eventual Japan Series champion

• After fanning the final batter of the first inning, struck out the side in the next four innings for 13 in a row, smashing the previous NPB record of 10

• Completed the perfecto with a whiff of Yutaro Sugimoto, the 2021 Japan League home run leader, on his 105th pitch

• At 20 years and five months, became the youngest NPB pitcher to throw a perfect game

• In his next start on April 17, against the Hokkaido Nippon-Ham Fighters, extended his streak of perfect innings of 17 before being removed by manager Tadahito Iguchi after 14 strikeouts and 102 pitches

• His 52 consecutive batters retired set another NPB record…in his next start, his streak of perfection ended on the first pitch he threw

• For the year, set career highs in innings pitched (129.1), strikeouts (173) and walks per nine innings (1.6)

• Made his NPB debut on May 16, after having been drafted at age 17 in 2019 by Chiba Lotte, which had won a lottery for the first overall pick

• Appeared in first postseason game, in the Pacific League Climax Series, on November 6, allowing one unearned run in six innings

MLB Debut: September 20, 2017

All-Star (1: 2024)

Career Highlights

* Ohio native enters his 10th MLB season and second with the Dodgers after leading the team in saves in 2025

* Recorded the first one-inning, three-pitch save in Los Angeles Dodgers history on April 5, 2025 against the Phillies

* Named to his first All-Star team in 2024 with Miami after going 6-3 with a 1.73 ERA and 50 strikeouts over 41.2 innings in the first half of the season

* Named NL Reliever of the Month twice: September 2023 as a Marlin and July 2024 as a Padre

* Has struck out a career-high five batters twice: April 20, 2019 vs. Minnesota and May 10, 2023 at Arizona

* Drafted by Baltimore in the sixth round (181st overall) in the 2014 MLB Draft…made MLB debut on September 20, 2017 vs. Boston

* Picked up his first Major League win while pitching for the Orioles on July 15, 2018 vs. Texas, tossing 0.2 innings and giving up two hits while striking out two…earned his first career save on Aug. 23, 2020, vs. Boston

• Finished his first season with a career-high 23 saves (in 33 opportunities), good for sixth in the National League

• Enjoyed his best month of the year in April, going 0-0 with a 0.82 ERA over 11.1 innings in 11 relief outings while picking up a save in seven of his eight opportunities

• Became the fifth pitcher in MLB history with a one-inning, three-pitch save on April 5 against Philadelphia, joining Mariano Rivera (2003), Steve Reed (1994), Duane Ward (1993) and Barry Jones (1992)

• Began the year with Miami before being traded to San Diego on July 30…finished with a career-best (for a full season) 1.75 ERA

• Had his best month in May with Miami, going 3-0 in 10 outings/10.1 scoreless innings with only four hits allowed

• Did not allow an earned run in 63 of 72 outings…between April 18 and July 26, held opponents scoreless in 36 of 37 games, compiling 46 strikeouts with a 0.47 ERA

• Pitched shutout ball in five October games over 4.1 innings

• In the NLDS, held the Dodgers to two singles and two walks among 17 batters faced, with eight strikeouts…faced Shohei Ohtani four times and struck him out every time

• Set career bests with 74 appearances, 78 innings, 104 strikeouts, 0.987 WHIP innings pitched, 104

strikeouts and a 0.99 WHIP…his 104 strikeouts were first among NL relievers

• Became the first left-handed relief pitcher in Marlins' history to record 100 strikeouts in a season… the only other reliever to record at least 100 strikeouts in a season with the Marlins was RHP Kyle Barraclough, who struck out 113 batters in 2016

• Tied a career-high with five strikeouts in a five-out outing at Arizona on May 10

• Named NL Reliever of the Month for September, going 3-1 with nine saves, 20 strikeouts and a 1.65 ERA in 16.1 innings, holding batters to a .167 batting average (10 for 60) during the month

• Recorded 60 scoreless outings, ranking first for Miami, third among NL relievers and tied for seventh in MLB

• Acquired by Miami from Baltimore just before Opening Day in a trade on April 3…in his Marlins debut on April 8, threw a perfect inning with one strikeout

• Led the Marlins with 67 games pitched, 20 saves and (as a reliever) 90 strikeouts and 12.93 K/9 …was the second-best mark by a Marlins reliever (min. 60.0 IP) in club history, behind Kyle Barraclough's 14.0 K/9 innings in 2016

• His five wins and 62 appearances were tied for the most among Orioles relievers, while his 16 holds and 11.7 K/9 led all Orioles relievers

• Had his best month in June, going 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA (9.1 innings) in 10 games with 19 strikeouts against seven walks

• Did not allow an earned run in his final 13 appearances…allowed earned runs in just two of his 25 games on the season

• Tied for the second-most appearances by a left-hander in the majors with 25

• Opponents hit .065 (2-for-31) with runners in scoring position; the fourth-lowest opponent average in the majors (min. 20 RISP at-bats)

• Earned his first career save on August 23 vs. the Red Sox, despite allowing a single and home run among three batters faced

• Recalled from Triple-A Norfolk four different times: April 8, April 20, May 9 and June 15

• Pitched a career-high three innings on July 20 vs. the Red Sox, facing 11 batters and allowing no runs and three baserunners

• Still with official rookie status, finished second among Orioles relievers with 76 strikeouts behind Mychal Givens (79)

• Struck out three batters in a single inning nine times, tied for third in the Major Leagues

• Made eight scoreless relief appearances for Triple-A Norfolk in 10.0 innings of work, allowing a .257 opponents' batting average with 12 strikeouts

• Started all 24 of his appearances in his final season as a starting pitcher

• Had his contract selected by the Orioles on September 17 from Double-A Bowie and spent the remainder of the season with the Major League club

• Made his Major League debut on Sept. 20 vs. Boston, allowing two runs on two hits with two walks and one strikeout in 1.0 inning...struck out Deven Marrero in the eighth inning for his first career Major League strikeout

• Honored as a Futures Game Selection, an Eastern League Mid-Season All-Star and an AFL Rising Star

• Named to his second consecutive All-Star game after hitting.272/.346/.492 with 55 RBI in the first half…had a single in two plate appearances

• Started all 16 of the Dodgers' playoff games, hitting one double, three home runs and eight RBI

• Caught 32 of 96 runners attempting to steal…33% success rate led MLB catchers

• Became the fourth Dodger catcher to hit three homers in a game (July 5 vs. Milwaukee), following Roy Campanella (August 26, 1950 at Cincinnati), Mike Piazza (June 29, 1996 at Colorado) and Yasmani Grandal (July 8, 2016 vs. San Diego)

• Voted into his first All-Star game after slashing .279/.396/.494 with a .890 OPS in the first half of the season… became the third catcher to have a stolen base in an All-Star Game (Iván Rodríguez, 1998 and Tony Peña, 1982) and the first Dodger to have a stolen base in an All-Star Game since Orlando Hudson in 2009

• Led all qualified NL catchers in walk rate (11.4%) and finished with the second-lowest strikeout rate (16.1%), the second-most RBI (76) and the third-most home runs (19)

• Had his best offensive month in May, slashing .318/.434/.529 with a .963 OPS, three doubles, five home runs and 17 RBI

• Appeared in all three NLDS games against Arizona, batting.417 (5-for-12) with a double, a triple and two RBI

• Following a concussion, sidelined on the Injured List from April 13-28

• Went 2 for 10 with a home run in the 2023 World Baseball Classic, going deep off JoJo Romero of Mexico

• At age 27, set career highs in games, plate appearances, at-bats, hits, doubles and triples

• Ranked second on the Dodgers in home runs and third in RBI and walks

• Walked off the Cubs on July 8 with an RBI single in the bottom of the 10th inning for a 4-3 victory

• Reached base in all five plate appearances (walk, two singles, double and triple) on the road July 15 against the Angels

• Started all four Postseason games during the NLDS vs. San Diego, batting .188 (3-for-16) with two doubles and two RBI…started three of four games behind the plate

• Was an incredibly dependable hitter in bases loaded situations, slashing .545/.545/.727 and a 1.272 OPS…totaled 10 RBI over 10 games in that situation

• Had his best offensive month in June, slashing .295/.340/.568 in 24 games with five doubles, seven home runs, and 14 RBI

• Ranked third on the Dodgers in home runs and RBI, fifth in runs, and seventh in hits and doubles

• Hit homers in three straight games both August 13-15 and August 24-27…for the month of August, batted .282/.409/.634/1.043

• Rocked a walk-off homer July 20 vs. the Giants' Tyler Rogers, a three-run shot to rally the Dodgers to an 8-6 victory

• Spent August 15-23 on Injured List with neck inflammation

• Walked 20 times against 22 strikeouts in 37 games

• After just one multi-walk game in 2019, accomplished the feat six times in the pandemic-shortened season

• On the Dodgers' run to the World Series title, started 17 of 18 postseason games, 12 at catcher and six as designated hitter

• Made his Major League debut on May 28 against the Mets…singled to left in his first at-bat and went 2-for-4 with a double

• Became the sixth Dodger this century with at least two hits in his big-league debut, joining Rob Segedin, Corey Seager, Yasiel Puig, Russell Martin and Jason Repko

• Launched a walk-off, pinch-hit home run on June 23, giving the Dodgers a trifecta unprecedented in MLB history: three consecutive walk-off homers by rookies, following Matt Beaty (June 21) and Alex Verdugo (June 22)

• Became the first Dodger rookie to collect six or more RBI in a game (September 28, 2006 at Washington) since James Loney drove in nine

• As a rookie, became the first Dodger player and second MLB backstop to hit 10+ homers through his first 25 games, joining the Yankees' Gary Sanchez

• Started in four of five NLDS games…tallied a hit and drew a trio of walks in 16 plate appearances

• Baseball America Major League All-Rookie Team and PCL Midseason All-Star

• Started his season with Double-A Tulsa, then assigned to Triple-A Oklahoma City on August 1

• Over June and July, hit 15 home runs with 40 runs and 40 RBI in 48 games

• Singled, doubled and homered July 11 at Northwest Arkansas

• Earned Mid-Season All-Star honors with Rancho Cucamonga and All-Prospect Team recognition in the Arizona Fall League

• Homered twice (and walked twice) for the Quakes vs. Inland Empire on April 23, leading to California League Player of the Week honors

• In his first game for Double-A Tulsa on July 10 against Midland, was hit by pitches in the fourth and fifth innings…a fractured hand ended his season

• Signed with the Dodgers on June 21 and was assigned to Short-Season Ogden…promoted to Low-A Great Lakes on July 2 and to High-A Rancho Cucamonga on August 1

• Hit first professional home run June 29 vs. Idaho Falls

• Had a pair of three-hit games during his short Great Lakes stay, on July 10 and July 28

Career Highlights

* Enters his 11th MLB season and second with Los Angeles after opening the 2025 postseason with three masterful starts and closing with a critical 1.1 innings of relief in the Dodgers' World Series Game 7 triumph

* Earned his first World Series ring in 2025, after having fallen short with Tampa Bay against the Dodgers in 2020

* Pitched his first career no-hitter (and shutout) with San Francisco on August 2, 2024 at Cincinnati, giving up three walks and striking out 11 on 114 pitches

* Became just the fifth reigning Cy Young Award winner to throw a no-hitter, joining Jake Arrieta (2015, Chicago Cubs), Clayton Kershaw (2013, Los Angeles Dodgers), Hall of Famer Bob Gibson (1970, St. Louis Cardinals) and Hall of Famer Sandy Koufax (1963, Los Angeles Dodgers)

* With Cy Young Awards in 2018 for Tampa Bay and 2023 for San Diego, joins Roger Clemens, Randy Johnson, Pedro Martinez, Max Scherzer, Gaylord Perry and Roy Halladay as the only players in MLB history to win the Cy Young Award in both leagues

* Is the all-time MLB leader with 11.19 strikeouts per nine innings (minimum 1,000 innings)…Chris Sale enters the season in the No. 2 spot at 11.14

* Drafted by Tampa Bay in the first round (52nd overall) of the 2011 draft out of Shorewood High School in Shoreline, WA

Year-By-Year

• Started the Dodgers' home opener against Detroit on March 27, allowing two runs in five innings in a 5-4 victory

• Made one additional start April 2 vs. Atlanta (four innings, five unearned runs) before going on the Injured List with a left shoulder injury from April 6 through August 2, the anniversary of his 2024 no-hitter

• After striking out eight in a five-inning return at Tampa Bay, struck out 10 in five innings vs. Toronto on August 9 and pitched six shutout innings vs. San Diego on August 16.

• Had his best starts of the regular season consecutively on September 10 vs. Colorado and September 18 vs. Philadelphia, allowing no runs and eight baserunners while striking out 23 in 13 innings

• Went 5-1 at home in the regular season with a 1.17 ERA (5 ER/38.1 IP) in seven starts compared with a 0-3 with a 4.30 ERA (11 ER/23.0 IP) in four starts on the road

• Pitched six innings of one-hit ball with four walks and nine strikeouts in Game 2 of the NLDS at Philadelphia

• In his next start, Game 1 of the NLCS against Milwaukee, fired 8.0 scoreless innings while giving up only one hit and no walks, striking out 10 and retiring his last 18 batters…joined Sandy Koufax and Clayton Kershaw as the only Dodgers with an October start of no runs and double-digit strikeouts

• Over his first three playoff starts, pitched a total of 21 innings with a 0.86 ERA and 28 strikeouts against 11 baserunners

• Signed with San Francisco as a free agent on March 19…from July 1 on, went 5-0 in 14 starts (80.1 innings) with 114 strikeouts, allowing only 33 hits and two home runs, and a 1.23 ERA

• Struck out a career-best 15 (out of 22 batters faced) while throwing six shutout innings vs. Colorado in the first game of a doubleheader July 27, then pitched his no-hitter in the following start, giving him 15 innings allowing only two hits and five walks, with 26 strikeouts

• Named NL Player of the Week for the first time following his August 2 no-hitter and NL Player of the Month for August

• Finished his Cy Young-Award-winning third and final season in San Diego by leading the Majors in ERA for the first time in his career, as well as topping MLB in opponents' batting average (.181), opponents' slugging percentage (.286), opponents' OPS (.579), hits allowed per 9 innings (5.75) and percentage of pitches put in play (12.8%)

• Posted career-bests in starts, strikeouts and opponents' slugging percentage…sported the best bWAR among pitchers (6.0) in the NL

• Won his second Warren Spahn Award as the sport's top left-handed pitcher and named to the All-MLB first team

• Won NL Pitcher of the Month in June and September, going 3-1 with a 0.87 ERA (3 ER/31.0 IP) in five starts and 3-0 with a 0.58 ERA (2 ER/31.0 IP) in five starts

• Season highlight came September 21 vs. St. Louis, when he struck out 13 over seven shutout innings (two hits, two walks) in a 1-0 triumph

• Posted 12.02 K/9 ratio, boosted by five double-digit strikeout performances

• Among all qualifying pitchers in the second half, he ranked second in K/9 IP (12.12), third in total strikeouts (105) and fifth in ERA (2.19 ERA)

• Appeared in three Postseason starts, going 2-0 with a 4.61 ERA and 17 strikeouts in 13.2 innings… earned the win and gave San Digo the 2-1 series advantage in Game 3 of the NLDS vs. the Dodgers, allowing one run on five hits with six strikeouts across 5.1 innings

• Went to the Injured List retroactive to April 11 with a recurrence of a left adductor strain, returning May 18

• In his first year in the NL with San Diego, tossed a trifecta of starts with seven shutout innings: June 4 vs. the Mets (10 strikeouts), August 8 vs. the Diamondbacks (13 strikeouts) and August 31 at Arizona (10 strikeouts)

• On August 25 vs. the Dodgers, reached career highs in innings pitched (7.2) and total pitches (122), allowing just one run (Will Smith's eighth-inning solo homer) in the Padres' eventual 5-3 defeat in 16 innings

• His 13.0 consecutive hitless innings from August 31 to September 7 set a Padres franchise record, passing Bill Laxton's 12.1 consecutive hitless frames in July-August 1974

• In his final season with Tampa Bay, had his best month in Aug., going 3-0 in five starts (23.2 innings) with a 2.66 ERA and 0.97 WHIP while holding batters to a .190 average

• Went 2-2 with a 3.03 ERA in six Postseason starts (29.2 innings), limiting the opposition to a .194 average and allowing two earned runs or less in five of his six outings...allowed just one hit across 5.2 scoreless innings in the Rays' Wild Card Series Game 1 victory over Toronto

• In his two starts vs. the Dodgers in the World Series, he became the third lefty to record nine strikeouts or more at least twice in a single Fall Classic, joining Hal Newhouser of the Detroit Tigers (1945) and Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers (three times in 1965)

• In the World Series finale on October 27 (Game 6), retired 15 of 16 Dodgers through the first five innings, then left with a 1-0 Tampa Bay lead after a one-out single by Austin Barnes in the sixth inning… Barnes would score on a wild pitch, followed by Mookie Betts on a fielder's choice struck by Corey Seager

• Made his first career Opening Day start on March 28, tossing 6.0 innings and giving up six hits, five runs, three home runs and two walks while striking out three in the loss

• His next start was his best of the season: seven shutout innings, allowing two hits and one walk while striking out 13 vs. Colorado on April 2

•Twice pitched 6.0 one-hit shutout innings, at Toronto on April 13 and vs. Arizona May 6, striking out nine batters in each

• Was on the injured list from April 14-24 with a fractured left toe and July 22-September 17 with loose bodies in his left elbow

• In Game 4 of the ALCS vs. Houston on October 10, entered with one out in the ninth inning and the potential game-tying run at the plate, and got a Yordan Álvarez swinging strikeout and Yuli Gurriel groundout for the save, becoming the second MLB pitcher to have his first career relief appearance (regular season or postseason) end with a save in the postseason, joining Atlanta's John Smoltz in Game 2 of the 1999 NLCS vs. the Mets

2018

• Won the AL Cy Young Award in his first full season in the Majors, becoming the youngest to win a Cy Young Award since Clayton Kershaw (25) in 2013 and the youngest AL pitcher since Félix Hernández (24) in 2010

• Received 17 first-place votes, 11 for second place and two for third place to edge Justin Verlander of the Astros (13 for first place, 13 for second, three for third, one for fourth)

• Won the Warren Spahn Award as the majors' top left-handed pitcher, based on wins, ERA and strikeouts…joined David Price (2010) as Rays to earn the honor

• Led the AL outright in both wins (21) and ERA (1.89), both club records

• Won nine consecutive starts from Aug 10-Sep 23, the only pitcher in the majors to do so in 2018, going 9-0 over that stretch with a 1.03 ERA and 74 strikeouts in 52.2 innings…according to Stats LLC, the only other pitchers in major league history to match or exceed those numbers over a nine-start span are Johan Santana (2004) and Bob Gibson (1968), both unanimous Cy Young Award winners

• Was named AL Pitcher of the Month for August and September, the youngest pitcher in either league to win back-to-back awards since Johan Santana (July, August, September) in 2004…went 4-0 with a 1.04 ERA in five starts (26.0 innings) during August and 5-0 with a 1.26 ERA over six starts (35.2 innings) in September

• Voted to his first All-Star Game, pitching 1.2 innings and giving up one hit, one run and a walk while striking out three

• Spent July 23-August 4 on the Injured List because of left shoulder fatigue

• Made the best start of his career in the Rays season finale on October 1, firing seven scoreless innings and giving up only two hits while striking out a career-high 13

• Optioned to Triple-A Durham twice during the season, on May 14 (recalled June 28) and August 4 (recalled August 8)

• In his final 10 starts after his August 8 recall, he went 5-1 with a 2.84 ERA in 57 innings …did not allow an earned run in four of those 10 starts, and went at least 6.0 innings in seven of them

• After beginning the season with Triple-A Durham, made his Major League debut on April 23 against the Yankees, tossing 5.0 innings and giving up two hits, one run and one walk while striking out six…was optioned to Durham the next day but recalled June 16

• Picked up his first Major League win in his fourth start on June 27 vs. Boston, pitching 5.1 innings and giving up eight hits, four runs and four walks while striking out four

• Led Major League rookies with 33 strikeouts in July, most ever by a Rays rookie in the month of July

• Named the club's Rookie of the Year by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America

• Rose through three levels of the Rays system, playing with Advanced-A Charlotte, Double-A Montgomery and Triple-A Durham

• His 1.41 ERA led all minor league qualifiers and was the lowest for a full-season pitcher since Justin Verlander's 1.29 in 2005

• The MiLB.com Organization All-Star for the third time (previous, 2012 and 2014), as well as USA Today Minor League Player of the Year, MLBPipeline.com Pitcher of the Year and Baseball America Minor League All-Star

• Pitched a perfect inning in the All-Star Futures Game

• Began the season on the injured list with a left hamstring sprain…made season debut for the Twins on April 19 at Atlanta

• Struck out three batters in an inning twice during the season – in back-to-back appearances May 14 at Baltimore and May 16 at Milwaukee

• Right-handed batters hit .130/.221/.169/.390 in 86 plate appearances, with one home run (Colorado's Ezequiel Tovar on July 19)

• After the Dodgers acquired him at the trade deadline, pitched in four games between August 3-9, then missed the remainder of the season with right shoulder inflammation

• Underwent season-ending right shoulder debridement surgery in late September 2025 (announced on September 26)

• Made Twins' Opening Day roster for first time and second of career (also 2019 with the Dodgers)

• Did not allow a run in each of first 12 appearances to begin season, from March 28-April 29 (12.1 IP)

• Placed on 15-day injured list on May 3 with right shoulder tendinitis and transferred to 60-day IL on July 3...

• Reinstated on July 24 before being placed back on 15-day IL with right shoulder strain on July 31…had season-ending surgery on right shoulder on August. 13.

• Tossed scoreless ball in 27 of 28 games, allowing his only two runs of the year May 19 at Houston on a Jose Altuve home run

• Had contract selected by Minnesota on April 25 and earned the win in his Twins debut on April 27 vs. Kansas City, pitching two shutout innings…was his first MLB game since September 24, 2019

• Pitched 14.0 scoreless innings to begin Twins career from April 27-May 27, 2023… third-longest scoreless game streak by a pitcher to start Twins career, trailing Caleb Thielbar (17 in 2013) and Dennys Reyes (16 in 2008)

• Finished the season with 13 straight scoreless outings (12.2 IP) from May 31-October 1, striking out 22 batters without issuing a walk

• Was one of eight pitchers in baseball (minimum of 25.0 IP) to allow fewer than two home runs

2022

• Signed minor league contract with Minnesota on July 14 after spending first half of season recovering from Tommy John surgery …resumed game action on August 23

2021

• Signed minor league contract with the Dodgers but did not pitch after having Tommy John surgery performed on right elbow in May

2020

• Released by the Cubs organization May 28 and did not pitch in affiliated baseball due to shortened major league season and cancellation of minor league season due to COVID-19

2019

• Pitched in three games before the Dodgers, allowing eight runs in four innings, before being optioned to Triple-A Oklahoma City on April 7…placed on the Injured List on May 20

• In his first game after being claimed by the Toronto Blue Jays, pitched four shutout innings and got the win at Tampa Bay

• Stranded all eight inherited runners (seven with Toronto) on the year

• Optioned six separate times by the Dodgers between March 11 and June 20

• Twice pitched two-hit ball over at least seven innings for Triple-A Oklahoma City, July 26 vs. Albuquerque and August 12 vs. Memphis

• Ended the season on the 60-day injured list with a right oblique strain

• Started the season on the 10-day disabled list (March 30) with right shoulder tendinitis and was transferred to the 60-day DL on May 29…reinstated from the DL on June 7

• Delivered a three-inning save in his Dodger season debut on June 20, throwing three shutout innings with four strikeouts in a 12-0 victory…was his first MLB save

• Posted a 0.00 ERA over his first seven big-league games (16.2 innings) of the year

• As a starter he posted a 5.27 ERA in 13.2 innings, compared with a 2.18 ERA in 20.2 relief innings

• Named the Dodgers' Branch Rickey Minor League Pitcher of the Year and to Baseball America's Minor League All-Star Team…also chosen to Texas League Mid-Season All-Stars by MiLB.com

• With his MLB debut on June 29 at Milwaukee (five innings, five runs, seven strikeouts), became the first Dodger since Hideo Nomo in 1995 to begin the year in Single-A and start in a Major League game in the same season

• Recorded his first big league victory on Sept. 7, 2016 against Arizona, allowing just one run on five hits in five innings of work

• Went a combined 9-4 with a 1.79 ERA, a .200 opponents' batting average and a 0.88 WHIP in 21 starts at Single-A Rancho Cucamonga, Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City

• Honored on April 27 as California League Player of the Week, three days after he allowed one run over six innings at Northwest Arkansas…allowed two runs in 22 innings (0.82 ERA) with 23 strikeouts overall in April

• In the minors, struck out 129 batters against just 19 walks in a combined 121.0 innings, averaging 9.6 strikeouts per nine innings…ranked among all qualifying minor league pitchers in WHIP (fourth), ERA (sixth) and opponents' batting average (15th)

* Drafted by the Houston Astros in the first round (fifth pick) of the 2015 MLB Draft

2025

• In lone season with the Cubs, he finished among the National League outfield leaders in OBP (.377, 2nd), OPS (.841, 3rd), runs (91, 4th), slugging (.464, 5th), homers (22, 12th) and RBI (73, 12th)

• Before the All-Star break, he slashed .280/.384/.499 in 95 games with 19 doubles, four triples, 17 home runs and 56 RBI

• Earned his fourth straight All-Star appearance, as well as his second Silver Slugger at the conclusion of the season

• Sustained a left calf strain in September that limited him to designated hitter in the playoffs, where he hit .259 (7-for-27) in eight games

• In his final season with Houston, was limited to 78 games, spending time on the injured list from June 7-September 6 with a right shin fracture

• Recorded 17 home runs in the team's first 50 games, tying an Astros franchise record also held by George Springer (2019), Morgan Ensberg (2006) and Lance Berkman (2002)

• Had his fourth multi-homer game of the season on May 21 vs. Los Angeles (AL)...per MLB's Sarah Langs, his four multi-homer efforts through 49 games were the fewest team games to reach that mark in Astros history

• Set career highs in games played (157), runs (97), doubles (37), RBI (112) and stolen bases (30)…led the AL in RBI, and surpassed 100 for the second consecutive season

• Among AL players, ranked fourth in OPS (.886), sixth in OBP (.369), sixth in batting average (.284) and tied for seventh in steals (30) and in walks (80)...was one of three players in the AL with at least 29 home runs and 29 stolen bases (also, Kansas City IF Bobby Witt Jr. and Seattle OF Julio Rodríguez)

• Led AL players with 61 RBI on the road and ranked second in road OPS, fourth in road batting average and seventh in road home runs

• Notched the first three-homer game of his career on July 21 at Oakland (3-for-4, 3 runs, 3 home runs, 4 RBI)

• Recorded his 100th career home run on September 12 vs. Oakland, becoming the 20th player in Astros history to reach the 100-homer milestone

• Was named the AL Gold Glove Award winner in RF...became just the third Astros outfielder to win a Gold Glove, joining CF Michael Bourn (2009-10) and CF Cesar Cedeño (1972-76)

• In the AL, ranked third in RBI (107, also a career-high), third in stolen base percentage (86.2%), tied for fifth in stolen bases and 11th in homers...was the only MLB player with 30+ homers and 25+ steals in 2022

• Recorded 30 home runs in back-to-back seasons, becoming the first Astros outfielder to do this since Lance Berkman from 2001-02

• In Game 1 of the World Series, became the first player in Houston history with multiple homers in a World Series game…also the fourth player in MLB history to homer in their first two plate appearances of a World Series and the first since IF Pablo Sandoval of the Giants in 2012

• Became the third Astros player in club history to record a 30-homer season before turning 25 years old, joining Alex Bregman and Yordan Alvarez

• In the AL, ranked third in SLG (.557), third in OPS (.917), tied for fifth in doubles (37) and ninth in batting average (.294)

• After May 1, led the AL in the following categories: batting average at .320 (132-for-412), slugging percentage (.600), OBP (.387) and OPS (.986)

• Was named the American League Player of the Month for September-October...batted .346 with eight home runs, 19 RBI and a 1.130 OPS

• Led all players in RBI during the postseason with 15...his RBI total ranked second in club history for a single postseason, trailing only SS Carlos Correa, who posted 17 RBI in 13 postseason games in 2020

2020

• Made his first career Opening Day roster and had a breakout 2020 campaign, leading the Majors in triples (6), while ranking tied for sixth in the AL in RBI (42)

• Led the Astros in hits (56), triples, RBI, stolen bases, total bases (107) and extra-base hits

• Was named a finalist among left fielders for the AL Gold Glove Award...tied for the AL lead in Defensive Runs Saved by left fielders with three

• Hit safely in his first eight postseason games, batting .306 (15-for-49) with a home run and six RBI

2019

• Received PCL May Player of the Month honors and Astros May Player of the Month honors after hitting .333 with seven doubles, two triples, 11 homers, 28 RBI and a 1.169 OPS in 28 games during the month

• On the season, led the PCL in stolen bases and ranked fifth in homers, tied for seventh in extra-base hits (63) and eighth in RBI

• Was recalled to Houston on September 2 and remained with the club through the remainder of the season

• Hit his first career homer on September 5 vs. Seattle in the sixth inning off Marco Gonzales…in the same game, his RBI single with two out in the bottom of the 12th inning tied the game at 9-9, with the Astros winning in the next inning on a Michael Brantley walk-off homer, 11-9

• At 22 years, 240 days old, became the third-youngest player in club history to record four hits and two steals in a game (September 14 at Kansas City), behind Cesar Cedeno (21.058 in 1972) and Sonny Jackson (22.015 in 1966)

• Became the fifth player in Pacific Coast League history to put together a 30-homer, 30-stolen base season, joining Joc Pederson (2014), Frank Demaree (1934), Lefty O'Doul (1927) and Tony Lazerri (1925)

2018

• Was named the Astros Minor League Player of the Year for the second consecutive season and was also named the Baseball America Triple-A Player of the Year…led all Triple-A hitters in OPS (.990) and ranked third in batting average (.332)

• Named the Pacific Coast League's August Player of the Month and the Astros August Minor League Player of the Month...batted .471 (33-for-70) with three doubles, 10 home runs, 27 RBI, six stolen bases and a 1.485 OPS in just 17 games with Triple-A Fresno

• Selected to the Astros' Major League roster on July 7 and made his MLB debut that night in a start in left field (1-for-4)...at age 21 and 171 days, was the youngest active player in the American League when he made his debut and became the fifth-youngest player in club history to record a hit and an RBI in his MLB debut, behind Carlos Correa (20 in 2015), Tom Widenbauer (20 in 1979), John Paciorek (18 in 1963) and Rusty Staub (19 in 1963)

• Was named the Astros Minor League Player of the Year…was one of 10 players in minor league baseball to reach 20 homers and 20 steals on the season

• Represented the Astros at the 2017 All-Star Futures Game, starting in right field and going 1 for 3 with an RBI

• Named the Astros April Minor League Player of the Month after hitting .301 (25-for-83) with seven doubles, three triples, three homers, 23 RBI, six steals and a .939 OPS

Career Summary

* Left-handed reliever enters his seventh MLB season and sixth with the Dodgers

* Since 2021, leads Dodgers with 295 games pitched, 94 ahead of runner-up Evan Phillips

* Has delivered huge postseason moments in the Dodgers' 2024 and 2025 postseasons, including a save with the bases loaded against the Yankees in 2024 World Series Game 2…the first one-pitch save in Fall Classic history

* In 26 career postseason games, has a 1.86 ERA, allowing four runs in 19.1 innings and stranding 18 of 20 inherited runners…stranded all 14 inherited runners in the past two postseasons

* In his career, has limited left-handed batters to a .177/.259/.285/.544 slashline…righties are hitting .194/.302/.360/.662

* Earned his first win on July 31, 2021 at Arizona as a Dodger, tossing a scoreless inning of relief

* Recorded his first Major League save on September 21, 2021 at Colorado after retiring the only batter he faced, Colton Welker, with the tying and winning runs on base

* Attended Division II Cal State East Bay and was the school's all-time leader in wins (24) and strikeouts (249)…is the school's highest-ever drafted pitcher

• Second on the Dodgers with 68 games and led the team in holds with 26

• One of three relievers to have a sub-3.50 ERA in at least 55 innings with Jack Dreyer and Anthony Banda

• Struck out all three batters he faced on three occasions: June 11 at San Diego, July 13 at San Francisco and September 27 at Seattle

• Pitched a season-high and perfect 1.2 innings vs. the Padres on August 17…allowed a game-tying RBI groundout in the eighth but got the win in the ninth with a perfect ninth, striking out Manny Machado to end it

• Missed time from August 26-September 9 with a right oblique strain…in two rehab games with Triple-A Oklahoma City, tossed 2.0 perfect innings with three strikeouts

• Had his best month in July, going 0-0 with a 0.82 ERA (1 ER/11.0 IP) and one save in 11 relief appearances with 16 strikeouts against only three walks while holding batters to a .088 average

• In seven Postseason appearances, went 2-0 with a 3.86 ERA and four holds in seven games (4.2 innings)…recorded wins in Game 4 of the NLDS vs. the Phillies and Game 3 of the NLCS vs. the Brewers…missed the World Series due to a personal matter

• His 1.76 was the lowest by a Dodger southpaw reliever (minimum 50 innings) since Hung-Chi Kuo in 2010 (1.20)

• Held batters to a .148/.260/.291 line with a career-high 87 strikeouts, an 11.8 K/9 and 0.995 WHIP

• Struck out a season-high three batters 10 times on the season

• From April 12-June 18, allowed one earned run in 26 innings (0.35 ERA) with 35 strikeouts against 18 baserunners… stranded 12 of 16 inherited runners

• In seven postseason games, pitched 5.2 shutout innings, allowing two hits, two walks and a hit batter, stranding all five inherited runners and striking out six… missed the NLCS due to a right intercostal muscle strain (rib/side injury)

• After struggling in the first half with an 0-4 record, 6.75 ERA and .361 opponents' batting average, rebounded in the second half with a 2-1 record, 2.54 ERA and .168 opponents' batting average

• Started his season turnaround in July, going 0-0 with a 1.80 ERA and 15 strikeouts in 10 innings…locked down his first and only save of the season on July 6 against Pittsburgh

• Ended the year strong: Dating from August 11, had a 1.50 ERA in 18 innings across 18 games

• Made his first career start on July 8 with a scoreless inning, giving one hit while striking out two against the Angels

• Made two appearances in the 2023 NLDS against Arizona, tossing 2.0 innings, giving up one hit and one run while striking out two

• Fanned out 79 batters on the season, the highest of any reliever on the team and sixth highest overall in MLB…tied for second-most appearances on the team with 63 (Evan Phillips: 64, Craig Kimbrel: 63)

• Held lefties to an impressive .130 batting average (9-for-69) and righties to .217 (28-for-129)

• Amassed a 4-0 record and 1.05 ERA (3 ER/25.2 IP) in the second half of the season

• Logged his first win of the season on June 22 vs. the Reds, pitching one relief inning, allowing one hit, and striking out two

• Recorded his second career save and only one of the season July 7 vs. CHC, striking out the only batter he faced

• Appeared in three games of the NLDS vs. San Diego, giving up a combined two hits in 2.2 relief innings, walking three and striking out four

• Had his best month in Sept., going 2-0 with an 0.90 ERA (1 ER/ 10.0 IP) in 10 games, giving up three hits and five walks while punching out 16

• Held hitters to a .198 batting average at home and .178 away

• Earned his first Major League win on July 31 at Arizona, tossing a scoreless inning of relief

• Was even keeled against both lefties and righties, keeping hitters to a .160/.150 respective average

• Proved to be incredibly affective at home, limiting the opposition to just seven hits and a .097 average across 22 games

• Registered his three wins in the second half over 29 games, producing a 0.99 ERA and 0.84 WHIP in those appearances…faced 106 batters and struck out 36 against just 11 walks

• Saw his first Postseason action in Game 1 of the NLDS against San Francisco…totaled a 2.08 ERA in 4.1 innings with seven strikeouts and three walks over seven games

• Appeared for Triple-A Oklahoma City from June 7 to July 6…pitched nine innings over nine games, fanning 19 batters and allowing just three walks for a 1.00 ERA during that span

• Fanned four over 1.2 scoreless innings on August 10 against Philadelphia

• Struck out 23 batters and gave up just four hits over 45 at-bats when faced with two outs

• Kept hitters to a .111 average when runners were in scoring position

2020

• Made his MLB debut on July 25, 2020 with the Marlins at Philadelphia…allowed two runs in 0.2 innings and despite taking the loss, he struck out the first big league hitter he faced, Didi Gregorius

2019

• Was named a MiLB.com Organization All-Star in 2019 as a member of the Marlins system

• Had a breakout 2019 campaign, combining to go 7-2 with a 1.76 ERA in 38 appearances (one start) across three levels of the Marlins' system…had a dominant stint in Double-A, striking out 25 in 16.1 scoreless innings over nine relief appearances

• Posted 100 strikeouts against just 19 walks in 66.2 innings

• Following the season, played for Salt River in the Arizona Fall League and tossed 10.1 scoreless innings in nine outings…earned AFL Rising Star recognition

2018

• In his first professional action, went 4-0 with a 1.35 ERA in 14 games with the Rookie-level GCL Marlins and short-season Batavia

• Posted a .242 opponents' batting average with 38 strikeouts against seven walks in 33.1 innings

Born: August 17, 1998 in Bizen, Okayama, Japan
Resides: Okayama, Japan
Acquired: Signed a 12-year contract with the Los Angeles Dodgers on December 27, 2023
ML Service: 2.000

Career Highlights

* Following six years as a pro in Japan starting at age 18 – including three consecutive Sawamura Awards as the best pitcher in Nippon Professional Baseball – begins his third season with the Dodgers after signing a 12-year contract on December 27, 2023, the largest contract for a pitcher

* Capping an epic 2025 postseason, named the World Series MVP after going 3-0 with a 1.02 ERA (2 ER/17.2 IP) and 0.68 WHIP and holding batters to a .169 average

* First Dodger pitcher to earn MVP honors in the Fall Classic since Orel Hershiser in 1988, joining other Dodger hurlers Johnny Podres (1955), Larry Sherry (1959) and Sandy Koufax (1963 and 1965)

* Also the first MLB pitcher to win three road games in a single World Series, as well as the fourth pitcher to win Games 6 and 7 of the World Series and the 14th pitcher to win three games in a single World Series

* Holds a career 2.25 ERA in the postseason across 56 games in 10 innings…excluding his first career playoff start in Game 1 of the 2024 NLDS, his ERA is 1.53 in 47 innings

* Through two MLB seasons, has held opposing batters to a .199 batting average…his .575 opponents' OPS is the third lowest in the majors since 2024 behind only Cy Young Award winners Paul Skenes and Tarik Skubal (minimum 200 innings)

* Has already pitched MLB games in four different countries: South Korea, United States, Japan and Canada

* Spent seven years with the Orix Buffaloes in the Nippon Professional Baseball League, posting a 70-29 record with a 1.82 ERA and 922 strikeouts in 172 games

* He is one of three players in the NPB to win the ERA title four or more times, joining Kazuhisa Inao (5: 1956-1958, 1961, 1966) and Tomoyuki Sugano (4: 2014, 2016-2018) and the first player in the history of professional baseball to win the pitching Triple Crown in three consecutive years

* Yamamoto became the 12th Japanese-born player to wear a Dodger uniform, joining Ohtani, Dodger manager Dave Roberts (2002-2004), Hideo Nomo (1995-1998, 2002-2004), Masao Kida (2003-2004), Kazuhisa Ishii (2002-2004), Norihiro Nakamura (2005), Takashi Saito (2006-2008), Hiroki Kuroda (2008-2011), Kenta Maeda (2016-2019), Yu Darvish (2017) and Yoshi Tsutsugo (2021)

* Garnered several accolades in his Japanese career, including Pacific League MVP (2021-23), WBC Champion (2023), Tokyo Games Olympic Gold Medalist (2020), Nippon Professional Baseball League All-Star (2018-2019, 2021-2023), Eiji Sawamura Award (2021-2023), Pacific League Pitcher Best-Nine (2021-2023), Pacific League Golden Glove Award (2021-2023) and Japan Series Champion (2022)

Year-By-Year

•Threw the Dodgers' first pitch of the season in Japan on March 18 and their last pitch of the season in Canada on November 1…was the winning pitcher in each game

• Kicked off the postseason with 6 2/3 innings with nine strikeouts while allowing two runs (unearned) in the second game of the Dodgers' sweep of Cincinnati

• Dominated Milwaukee in Game 2 of the NLCS with the first playoff complete game (nine innings, four baserunners, seven strikeouts) for the Dodgers since Jose Lima in 2004

• Stepped up as the first pitcher since Curt Schilling in 2001 to throw back-to-back postseason complete games when he delivered another nine-inning, four-baserunner, one-run performance in World Series Game 2 in Toronto…despite this workload, warmed up during the 18th inning of Game 3 and would have entered to pitch the 19th inning had Freddie Freeman not walked it off

• In an unforgettable two-night stretch, stifled the Blue Jays with six innings of one-run ball in World Series Game 6, throwing 96 pitches…then somehow came back with one out in the ninth inning of Game 7 and, in his first career relief appearance, muscled through 2.2 innings (34 pitches), giving up only one hit and one hit batter while striking out one and securing the World Series title

• In addition to World Series MVP, was honored by the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America with the Babe Ruth Award as postseason MVP

• For his standout regular season performance, was named to the All-MLB First Team and finished third in the NL Cy Young voting behind Paul Skenes and Cristopher Sánchez

• Dotted the NL leaderboards by finishing first in H/9IP (5.86), second in ERA (2.49), third in WHIP (0.99) and K/9 (10.42), fifth in HR/9 (0.73), seventh among pitchers in bWAR (4.7), tied for seventh in strikeouts (201) and 10th in K/BB (3.41)

• Struck out 201 batters against 59 walks while holding batters to a .183 average

• Reached 200 career strikeouts in his start against the Padres on June 19... became the fastest Japan-born pitcher to reach 200 strikeouts (174.2 IP), surpassing Yu Darvish who reached 200 strikeouts after 176.2 IP

• Was named to his first All-Star team in July after going 8-7 with a 2.59 ERA (30 ER/104.1 IP) in the first half of the season…did not pitch in the game

• On September 6 at Baltimore, took a no-hitter all the way through two outs in the ninth inning – retiring 19 batters in a row – before Jackson Holliday homered just over the right-field wall…this was the second of three straight games with 10 strikeouts he fired from August 31-September 12

• Awarded the National League Pitcher of the Month two times, in March/April (34 innings, 1.06 ERA, 43 strikeouts) and in September ((27 innings, 0.67 ERA, 34 strikeouts)

• Made his Major League debut on March 21 against San Diego in South Korea, giving up four hits, five runs, a hit batter and a walk while striking out two in one inning…only allowed 25 earned runs in 89 innings thereafter (2.53 ERA)

• Had his best regular season start on June 7 in Yankee Stadium, tossing seven scoreless innings, giving up two hits and two walks while striking out seven, with a season-high 106 pitches

• Sidelined with triceps tightness after facing the Royals on June 15…returned to the active major-league roster on September 10 with four innings against the Cubs, allowing one unearned run and striking out eight

• After a three-inning no decision in Game 1 of the NLDS, pitched five shutout innings to get the victory in the winner-take-all Game 5 against the Padres

• Started Game 2 of the World Series against the Yankees, tossing 6.1 one-run innings, giving up one hits, a home run and two walks while striking out four in the win…allowed only three runs in his final 15.2 October innings (1.72 ERA)

• For the third straight season in Japan, won the Pacific League pitching triple crown (wins, ERA, strikeouts), going 16-6 with a spellbinding 1.21 ERA and 169 strikeouts in 164 innings

• Named the Nippon Pacific League Most Valuable Player for the third straight season

• Threw his second career no-hitter on September 9 against the Chiba Lotte Marines, becoming the first pitcher in Nippon Professional Baseball history with no-hitters in consecutive seasons

• Set a Japan Series record with 14 strikeouts in a 138-pitch complete game, allowing nine hits and walking none, to force a winner-take-all Game 7 for the Orix Buffaloes against the Hanshin Tigers…Hanshin went on to win the title

• Won the World Baseball Classic as a member of Team Japan, going 1-0 with a 2.45 ERA and 12 strikeouts in two games (one start)

• Fired his first career no-hitter against the Saitama Seibu Lions on June 18, striking out nine against one walk over 102 pitches in a 2-0 victory

• Celebrated a Japan Series title when Orix topped the Tokyo Yakult Swallows in six games, avenging the opposite result in the previous title clash…in Game 2, he allowed four hits and four runs in four innings before leaving with a muscle cramp

• Became the first repeat Sawamura Award winner in Orix history

• Became the second Orix Buffalo to win the Eiji Swamura Award, named after the legendary Tokyo Giants pitcher from the 1930s-40s…first was Chihiro Kaneko in 2014

• Allowed one run over six innings in Game 1 of the Japan Series against Yakult, striking out nine…Orix won the game, 4-3, with three runs in the bottom of the ninth

• In Game 6 of the series, pitched a spellbinding nine innings, striking out 11 and allowing one run, before

Orix lost the game in the 11th, 2-1…for the Series, pitched 15 innings with 20 strikeouts and a 1.20 ERA

• Won the Fighting Spirit Award as the most impactful player on the losing team in the Japan Series

• Made his international debut in the 2020 Tokyo Olympic Games, leading Team Japan to the Gold Medal as he went 0-0 with a 1.59 ERA and 18 strikeouts in two games…named to the All-Olympic team and helped his team go 5-0 in the tournament and capture its first Summer Games Olympic Gold Medal

2020

• At age 21, during the pandemic-shortened season, led Orix in innings (126.2) and strikeouts (149)

• For the first time in his career, led the Pacific League in strikeouts

2019

• Earned NPB All-Star recognition for the second time and won the Pacific League ERA title for the first time

2018

• Named an NPB All-Star shortly after his 20th birthday

2017

• Made his NPB debut on August 20 for Orix, three days after he turned 19

DODGER STADIUM

In 2026, Dodger Stadium will mark its 65th season of operation after opening on April 10, 1962. It is the third oldest park in Major League Baseball, behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914). Last year, the Dodgers set a new attendance record, drawing 4,012,470 fans through the turnstiles, making Dodger Stadium one of the most popular venues in the entire world.

In 2022, Dodger Stadium hosted the Major League Baseball All-Star Game for the second time in its existence, following the 1980 Midsummer Classic. More than 152,000 fans attended the three days of events and flooded Downtown L.A.

The stadium has undergone numerous upgrades and renovations over the years, including the Centerfield Plaza, which debuted to fans in 2021. For the first time, the stadium added a front door, with almost two acres of unique food offerings, entertainment and kids areas, retail locations, sponsor activations, more social- and standing-room areas and greater access for those with special needs. In addition, it is the home for the Jackie Robinson Statue, the Sandy Koufax statue that was dedicated in 2022, "Legends of Dodger Baseball" plaques and exhibits as well as displays that pay tribute to countless moments in Dodger history.

During the 2024-25 offseason, the Dodgers performed renovations to the home clubhouse to expand player facilities, adding a second batting cage, additional technology, and kitchen facilities for the players and performance staff  The new clubhouse offers players modern and welcoming spaces, with a focus on performance, health, and nutrition

Dodger Stadium's rich history began with club president Walter O'Malley's foresight over six decades ago. During much of the 1950s, he lobbied for a new stadium to be built for his Brooklyn club, but when a deal could not be reached in 1957, the Dodgers made the unprecedented move to California. In September of that year, the city of Los Angeles agreed to give 300 acres of land to the Dodgers in exchange for the deed to Los Angeles' Wrigley Field and their commitment to construct a 50,000-seat stadium. While Dodger Stadium was being built, the Dodgers played at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum from 1958 through 1961, before Opening Day, April 10, 1962, when the Dodgers finally played in their new home before 52,564 fans.

The Dodgers enter their 65th season of play at Dodger Stadium (capacity: 56,000) in 2026 with a 2,971-2,098 (.586) record in 5,069 regular season games. The stadium has hosted 118 Dodger Postseason games with the club holding a 71-47 record (.602), including 32 games (20-12, .625) during 12 World Series (1963, '65, '66, '74, '77, '78, '81, '88, 2017, 2018, 2024 and 2025). Since Dodger Stadium's opening in 1962, Los Angeles has the best home winning percentage in the National League and the second best regular season home record in the Majors, behind only the Yankees' .601 mark.

History

• The first game in Dodger Stadium history was held on April 10, 1962. Left-hander Johnny Podres made the start against the Cincinnati Reds. Kay O'Malley, wife of Dodger President Walter O'Malley, threw out the ceremonial first pitch to catcher John Roseboro.
• Hall of Famer Willie Stargell is the only player to twice hit a ball out of Dodger Stadium (Aug. 5, 1969, and May 8, 1973). Mike Piazza (Sept. 21, 1997) and Shohei Ohtani (Oct. 17, 2025) are the only Dodgers to clear the roof.
• Of the nine Dodger World Series championships, the only title clinched on their home field was in 1963 when Los Angeles swept the Yankees, capped by a 2-1 victory in Game 4.
• The 1980 All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium was won by the NL, 4-2 and the 2022 Midsummer Classic contest saw the American League best the National League, 3-2.
• The only perfect game in Dodger history was pitched by Sandy Koufax at Dodger Stadium in a 1-0 victory against the Chicago Cubs on Sept. 9, 1965.

International

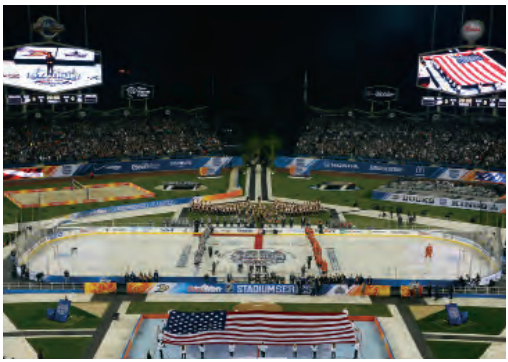
• Dodger Stadium played host to the 1984 Olympic Baseball tournament, the opening ceremonies of the 1991 United States Olympic Festival and the finals of both the 2009 and 2017 World Baseball Classics.
• On March 26, 2025 the Dodgers unveiled their Japanese stone lantern from 1965 at a more prominent location on Top Deck. The lantern was presented to the Dodgers organization by Japanese sports columnist Sotaro Suzuki, who is also a member of the Japanese Baseball Hall of Fame. The eight-foot, 3,921-pound Kasuga-style stone lantern was gifted to the organization and team president Walter O'Malley by Suzuki as a thank you for inviting him and his wife, Toku, as guests to Dodger Stadium's grand opening on April 9, 1962.

Sandy Koufax celebrates recording the final out of the 1963 World Series.



Dodger Stadium played host to the NHL's Stadium Series on January 25, 2014, as the Anaheim Ducks faced the Los Angeles Kings in a regular season game.

• In November 2022, Dodger Stadium was the site for the final three North American shows played by legendary entertainer, Elton John. Nearly 150,000 music fans packed the stadium over the fall weekend.
• Dodger Stadium is part of the fabric of Los Angeles and during the COVID-19 pandemic the Dodgers opened the stadium and its parking lots in 2020 for communal benefit, including serving as a supersite where over a million tests were administered at one of the country's largest vaccination sites. Additionally, the stadium's Top Deck served as one of Los Angeles County's busiest Vote Centers for the 2020 Presidential Election.
• Pope John Paul II celebrated a Mass at Dodger Stadium on Sept. 16, 1987. The event drew a stadium-record crowd of 63,000.
• Entertainers to perform at Dodger Stadium include: AC/DC, Beyoncé, Billy Joel, Bruno Mars, Guns N' Roses, The Rolling Stones, The Beatles, KISS, Madonna, The Bee Gees, Elton John, Simon and Garfunkel, John Legend, Luke Bryan, Michael Jackson, David Bowie, Genesis, Eric Clapton, U2, the Dave Matthews Band, Bruce Springsteen, Paul McCartney and The Three Tenors.
• The Harlem Globetrotters played an exhibition game at Dodger Stadium on Feb. 4, 1964. The basketball court was placed on the infield.
• Dodger Stadium has played host to a rugby match (2015), a soccer game (2013) and the National Hockey League's first regular-season outdoor game in California on Jan. 25, 2014, between the Los Angeles Kings and Anaheim Ducks.

Original Construction

A birds-eye view of the Dodger Stadium construction and terraced parking at Chavez Ravine.

• Elevations at "Chavez Ravine" ranged from 400 feet to 700 feet above sea level. More than eight million cubic yards of earth was moved to reshape the area.
• Dodger Stadium was designed by Emil Praeger and was the first privately financed stadium since Yankee Stadium, built by a brewery in 1923.
• The Dodgers played at the Los Angeles Coliseum from 1958-61, and groundbreaking ceremonies for the original Dodger Stadium construction were held on Sept. 17, 1959.
• There were more than 25,000 separate pieces of precast concrete used to build the original Dodger Stadium.
• The original dugout level seats at Dodger Stadium were inspired by a similar layout of dugout seats at Korakuen Stadium, where the Dodgers played during their 1956 Japan goodwill tour. Club seats have since been replaced by the Dugout Club Seats.
• Dodger Stadium was designed so that each of the nine levels of the park has entries at grade as the hillside rises around the structure. The engineers used the terrain of the site to allow access directly from each level without requiring fans to use stairs or an elevator.
• The original color scheme of Dodger Stadium, which is evident in the seats today, is a result of the study of popular colors in the 1960s, reflective of the California spirit.
• The distinctive inverted precast panels of the Top Deck and the zig-zag roof of the pavilions are unique architectural features.

* The 1980 and 2018 attendance totals both include a one-game playoff and the 1962 total includes two playoff games. Bold indicates all-time Dodger high. The attendance totals do not include playoff series. The 1972 season began late due to a players' strike, as the Dodgers had just 75 home games. The 1981 season was interrupted on June 12 by a players' strike, as the team had just 56 home games. The 1994 season was cut short on Aug. 12 by a players' strike. The 1995 season began late due to the 1994-95 players' strike. The Dodgers' first 33 games in 2021 were played in front of limited capacity crowd due to COVID-19 regulations.

Los Angeles Attendance Highlights

Record At The Turnstile: In 2025, the Dodgers set a new single-season franchise attendance record, drawing four million fans for the first time in club history (4,012,470). Los Angeles had 25 sellouts and averaged a Major League best 49,536 fans over 81 home dates. The attendance mark represented the 10th highest in MLB history and the third highest in National League history.

MLB Leaders: Since moving to Los Angeles in 1958, the Dodgers have led the National League in attendance 39 times, including posting the highest attendance in the Majors in 35 of those 39 years (see previous page for individual seasons). Los Angeles has led the Majors in attendance for the last 12 full seasons since 2013, including 2025.

Sellouts: The Dodgers established a club record with 37 sellouts in 1983.

Largest Single-Game Crowd: The Dodgers drew 57,097 fans on April 13, 2009 for an 11-1 Opening Day victory over the Giants, the largest regular season crowd in Dodger Stadium history and one of three times that the club has drawn more than 56,000 at Chavez Ravine (also: March 31, 2011 vs. SF, Aug. 21, 2012 vs. SF).

Largest Single-Game Postseason Crowd: During the postseason, the largest Dodger Stadium crowd is 56,800 - done three times during the 2008 NLCS vs. Philadelphia - Oct. 12, 13, 15.

Over Three Million: The Dodgers hold the Major League record for drawing more than three million fans on 36 occasions, while also topping the big leagues in number of times topping 2.5 million (51). Los Angeles surpassed 2 million fans for an MLB record 47 consecutive seasons (1973-2019).

Turnstiles: The Dodgers established a then Major League record when they drew 3,608,881 fans in 1982. The NL implemented a new attendance counting system in 1993, and the Rockies recorded the largest single-season total in Major League history with 4,483,350 fans in their first Major League season. Through the 1992 season, attendance figures in the NL were counted by the number of fans in attendance and the AL counted total tickets sold. Both leagues - currently count total tickets sold.

For The Record Book: On May 7, 1959, the Dodgers and Yankees played before an exhibition crowd of 93,103 at the Los Angeles Coliseum in honor of Roy Campanella, the highest single-game attendance mark for a Major League game.

Campo Las Palmas

The Dodgers were the first MLB club to establish a baseball academy in the Dominican Republic when they first opened the doors of Campo Las Palmas in 1987. Former Dodger President Peter O'Malley and former Dodger Scout and Vice President Ralph Avila arranged for the Dodgers to purchase land in San Antonio de Guerra on which Campo Las Palmas was constructed. The Dodgers, under ownership by Mark Walter and Guggenheim Baseball Management, expanded the campus with the purchase of a neighboring parcel and the total complex is now 70 acres.

Campo Las Palmas celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2017 with extensive improvements and an expansion of the state-of-the-art facility. In 1987, the original facility consisted of four structures, which has now grown to 10 buildings of nearly 100,000 total square feet following the 2017 expansion. The newly renovated Campo Las Palmas houses 96 players, 19 coaches and support staff, while training facilities include three and one-half fields, a covered batting cage large enough to accommodate infield practice, a mile running track, conditioning and weight room and training areas within the clubhouse. Designed to expand the campus qualities of the original complex and encourage continuing education during time in camp, new buildings at Campo Las Palmas feature four classrooms, a quiet room and a social area for players. Additional updates include the Jackie Robinson Hall which functions as a movie house that uses English-language films as part of language learning and is a place where players can spend time with their families when they visit Campo Las Palmas. A community field for little league play is near the entrance, and fruit trees and a vegetable garden near the new kitchen mark the team's commitment to nutrition.

Camelback Ranch-Glendale

Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G) is in its 18th season (opened in 2009) as the Spring Training home of the Dodgers and White Sox this year. CR-G is one of the largest stadiums in the Cactus League and features unique grounds that include picturesque walking trails, a five-acre lake and an orange grove – a nod to the Dodgers' previous spring home in Vero Beach, FL, where they trained for 61 years. The CR-G campus has become home for all Dodger minor league operations throughout the year, including the franchise's teams in the Rookie-level Arizona League, Fall Instructional League and Arizona Fall League.

The award-winning stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for 3,000-plus fans. An orange grove – a touch of Dodgertown, Southern California and Arizona – is located beyond the left-field wall of replica Dodger Stadium.

The Dodgers set a CR-G total attendance record in 2017, with 165,911 in 17 home dates. The club's record for average attendance was set last year, when the club hosted 132,776 fans in 12 home dates (average of 11,065).

Dodgertown In Vero Beach

Dodgertown in Vero Beach was the Spring Training home of the Dodgers for 61 years from 1948-2008 and home to some of the most memorable players and personalities of both Brooklyn and Los Angeles lore. The personalized street signs within the complex honored such Hall of Famers as Jackie Robinson, Sandy Koufax, Roy Campanella, Duke Snider, Pee Wee Reese, Don Drysdale, Tommy Lasorda, Walter Alston, Don Sutton, Vin Scully and Jaime Jarrín.

The Dodgers first set up camp at the invitation of a local businessman, Bud Holman, after the city needed a tenant to occupy a former World War II Naval Air Station. The club brought its minor league operations to Vero Beach in 1948, and in 1952 Dodger President Walter O'Malley and New York-based architect Emil Praeger decided to build an intimate-style stadium with unobstructed views. "Holman Stadium," named by O'Malley after Bud Holman, was officially dedicated on March 11, 1953. The camp became the most unique baseball training facility in the country, a destination for international baseball visitors. The complex also grew into six practice fields, four indoor batting and pitching tunnels, a pool, tennis court and more.

On March 17, 2008, the final Spring Training contest took place at Holman Stadium and at its conclusion, the Dodgers formed a "bat tunnel" for Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda as he walked off the field for the final time in Vero Beach. In November 2014, Historic Dodgertown - Vero Beach was designated as a "Florida Heritage Landmark" and a Historical Marker was unveiled on the property.

Hitting for the Cycle

Babe Herman set the Dodger career record for hitting for the cycle when he did so twice in 1931. He then tied the Major League record by doing so a third time with the Chicago Cubs, matching Bob Meusel (1921, 1922, 1928) and John Reilly (1883 (2), 1890).

Uniform Numbers In Dodger History

Since 1932, hundreds of players and coaches have put on a Dodger uniform, wearing every single number from 1 to 77 as well as 0, 00, 97 and 99. On April 15, from 2007-19 the Dodgers all wore No. 42 to celebrate the 60th-72nd anniversaries of Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier. Pitcher Joe Beimel's No. 97 was the highest number ever worn by a player during a regular-season game until Manny Ramirez donned No. 99 in 2008. In 2014, Brian Wilson became the first Dodger to wear 00. Pee Wee Reese's No. 1 was officially retired on July 4, 1984, one of nine numbers that have been retired. Below is a list of the different numbers worn by Dodgers since 1932 and the years in which they were worn.

Dodger Retired Numbers

PEE WEE REESE — IF — 1

Uniform Number Retired July 1, 1984

Harold "Pee Wee Reese" played 16 seasons at shortstop for the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers (1940-42, 1946-58) and was a member of seven Brooklyn pennant-winning teams, including the World Championship club of 1955. Despite missing the 1943-45 seasons for service in the Navy, the 10-time National League All-Star appeared in more games at shortstop (2,014) than any player in franchise history and is also the Dodgers' all-time leader in runs scored (1,338) and walks (1,210). His leadership qualities were recognized by Manager Walter Alston, who appointed "The Little Colonel" as team captain. Reese was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984.

TOMMY LASORDA — MGR — 2

Uniform Number Retired August 15, 1997

Tommy Lasorda had a tough act to follow when he succeeded future Hall of Famer Walter Alston as Dodger manager with four games left in the 1976 season. But like Alston, Lasorda went on to enjoy a lengthy and highly successful tenure at the helm. Piloting the Dodgers until the 1996 campaign, he racked up 1,599 victories to rank 13th on the all-time Major League managerial list, winning two World Series titles (1981 and 1988), four NL pennants and eight division titles. Prior to joining the big league staff as a coach in 1973, he had a successful eight-year stint as a minor league manager, helping the development of several future Dodger stars. The former Brooklyn Dodger pitcher was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

DUKE SNIDER — OF — 4

Uniform Number Retired July 6, 1980

The Duke of Flatbush was among the game's most feared hitters during his 16 seasons with the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers (1947-62), playing on a pair of World Championship teams (1955 and 1959) and in six World Series overall. The eight-time All-Star center fielder ranks as the franchise's career leader in home runs (389) and runs batted in (1,271) and during the 1950s he topped all Major Leaguers with 326 homers and 1,031 RBI. He slugged four home runs in both the 1952 and 1955 World Series, and he holds the Brooklyn Dodger single-season mark of 43 homers, which led the National League in 1956. His 136 RBI in 1955 topped the NL. Snider was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1980.

Dodger Retired Numbers

GIL HODGES — IF — 14

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 2022

Gil Hodges was as solid as they come in his professionalism, integrity, and dependability in leading the Dodger teams of the 1940s and '50s at first base. Hodges led the Dodgers to their first World Championship in 1955 and was the cornerstone to Dodger teams that won seven National League pennants and two World Series over 13 seasons (1943, 1947-61). The eight-time All-Star topped 20 homers in 11 straight years and hit 370 in his brilliant career, the third highest total for a right-handed hitter at his retirement. From 1949-57, Hodges averaged 32 home runs and 108 RBI per season. On Aug. 31, 1950, Hodges became the second modern-era NL player to hit four home runs in one game. He went on to play for the Mets and managed nine seasons in the big leagues with the Washington Senators and the New York Mets, guiding the Miracle Mets to the 1969 World Series title. Fifty years after his untimely passing at age 47 in 1972, Hodges joined his "Boys of Summer" teammates — Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella, Pee Wee Reese and Duke Snider — in the Hall of Fame in 2022.

JIM GILLIAM — IF/OF — 19

Uniform Number Retired October 10, 1978

Following three years for the Baltimore Elite Giants in the Negro Leagues starting at age 17, Jim Gilliam played his entire 14-year Major League career (1953-66) in a Dodger uniform, both in Brooklyn and Los Angeles, contributing to four World Championship clubs (1955, 1959, 1963 and 1965) and seven pennant winners overall. "Junior" appeared in 1,956 games to rank fifth on the franchise's all-time games played list, seeing action at second base, third base and in the outfield. In 1953, he was selected as the National League Rookie of the Year. Following his playing career, the two-time All-Star served as a Dodger coach until his unexpected death at the age of 49 prior to the start of the 1978 World Series, at which time his number was retired and the Dodgers wore a commemorative patch on their sleeve in his honor.

DON SUTTON — RHP — 20

Uniform Number Retired August 14, 1998

The durable right-hander spent 16 of his 23 Major League seasons with the Dodgers and more than made his mark in team history, ranking as the franchise's all-time leader in wins (233), games started (533), innings pitched (3,816.1), strikeouts (2,696) and shutouts (52). A four-time All-Star, he pitched in three World Series (1974, 1977 and 1978) with the Dodgers, led the National League in shutouts (9) in 1972, was the NL ERA leader (2.21) in 1980 and a 21-game winner in 1976. He made his big-league debut with the Dodgers in 1966 and stayed with the team through 1980, before leaving and rejoining the club in 1988. Sutton finished his career with 324 wins and 3,574 strikeouts and was enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998.

WALTER ALSTON — MGR — 24

Uniform Number Retired June 5, 1977

Walter Emmons Alston was a virtual unknown when he took over the helm of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1954, but he became well-known in a hurry. The longtime minor league skipper guided his first Dodger team to 92 wins and followed that by piloting the 1955 Dodgers to 98 victories and their first World Championship in franchise history. He went on to lead the Dodgers to six more National League pennants and three more World Series titles (1959, 1963 and 1965) in a 23-year career in which he tallied 2,040 victories to place sixth on the all-time managerial wins list. His 3,658 total games managed rank eighth all time. Alston, who played in one Major League game, that with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1983.

SANDY KOUFAX — LHP — 32

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 1972

Among the most dominating pitchers in baseball history, the left-hander won 165 games and compiled 2,396 strikeouts in 2,324.1 innings with 40 shutouts in his 12-year Dodger career (1955-66). A three-time Cy Young Award winner and the National League MVP in 1963, Koufax was also World Series MVP in both 1963 and 1965, hurling a pair of 10-K shutouts in Games 5 and 7 of the latter. He led the NL in ERA five straight seasons from 1962-66, was the strikeout leader four times and tops in wins on three occasions with totals of 27, 26 and 25. In addition, Koufax pitched an NL-record four no-hitters, including a perfect game in 1965, and set the National League single-season mark with 382 strikeouts in 1965. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1972.

FERNANDO VALENZUELA LHP

34

Fernando Valenzuela is one of the most influential figures in Los Angeles Dodgers history. The left-handed pitching sensation from the small town Etchohuaquila in Navojoa, Mexico, launched "Fernandomania" in 1981 with one of the most dominant starts for a rookie to begin a season in Major League history. Valenzuela re-energized the Dodger fanbase and created a multi-generational, multicultural impact that will live on in Los Angeles for years to come. Valenzuela, at age 20, was the emergency 1981 Opening Day starter and defeated the Houston Astros, 2-0, beginning a run of eight consecutive wins — five by shutout. He is the only pitcher in Major League history to win Rookie of the Year and Cy Young Award honors in his rookie season. Valenzuela also helped lead the Dodgers to a World Series championship in 1981. "El Toro," the master of the screwball, played 17 Major League seasons, including 11 with the Dodgers from 1980-1990 where he was a six-time All-Star, a two-time Silver Slugger Award winner for his prowess with the bat and a Gold Glove Award winner. His 173 victories and 2,074 strikeouts are the most for any Mexican-born Major Leaguer. In 2003, the cultural icon returned to the Dodgers as a Spanish-language broadcaster. His No. 34 was officially retired by the Dodgers on Aug. 11, 2023 — the same day the city of Los Angeles declared "Fernando Valenzuela Day."

ROY CAMPANELLA C

39

In 10 seasons with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1948-57), Campy was a force both at the plate and behind the plate. The catcher played on five pennant-winning clubs, including the World Champions of 1955. That season, the eight-time All-Star became a three-time National League Most Valuable Player award winner after collecting 32 home runs and 107 RBI. He also garnered MVP honors in 1951 and 1953, when he led the league with a Brooklyn-record 142 RBI to go with a career-high 41 home runs. A Negro Leaguer beginning in 1937 at age 15, Campanella's career was cut short due to a tragic automobile accident that left him paralyzed. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1969.

JACKIE ROBINSON — OF/IF — 42

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 1972

Jack Roosevelt Robinson made a historic entrance into Major League Baseball in 1947 as the first African-American player in the history of the game. His outstanding debut season netted him the inaugural Rookie of the Year award, which now bears his name, and springboarded him to a stellar 10-season career in which he was part of six Brooklyn Dodger pennant-winners, among them the World Championship club of 1955. In 1949, the six-time all-star won the National League batting title (.342) en route to earning MVP honors. Robinson, a first baseman as a rookie, starred as a second baseman for the next five seasons, before moving on to play third base and the outfield. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962.

DON DRYSDALE — RHP — 53

Uniform Number Retired July 1, 1984

One of the game's fiercest competitors, the hard-throwing right-hander Drysdale pitched 14 seasons (1956-69) for the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers, ranking second on the franchise career list in wins (209), games started (465), innings pitched (3,432.1), shutouts (49) and third in strikeouts (2,486). The NL strikeout leader in 1959 and 1960, Big D earned the leagues' Cy Young Award in 1962, when he won 25 and topped the league in strikeouts for a third time. A member of three World Championship clubs (1959, 1963 and 1965) and two other pennant winners (1956 and 1966), he set a then-Major League record in 1968, tossing 58.2 consecutive scoreless innings, including a record six straight shutouts. Drysdale gained induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984.

International Relations

Throughout their history, in both Brooklyn and Los Angeles, the Dodgers have played a major role in the development of international baseball and forging relationships with countries around the world:

Australia

- The Dodgers played in the historic Opening Series in Sydney in March 2014 against the Diamondbacks in MLB's first regular season games in Australia. The Dodgers, who also played an exhibition game against Team Australia, swept the two-game series, which was held at the historic Sydney Cricket Ground. The series marked the Dodgers' first regular-season games outside of North America.
- In 1986, shortstop Craig Shipley became the first native-born Australian to play in the Majors

Canada

- The Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers had a minor league affiliate in Montreal, Canada from 1939-60. Jackie Robinson made his professional baseball debut and won the International League batting title with the Triple-A Montreal Royals in 1946.

Jackie Robinson as a Montreal Royal in 1946.

China

- In the spring of 2008, a split-squad of Dodgers traveled to Beijing, China to play against the San Diego Padres at Beijing's Wukesong Stadium in an exhibition and the first-ever Major League games played in that country.
- In 1986, Peter O'Malley paid for construction of a baseball stadium in Tianjin. Named Dodger Stadium, it still exists and is home to the Tianjin Lions of the Chinese Professional Baseball League founded in 2002.

Cuba

- The Dodgers held Spring Training in Havana from 1941-42 and again in 1947.
- Clayton Kershaw and Yasiel Puig joined MLB and the Players' Association on a historic goodwill tour to Cuba in December 2015.

Dominican Republic

- The Los Angeles Dodgers' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic, Campo Las Palmas, underwent a major renovation and re-dedication in 2017 as it celebrated its 30th year in Dodger player development, having officially opened on March 27, 1987. It was the first-of-its kind facility and has since been replicated by numerous teams throughout baseball. Campo Las Palmas is located in the town of Guerra, just east of the Dominican Republic's capital city of Santo Domingo (more information on Campo Las Palmas can be found in the Dodger Stadium section).
- Fernando Valenzuela (2011) and Nomar Garciaparra (2015) have been inducted into the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame at Casa de Campo in La Romana, joining Tommy Lasorda who is a founding member and Goodwill Ambassador of the organization. Lasorda has a statue at the Paseo de los Inmortales, dedicated in 2012, and The Hall of Fame annually bestows an award in his name for a non-Latino who makes significant contributions to Latino baseball. Former Dodger President Peter O'Malley is a past recipient
- The Dodgers' history in the Dominican Republic began in 1948 when they held Spring Training in Ciudad Trujillo.

Japan

- The Dodgers have held three postseason tours of Japan by Brooklyn and Los Angeles teams following the 1956, 1966 and 1993 seasons. The Tokyo Giants visited Vero Beach during Spring Training five times (1961, 1967, 1971, 1975 and 1980).
- In 1966, the Dodgers received a two-ton, 10-foot tall, stone lantern gift from Japanese Hall of Famer Sotaro Suzuki as a token of friendship between the Dodgers and Japan and to commemorate the opening of Dodger Stadium in 1962.
- After the 1993 season, the Dodgers played five exhibition games in Asia as part of the Friendship Series tour, three in Taipei, Taiwan and two in the Fukuoka Dome in Fukuoka, Japan.

• In 1995, Hideo Nomo became only the second Japanese born player to appear in the Major Leagues. The Nomo signing and his success spawned Nomo-mania and opened the door for Japanese players in the United States.
• In 2023, the Dodgers signed Shohei Ohtani and Yoshinobu Yamamoto to two of the largest contract in Major League Baseball history. Ohtani signed a 10-year, $700 million dollar contract and Yamamoto signed a 12-year, $325 million.
•In 2025, the Los Angeles signed Roki Sasaki to a minor league contract, becoming the third Japanese pitcher to join the team in the last three seasons
• In a highly anticipated homecoming for Ohtani, Sasaki and Yamamoto, the Dodgers opened the 2025 MLB season in Tokyo, facing the Chicago Cubs and their Japanese stars Shota Imanaga and Seiya Suzuki, with the Dodgers sweeping the two games, 4-1 and 6-3. Each team also played exhibition games against the Hanshin Tigers and the Yomiuri Giants

Korea

• On Sept. 9, 1990, the Dodgers became the first Major League team to have a game broadcast in the Korean language in the United States.
• In 1994, pitcher Chan Ho Park became the first Korean to play in the Major Leagues.
• In 2024, for the second time in franchise history, the Dodgers opened the regular season on another continent, splitting a two-game series against the Padres in Seoul, Korea. That couplet was preceded by exhibition games against the Kiwoom Heroes and Team Korea.

Mexico

• Pitcher Fernando Valenzuela made his Major League debut in 1980. The native of Sonora, Mexico became an international sensation in 1981 and helped the Dodgers win the World Series.
• The Dodgers took a trip to Monterrey, Mexico during Spring Training in 1991 for a two-game exhibition against Industriales de Monterrey and the Milwaukee Brewers
• In 2018, the club played three regular season games against the San Diego Padres in Monterrey from May 4-6 and tossed their very first no-hitter on international soil May 4... The Dodgers also played exhibition games in Mexico City prior to the 1964 season against the Red Devils and in 2003 against the New York Mets.
• Julio Urias won 20 games in 2021, becoming just the 4th Mexican-born pitcher in MLB history to win 20+ games. Two of those 4 were Dodgers (Urias & Valenzuela)
• Julio Urias became the 1st Mexican-born pitcher to ever secure the NL ERA title (2.16).

Kenley Jansen and the Dodgers exchange hats with CPBL All-Stars during the club's pre-season trip to Taiwan in 2010.

Taiwan

• Following the 1993 season, the Dodgers were the first Major League Baseball team to play in Taiwan when they competed against the Chinese Professional League (CPBL) All-Stars for three games as part of the Dodgers' Friendship Baseball Series. The Dodgers also took part in a three-game friendship series against CPBL All-Stars a 2010 Spring Training trip to Taiwan.
• Hong-Chih Kuo in 2000 became the first Taiwanese high school player to sign a professional baseball contract when he signed with the Dodgers.

World Baseball Classic

• In 2017, the Dodgers hosted the semi-finals and championship game of the World Baseball Classsic, with the United States claiming their first WBC title in front of a sold-out Dodger Stadium crowd...in 2009, Dodger Stadium also hosted the semi-finals and final (won by Japan).
• Numerous Dodger players have appeared in the tournament, while Tommy Lasorda served as the event's Global Ambassador in both 2006 and 2009.

Miscellaneous

• Dodger Stadium played host to the 1984 exhibition baseball tournament at the Olympic Games in Los Angeles.
• On May 19, 1993, Dodger Stadium hosted the first baseball game to be broadcast in four languages – Chinese, English, Korean and Spanish.

2025 marked another year of historic achievement for the Los Angeles Dodgers organization. While the season delivered unforgettable moments on the field, it also brought profound challenges for our city. The devastation caused by the January wildfires along with ongoing issues in our communities deeply affected the city but also revealed our resilience.

Through it all, the Community Relations team remained steadfast in its commitment to serve. From donation drives to once-in-a-lifetime experiences, the team consistently went above and beyond to support and uplift our beloved city.

YOUTH EDUCATION & FITNESS

The Dodgers are passionate about empowering the next generation. From hosting baseball clinics at Dodger Stadium to bringing stories to life through player-led Storytime sessions, the Dodgers are committed to inspiring young minds and giving them the tools and confidence to thrive on and off the field.

The 2025 season reached new heights including:

• The Dodgers, in partnership with the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation, kicked off the ninth season of LA Reads, a literacy program designed to inspire a lifelong love of reading. Through the program's Reading Champions Challenge, which encourages students from K-8 to read at least 30 minutes a day, students logged almost one million reading minutes last year.

• The team unveiled the remaining 2024 World Series Legacy project sites – two renovated literacy spaces at Manhattan Place Elementary and Langdon Avenue Elementary School to promote literacy and a love of reading.

• The Dodgers hosted five Storytime readings including a Japanese English dual immersion reading at Dunsmore Elementary School with Yoshinobu Yamamoto.

• The Kids 4 Dodger Baseball (K4DB) program celebrated its ninth year, closing out another season of providing all-inclusive game day experiences for under-resourced youth. Each participant received a game ticket, round-trip transportation, a K4DB t-shirt, and a stadium concessions voucher. Every year thousands of new lifelong Dodger fans are welcomed to the stadium through this impactful program.

• The Dodgers continued to provide accessible opportunities for youth to participate in clinics that promote exercise, teamwork, and a healthy lifestyle. From the annual Play Ball Weekend to Pitch, Hit, Run, the team hosted multiple events at Dodger Stadium welcoming young athletes from around L.A. County and across the country.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

The Dodgers are dedicated to supporting individuals facing serious illnesses – bringing moments of joy, laughter, and fun to families who need it the most. The organization is equally committed to breaking down stigmas around developmental disabilities and creating safe, welcoming spaces where anyone can create lasting memories.

Some 2025 highlights included:

• Current and former Dodger players visited UCLA Children's Hospital to interact with young patients, their families, and hospital staff.

• The Dodgers joined forces with Make-A-Wish and Fanatics for the second year to give seven remarkable children the magical experience of becoming a Dodger for the day. Each child was signed to a one-day contract by Manager Dave Roberts and received their own personalized uniform, locker and nameplate. The families were then treated to an exclusive stadium tour, VIP access to Batting Practice, and the most unforgettable experience – playing catch on the field alongside some of their favorite Dodger players.

• The Dodgers partnered with the HollyRod Foundation, in recognition of Autism Awareness Month, to host a special sensory-friendly workshop at Dodger Stadium filled with painting and friendship bracelet-making, a stadium tour, and a visit from some of their favorite Dodger players. RJ Peete, the inspiration behind the HollyRod Foundation and a member of the Dodgers clubhouse staff, also joined the group, sharing his personal journey following his autism diagnosis.

ACCESSIBILITY

The Dodgers are committed to increasing access to unique experiences and providing accessible options for fans to get to the stadium.

Through the Commissioner's Community Initiative, the Dodgers donated complimentary game tickets to local schools, nonprofits, military organizations, and community groups. In 2025, the program distributed 48,000 tickets to support this initiative.

In its 15th season, the Dodger Stadium Express (DSE) welcomed 467,739 fans, offering free rides to all game-day ticket holders throughout the regular season and postseason, giving fans an easier and greener way to get to Dodger Stadium. Beyond the DSE, another public transit system, Metrolink, reached a post-pandemic ridership record with 44,000 boardings on the day of the 2025 World Series Celebration furthering the Dodgers' vision of a greener LA.

SERVICE

The Dodgers are deeply committed to giving back to our community. From honoring our service members and first responders to providing meals during the holidays to Angelenos in need, the Dodgers strive to uplift, support and celebrate our communities year-round.

Some 2025 highlights included:

• Recognizing 93 Military Heroes of the Game and 26 Frontline Heroes of the Game during the 2025 season

• Donating $30,000 to support local nonprofit holiday food drives

• Distributing 1,500 Thanksgiving turkey dinners to Angelenos in need

• Welcoming 500 LAUSD students to a Back-to-School event at Dodger Stadium, providing backpacks, shoes, school supplies, pantry items, dental screenings, and haircuts to help them start the school year strong

• Hosting 350 veterans for a special Veterans Day Batting Practice at Dodger Stadium

• Surprising 600 local students with a holiday celebration at Dodger Stadium, featuring real snow for sledding, gift bags with essentials, holiday treats, and a visit from Santa

WORLD SERIES LEGACY IMPACT

Each year, ahead of the World Series (WS), Major League Baseball and the two WS teams collaborate on legacy projects intended to leave a meaningful, lasting impact in their communities. As the Dodgers embarked on a back-to-back World Series run, the organization focused its 2025 Legacy Project around the team's ongoing wildfire relief commitment. This year's initiative focused on supporting first responders and students who were affected by the devastating fires.

• Pasadena Fire Department Station 37

Pasadena's Station 37 was among the first to respond when the Eaton Fire broke out, with its crew remaining on duty for more than two weeks during the height of the crisis. To honor their extraordinary dedication, the Dodgers, together with

Major League Baseball and the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation, renovated the 70-year-old firehouse. The upgrades included new sleeping quarters, an updated kitchen, a refreshed recreation room, and an outdoor patio, creating a comfortable, and functional space for the crew to rest and recharge.

• John Muir High School Wellness Center

The second renovation took place at John Muir High School, Jackie Robinson's alma mater. The school boasts a wellness center that provides drop-in counseling, peer support, and access to a variety of mental health resources. After the fires directly impacted a large portion of the student body, the center became a critical hub for trauma-informed care. The partnership was able to revitalize the Wellness Center, ensuring it remained a healing and functional environment ready to provide long-term support.

LA COMMUNITY TOUR

For almost a decade, the Los Angeles Dodgers have kicked off the new year with the Dodgers Love L.A. Community Tour presented by Bank of America. In 2025, a tradition that began as a way to kick off the seasons in the community and connect with Angelenos, transformed into something spectacular. Following the devastation, the Dodgers chose to focus the tour on a week of service and gratitude for those impacted by the fires and those who were on the frontlines of the devastation.

The tour was filled with bright moments, including:

• Dodger front office staff spending a morning at the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank, assembling and packing over 40,000 pounds of produce for impacted families.

• In partnership with Worthy of Love, we hosted a birthday party for more than 250 Angelenos experiencing homelessness.

• Landon Knack joined volunteers at the East Valley Animal Shelter, one of the facilities caring for pets displaced by the fires, to help clean kennels and give the shelter staff a much-needed break.

• Shohei Ohtani, Emmet Sheehan, and Ben Casparius visited LAFD Station 69, in the heart of the Pacific Palisades devastation, to thank first responders and present a check for $350,000 to the Los Angeles Fire Department Foundation.

• Several players visited the Robinson Recreational Center in Pasadena to eat, dance, and play bingo, brining much needed joy and laughter to hundreds of senior citizens who had been displaced by the Altadena fires.

• A final stop at LA County Fire Department's Camp 2 to surprise and thank first responders.

WILDFIRE RELIEF

On January 7, 2025, Los Angeles County was ravaged by wildfires that tore through the Pacific Palisades and Altadena, destroying thousands of homes and displacing entire families. Those affected were not just residents – they were our neighbors, our coworkers, our friends and family. In the face of such overwhelming loss, the Los Angeles Dodgers rose to support the affected communities, helping families begin the difficult process of rebuilding their lives while honoring and standing alongside the first responders who battled the fires with courage and dedication.

• L.A. Strong Alliance

The Dodgers joined forces with the 11 other Los Angeles professional sports teams, including Angel City FC, the Angels, Chargers, Clippers, Ducks, Galaxy, Kings, LAFC, Lakers, Rams, and Sparks, to form the L.A. Strong Alliance, collectively pledging $8 million to support both the communities affected by the fires and the brave first responders battling them.

• L.A. Strong Essentials Distribution

To support those displaced by the fires, the L.A. Strong Alliance hosted donation events across LA County. Three host sites took part in the event including Dodger Stadium, SoFi Stadium, and BMO Stadium, with players and volunteers from the Dodgers, Galaxy, Kings, and Sparks organization supporting the Dodger Stadium location. Attendees had the opportunity to receive essential items including apparel, shoes, hygiene kits, school supplies, and food. The LA Dodgers and the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation also provided transportation to and from the event for more than 800 evacuees residing within evacuation sites and LA County Care Camps. In the span of one day, $3 million worth of merchandise was distributed to those who had been displaced.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

The Roberto Clemente Award is among the most prestigious individual honors in Major League Baseball. Named for the legendary Roberto Clemente, a Hall of Famer and tireless humanitarian, the award recognizes a player who exemplifies excellence both on and off the field and in the community.

Three-time World Series Champion, eight-time All-Star, and 2018 American League MVP Mookie Betts embodies the spirit of Roberto Clemente in every sense. Through his leadership, generosity, and unwavering commitment to service, Mookie has made it his mission to give back to the communities that have supported him throughout his career. From championing youth sports in his home state of Tennessee to combating hunger and advocating for student success here in Los Angeles, his impact reaches far beyond the game.

In January 2025, the 5050 Foundation donated $30,000 in Nike apparel to families affected by the devastating Los Angeles wildfires. Just weeks later, in partnership with the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation, Mookie contributed more than $160,000 to the Brotherhood Crusade to support efforts addressing hunger and homelessness across Los Angeles.

To help remove barriers to critical medical care, the 5050 Foundation established the Betts on Us Fund at UCLA Children's Hospital. This initiative provides families with access to essential healthcare services without the burden of overwhelming medical costs.

Mookie's commitment to education is equally impactful. In partnership with the Los Angeles Unified School District, the 5050 Foundation launched the Academic Challenge Program, a GPA-based initiative for baseball and softball teams that emphasizes success on the field and in the classroom. Participants engaged in weekly study halls, met with academic and college counselors and NCAA representatives to learn about a pathway to higher education, and connected with alumni to explore life beyond sports. The teams with the highest and most improved GPAs were invited to a career panel with Mookie at Dodger Stadium, a game-day experience, and were given $35,000 in new equipment.

Mookie Betts' lifelong commitment to service reflects the values Roberto Clemente lived by and championed. With this honor, Mookie joined a distinguished group of players – including three fellow/former Dodgers.

2026 Dodger Stadium Media Guidelines

In conjunction with Major League Baseball, the Los Angeles Dodgers will adhere to the following media rules and regulations for all regular season games held at Dodger Stadium.

Access:
• Media gates will open five (5) hours prior to game time for all matchups except for 12:10/1:10 p.m. start times, at which media gates will open four (4) hours prior to game time.
• All media must leave the ballpark no later than 90 minutes following the conclusion of postgame interviews.

Credentials:
• Daily credentials are available on MLB's credential site at credentials.mlb.com. All daily applications will close 24 hours before first pitch. Late applications and day of game changes will not be accepted.
• Full season credentials will be awarded to qualifying media. These will be accepted at all regular season games in addition to all BBWAA cards and MLB-issued credentials.
• Please contact Ally Salvage (AllyS@ladodgers.com) with questions about credentials.

Parking:
• Media parking is available in Lot B off the Left Field Reserve stadium gate with overflow parking in Lot P at the Top of the Park.
• Media should enter Dodger Stadium through Gate A, which is located at the intersection of Vin Scully Avenue and Stadium Way, and check in at the gated guard booth in the far righthand lane. Full season credentials and BBWAA credentials will serve as season-long parking passes. Media with daily credentials will be on that select day's media parking list.
• Please note that during sellouts, high profile games such as Opening Day, and during the Postseason, off-site parking lots may be needed. A notice would be sent out ahead of time for this special occasions.

Media Will Call/Entrance:
• Media Will Call is located at a marked ticket window outside the Left Field Reserve Team Store at the top of Lot B parking lot and will open in accordance with times set above. Media Will Call will close at the start of the game. There are two media entrances to Dodger Stadium:
-Top of Lot B parking lot (adjacent to Media Will Call)
-Top of Lot P parking lot
• The Lot B media entrance will remain open through the entire game. The Lot P media entrance will close at first pitch. Should a media member arrive after first pitch, they must walk down the stairs to the left of the Top of the Park team store to enter via the Lot B media entrance.
• If a credential needs to be picked up at Media Will Call and a media member parks in Lot P, the media member must walk down the stairs to the left of the Top of the Park team store to obtain their credential.
•The media member may then:
1) enter through Lot B,
2) walk back up the stairs to Lot P to gather their belongings and enter through the aforementioned media entrance.
• If a media member is running late and cannot obtain their credential prior to first pitch, please contact Ally Salvage at (626) 825-2270 to coordinate credential pickup.

Media Availabilities & Player/Manager/Staff Interviews:
• Pre-game and post-game interviews may occur inside of the interview room.
• Interviews may also be conducted on the field during designated periods of field access (pre- and post-game).

Writing Press Guidelines:
• Writing press will be assigned a seat location in the Vin Scully Press Box. During high profile games such as Opening Day and Postseason, media may be assigned to sit in the Auxiliary Box or inside of the Press Box dining room.
• Please check the seating charts in the Press Box for daily seating assignments. If your outlet does not appear on the seating chart, media can sit in the dining room.

• No standing is permitted in the aisles of the press box during games

Photography Guidelines:
• Photographers will be permitted on-site five (5) hours prior to first pitch and must leave the ballpark no later than 90 minutes after the conclusion of postgame interviews.
• Photo Positions:
All dugout well photo positions are pre-marked and assigned ahead of time.

No transmitting is allowed in dugout wells, unless in a netted basket. This must be done from inside the building.
• Be mindful of players while in the dugout wells and allow them to enter/exit the dugout prior to entering/exiting the well.
• Ethernet cables may be used in the standing photo positions to directly transmit from the camera. No laptops may be used in the standing photo positions. Only netted well spots may transmit via laptop.
No bags or cases are allowed in the wells, unless in a netted basket. Any prohibited items will be removed by security.
Texting is the only form of telephone communication allowed in the wells; pictures, videos, and phone calls are not permitted.

• Remote Cameras:
Remote cameras must be approved by Jon SooHoo or Katie Chin once in place. If any issues arise, please contact Jon SooHoo at (626) 676-0762.

Television Live Shots:
• TV crews may shoot stand-up segments from the warning track on the field along the first and third base sides.
• Live shots must conclude by the start of pregame ceremonies. In-game or post-game live shots can be done from Lot B.
• TV crews can remain on site for the duration of the game but must sit in the Press Box Conference Room during the game.

Media Materials:
• All media information, including the 2026 Media Guide, will be available online at mlbpressbox.com/lad and will also be emailed out to credential holders ahead of each game.
• Login information for the online Press Box is as follows:
Username: media@ladodgers.com
Password: dodgers

WiFi information is as follows:
Username: MLB-Press
Password: Hom3Run!
Lineups will be printed and distributed in the back of the Press Box. No other printed information media materials will be available.

Media Dress Code:
• Major League Baseball requests media members covering games to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams, and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and MLB expects members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. Wearing team branded clothing is not permitted. A full description of MLB's media dress code can be found at www.mlbpressbox.com.

*To reach media locations after entering stadium from Lot B Reserve Level:
• Press Box: Make a right down the concourse after entering the stadium and take the home plate elevators to Level 5. The Press Box entrance is directly across from the elevators.

• Interview Room: Use the home plate elevators and proceed to Level 1. Exit the elevators and make a left down the hallway. Security will scan your credential and lead you to the interview room, which is just past the metal double doors.

• Clubhouses: Use the home plate elevators and proceed to Level 1. Exit the elevators and make a left down the hallway to visit the Dodgers clubhouse and make a right down the hallway to visit the Visitors' clubhouse. Security will scan your credential.

Photo Wells + Photographer Work Space: Photographers who are assigned to shoot in the photo wells can utilize the Visiting Clubhouse digital hallway. To locate the hallway, take the home plate elevators down to Level 1 and make a right hand turn, past the glass team store.
• Security will scan your credential.
• The workspace will be equipped with tabletops, stools, and power strips.
• Cases, roller bags, and other non-essential equipment should be placed under the table when not in use.

Field Level: Take the home plate elevators down to Level 1. Exit the elevators and make a left, walk down the hallway and down the stairs. Continue on the pathway until reaching a second set of stairs on your right, which will lead you up to the field level. Security will scan credentials.

Joe Davis
Broadcaster

Joe Davis enters his 11th season as a member of the Dodger broadcast team on SportsNet LA and 10th as the lead play-by-play voice for the club. In 2022, Davis, 35, was named the lead voice for Major League Baseball on Fox, replacing Joe Buck, and one of the network's lead NFL announcers. He has been calling play-by-play on Fox Sports' national coverage of pro and college football, Major League Baseball and college basketball since 2014.

Davis attended Beloit College (Wis.), where he was a four-year letter winner and two-time captain of the school's football team, as well as earning a bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in journalism. During the football off seasons, Davis assumed play-by-play duties for the school's athletic department, announcing baseball and men's and women's basketball games on local radio and television and served as the voice of Buccaneer spring sports for his final three years on campus before graduating in 2010.

Prior to his senior year of college, Davis secured a summer job with the Schaumburg Flyers baseball team of the independent Northern League, serving as the team's play-by-play voice and media relations director. He then moved on to the Montgomery (Ala.) Biscuits, the Double-A affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays, and was named Southern League Broadcaster of the Year in 2012. While in Montgomery, Davis also worked for the Baylor Independent Sports Properties Network and Comcast Sports Southeast, where he called play-by-play for college football, basketball and baseball.

In July 2012, Davis made the jump to national television at the age of 24, joining ESPN as an announcer for college baseball, basketball, football, hockey and softball, and also appeared in spot duty for Major League Baseball on ESPN radio.

Nomar Garciaparra
Broadcaster

Nomar Garciaparra is in his 13th season behind the microphone for the Dodgers, serving as an analyst for SportsNet LA's game broadcast and pre-and-post game telecasts.

A native of Whittier, CA, and a graduate of Bellflower's St. John Bosco High School, Garciaparra played 14 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Red Sox, Cubs, Dodgers and A's, posting a .313 batting average with 229 home runs and 936 RBI. He was the AL Rookie of the Year in 1997, AL batting champion in 1999 and 2000, NL Comeback Player of the Year with the Dodgers in 2006, a six-time MLB All-Star, and won a Silver Slugger Award in 1997.

Garciaparra attended Georgia Tech and was a first-round pick of the Red Sox in 1994. He made his MLB debut in 1996 and as a rookie with the Red Sox in 1997, Garciaparra hit 30 home runs and had 98 RBI, setting MLB records for RBI by a leadoff hitter and most homers by a rookie shortstop.

Garciaparra played three seasons with the Dodgers from 2006-08, earning an All-Star selection at first base and helping the team reach the postseason in 2006. After playing with Oakland in 2009, Garciaparra signed a one-day contract with Boston in 2010 to retire as a member of the Red Sox. In 2014, Garciaparra was inducted into both the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame and the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame in the Dominican Republic.

Following the end of his playing career, Garciaparra worked at ESPN, appearing on Baseball Tonight, MLB game telecasts as well as the network's coverage of the College World Series and the Little League World Series from 2011-13.

Garciaparra was a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic baseball team and his wife, Olympian and World Cup soccer champion Mia Hamm, played on the 1996, 2000 and 2004 women's Olympic soccer teams. The couple married in 2003, and have twin girls, Grace and Ava, and a son, Garrett. Both Garciaparra and Hamm are among the investors in Major League Soccer's Los Angeles Football Club (LAFC).

Orel Hershiser
Broadcaster

Dodger great and Emmy Award-winning broadcaster Orel Hershiser enters his 13th season as a color commentator and analyst for the Dodgers on SportsNet LA. He was inducted in the Dodgers' Ring of Honor in 2023, becoming a Legend of Dodger Baseball.

Hershiser is a multi-time Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association award winner for his work as an analyst on both the game broadcast and the Dodgers' pre- and postgame telecasts. He previously was behind the microphone at ESPN from 2006-13 as a color analyst for their Baseball Tonight, Sunday Night Baseball, College World Series and Little League World Series programming.

The three-time All-Star right-hander played 18 seasons in the Majors, including 13 with the Dodgers, whom he helped lead to a 1988 World Championship. That year, Hershiser led the National League in wins (23), innings pitched (267), shutouts (8) and complete games (15) en route to a Cy Young Award, and set the all-time Major League record of 59 consecutive scoreless innings (Aug. 30-Sept. 28). He established his place in Dodger lore with a dominant 1988 Postseason, when he earned both NLCS and World Series MVP honors, and became the only player in history to win those honors in addition to the Cy Young Award in the same season. He later received both The Sporting News Pitcher of the Year and Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year awards for his brilliant season.

Hershiser attended and played baseball at Bowling Green (OH) State University and was drafted in the 17th round by the Dodgers in the 1979 Major League First-Year Player Draft. It was during a game in his rookie year of 1984, that Hershiser was nicknamed "Bulldog," in an effort by Dodgers Hall of Fame manager Tommy Lasorda to get Hershiser to adopt a tougher attitude on the mound.

After finishing his playing career with the Dodgers in 2000 and briefly working for the team, he joined the Rangers as a special assistant to General Manager John Hart in the fall of 2001. He was named the Rangers' pitching coach in 2002 and after the 2005 season, he became Executive Director of the Rangers.

He has co-authored or authored two books: Out of the Blue and Between the Lines: Nine Things Baseball Taught Me About Life. Hershiser has two sons, Quinton and Jordan, and two stepchildren, Spencer and Sloane. He and his wife Dana reside in Las Vegas.

Eric Karros
Broadcaster

Eric Karros enters his fifth season as part of the Dodger broadcast team. Karros will work as an analyst for game broadcasts as well as pre- and postgame shows. The 2026 season marks Karros' 23rd consecutive year calling games. He began broadcasting in 2004 with the Dodgers' NL West division-clinching game against the Giants for FOX. He spent two years at ESPN calling MLB, the Little League World Series and College World Series games. In 2007, he returned to FOX. He now enters his 17th year at Fox, where he has worked World Series, League Championship Series, All-Star Games, and regular season games for national broadcast.

Karros was selected by the Dodgers in the sixth round of the 1988 First-Year Player Draft out of UCLA. He won the 1992 NL Rookie of the Year and was the Opening Day first baseman for the club nine of the next 10 years. Karros spent parts of 12 seasons with the Dodgers, winning the Silver Slugger Award in 1995 and finishing his career in L.A. as the all-time L.A. Dodgers home run leader with 270. He is one of three Dodgers in franchise history to have five 30 home run/100 RBI seasons, the other two being Hall of Famers Duke Snider and Gil Hodges. He remains the only Dodger in franchise history to hit two homers in one inning (Aug. 22, 2000, sixth inning vs. Montreal). Karros played 14 Major League seasons, including 2003 with the Chicago Cubs and 2004 with the Oakland A's. Karros earned a degree in economics from UCLA.

Jessica Mendoza

Broadcaster

Jessica Mendoza is in her fifth season with the Dodger broadcast team. A groundbreaker in baseball broadcasting, in 2015 with ESPN Mendoza became the first woman to serve as an analyst for nationally-televised MLB games. Also in 2015, Mendoza became the first female analyst for a nationally televised MLB Postseason game, calling the American League Wild Card Game on ESPN. That year, she also became the first female analyst for a Men's College World Series telecast.

From 2016-2020, Mendoza was a color analyst on the ESPN Sunday Night Baseball team. In 2020, she became the first woman to serve as a solo analyst for a national package of MLB game telecasts including weeknight games and holiday baseball. On Sept. 29, 2021, Mendoza along with Melanie Newman, became the first all-female team to broadcast a game for ESPN when they called the Dodgers vs. Padres game at Dodger Stadium. Mendoza has also provided analysis on ESPN and ABC Little League World Series coverage since 2016.

Mendoza is a two-time Olympic medalist in softball, having won gold in Athens (2004) and silver in Beijing (2008) for Team USA. In 2006, she was named the USA Softball Athlete of the Year and was also recognized in 2008 as the Women's Sports Foundation Sportswoman of the Year. In 2019, Mendoza was inducted into the National Softball Hall of Fame. Mendoza was a four-time First-Team All-American while playing outfield at Stanford University. She was a three-time Stanford Female Athlete of the Year and a First-Team Academic All-American in 2002. Mendoza earned a bachelor's degree in American Studies in 2002 and a master's in social sciences in education in 2003.

Stephen Nelson

Broadcaster

Stephen Nelson is in his fourth season as part of the Dodger broadcast team and is slated to call more than 70 home and road games for SportsNet LA this season.

Nelson, 36, is a Southern California native and graduated from Chapman University. He attended Marina High School in Huntington Beach and has worked professionally for MLB Network, NHL Network, NBC Sports, YouTube and Apple TV+ calling Major League Baseball and National Hockey League games. In 2021, MLB Network tapped him to host its most popular show, "Intentional Talk," alongside Kevin Millar. In addition to "IT," Nelson has also hosted programs for the MLB and NHL networks, including MLB Tonight, MLB Now, Hot Stove, and NHL Tonight. Prior to joining MLB Network, he was a host and broadcaster for Bleacher Report. He also called games for the 2023 World Baseball Classic in Japan and will call games in the 2026 WBC.

Nelson is a proud Japanese American and is the only Asian American play-by-play announcer working for a Major League Baseball team. He lives in Los Angeles with his wife, Cori, who is a news anchor for NBC News and MSNBC, their sons Kai and Crews, and dog, Nash.

Kirsten Watson

Broadcaster

Kirsten Watson begins her sixth season with the Dodger broadcast team as a reporter and host, where she contributes to SportsNet LA's game broadcasts and studio programming as well as pre- and postgame coverage on both television and radio. During the Dodgers' offseason, Watson is a host for the Los Angeles Rams.

Watson previously spent two years as a reporter and host with Spectrum SportsNet, appearing on pre-, post- and in-game broadcasts of the Los Angeles Lakers, Los Angeles Sparks and South Bay Lakers while also co-hosting the network's Lakeshow studio program. She also served as a producer for the National Football League, creating localized content for international markets, hosting its Game Recognize Game series, and organizing international trips for NFL players for content and media opportunities to help grow the game globally.

Watson is a graduate of Columbia University and was a member of the school's volleyball team. Following the completion of her master's degree in broadcast from Columbia Journalism School, Watson was awarded the Stuart Scott Internship-Scholarship from the National Association of Black Journalists and ESPN, where she produced video packages for SportsCenter and NFL Live.

Rick Monday

Broadcaster

Former Dodger outfielder and two-time Major League All-Star Rick Monday is in his 34th season as a Dodger broadcaster and 42nd season overall with the organization, including eight as a player.

Monday, who joined the Dodgers' broadcast team in 1993, began his broadcasting career as a sports anchor on KTTV in Los Angeles in 1985, while also calling play-by-play and hosting the pregame show for Dodger games on DodgerVision and Z Channel. He was nominated for an Emmy as host of the Dodgers' pregame show on KTTV's "Dodger Central" in 1988 and he earned an Emmy for Live Sports Coverage in 2001. Monday has also called games for the College World Series and spent four seasons with the Padres.

A star at Arizona State University, Monday led the Sun Devils to the 1965 College World Series Championship and earned All-American and College Player of the Year honors before the Kansas City Athletics made him the first player ever selected in the Major League First-Year Player Draft in 1965. He was inducted into the ASU Hall of Fame in 1975 and the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2016.

Monday, who spent six years in the Marine Corps Reserves while playing in the big leagues, made his Major League debut in 1966 and, after spending six seasons with the Athletics and five seasons with the Cubs, came to the Dodgers as part of a five-player trade in 1977. He played eight seasons in LA, and propelled the Dodgers to the 1981 World Series with a dramatic, game-winning home run in the winner-take-all Game 5 of the NLCS at Montreal. Overall, Monday compiled a .264 career batting average with 241 home runs and 775 RBI in 19 big-league seasons, while helping the Dodgers win a World Championship in 1981 and three NL pennants (1977, 1978, 1981).

On April 25, 1976 at Dodger Stadium, two protesters attempted to set fire to an American flag in the outfield and Monday, playing for the Chicago Cubs, ran over and grabbed the flag out of their hands and returned it to the Dodger dugout as the crowd erupted in cheers. The scoreboard behind the left-field bleachers in the stadium later flashed the message, "Rick Monday... You Made A Great Play...". He would later receive the Presidential Commendation for "Service To Others" from Gerald Ford.

Monday and his wife, Barbaralee, who make regular visits to various veteran's hospitals throughout the year, reside in Vero Beach during the offseason.

Tim Neverett

Broadcaster

Tim Neverett is in his eighth season as a member of the Dodgers' broadcast team and will handle the play-by-play on select games on AM 570 while also occasionally anchoring the pre-game and post-game shows on SportsNet LA.

He is the author of the book Covid Curveball on the Dodgers 2020 World Series championship season. During the offseason, Neverett calls college basketball nationally on FS1 and college hockey on the New England Sports Network. He also serves as a professor in communication studies at Emerson College.

Neverett previously served as the radio play-by-play voice of the Boston Red Sox for three seasons (2016-18) following a seven-year stint as the radio and television play-by-play announcer for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Before joining the Pirates, Neverett worked for FSN Rocky Mountain, including as a studio host for Colorado Rockies games during the 2008 season. He also served the network as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey, lacrosse, arena football, and track and field. In addition, Neverett hosted talk shows for both the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network and ESPN 560 in Denver where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine. Neverett also worked in Las Vegas calling games on radio and TV for the Padres' and Dodgers' Triple-A teams, as well as Las Vegas' International Hockey League team and the UNLV baseball and football teams. Neverett, who began his broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate Nashua, also called baseball, softball, basketball, and soccer as well as hockey and skiing during four Olympic Games from 2002-2008.

Neverett played college baseball at Emerson College in Boston, and he and his wife Jessica have three sons: Matthew, Kyle and Drew.

Charley Steiner

Broadcaster

Five-time Emmy Award-winner and National Radio Hall of Famer Charley Steiner enters his 22nd season with the Dodgers, handling play-by-play duties for the club's radio broadcast on AM 570.

Before joining the Dodgers, Steiner broadcast three years for the New York Yankees on WCBS Radio and the YES Network. Prior to his seasons with the Yankees, Steiner spent 14 years at ESPN, where his responsibilities ranged from anchoring SportsCenter to working play-by-play for Major League Baseball and Saturday Primetime Football. He served as SportsCenter's primary boxing reporter/analyst and also contributed to the Emmy and CableACE Award-winning Outside the Lines series. Steiner also called the 2006, 2009 and 2013 World Baseball Classics for XM Radio and MLB International, respectively, and broadcast MLB games live from seven different countries.

Steiner graduated from Bradley University, where its School of Sports Communication was named in his honor in 2015. Steiner, who was inducted into the Bradley's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, also established the Charles H. Steiner Endowed Scholarship, which is given annually to Bradley broadcasting majors. In March 2022, Steiner was inducted into the Missouri Valley Conference Hall of Fame.

Steiner began his professional broadcasting career in 1969 at WIRL Radio in Peoria, Illinois as a newscaster, and made career stops in Davenport, New Haven, Hartford and Cleveland before returning to his native New York, where he was the morning sportscaster on WOR radio, while serving as sports director for the RKO Radio Network. In addition, Steiner called the play-by-play for the USFL New Jersey Generals and, later, for the New York Jets on WABC radio.

Luis Cruz
Broadcaster

Luis Cruz enters his second season as an analyst for the team's Spanish-language radio broadcasts alongside José Mota. Cruz recently retired from an astounding 24-season professional career, including two seasons with the Dodgers.

Cruz, 42, brings a wealth of baseball experience to the Spanish team. Originally from Navojoa, Mexico, Cruz signed as an amateur free agent with the Boston Red Sox in 2000 and made his pro debut at age 17 the following year, Cruz concluded his playing career in the Mexican Pacific Winter League for the Mayos de Navojoa, for whom he batted .250 in 174 plate appearances in 52 games while playing at least one game at each of the nine positions.

Cruz played five seasons in the Major Leagues (2008-10, 2012-13), slashing .234/.272/.316 in 652 plate appearances with the Pittsburgh Pirates (2009-10), Milwaukee Brewers (2010), Los Angeles Dodgers (2012-13) and New York Yankees (2013). With the Dodgers in 2012, the righty produced a .297/.322/.431 stat line in 296 plate appearances with six home runs and 40 RBI. He also served as the starting third baseman for Mexico in the 2013 World Baseball Classic, across the diamond from Dodger teammate and current SNLA analyst Adrián González.

José Mota
Broadcaster

José Mota, the son of Dodger legend Manny Mota, is in his fifth season with the Dodger broadcast team and will primarily call games on the Dodgers' Spanish language simulcast alongside Luis Cruz.

A two-time Emmy Award winner, Mota spent 20 seasons with the Angels' TV and radio broadcast teams serving in multiple English and Spanish roles. In 2021, he became the first Latin-born former player to be a full-time English TV broadcaster for a Major League team. On Aug. 19-20, 2017, Mota became the first MLB broadcaster to have called play-by-play on a team's English radio/TV broadcasts and Spanish radio/TV broadcasts, as well as working as a color analyst on both platforms. Mota was Vladimir Guerrero's translator for the 2018 Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony in Cooperstown, becoming the first translator in the HOF ceremony's history.

Mota's first-ever MLB broadcast assignment was for Los Angeles Dodgers Spanish radio in 2001. In the years since, he has been a broadcaster/analyst for Fox (where he broadcasted MLB and NFL games), MLB Network, ESPN, TBS, Bally Sports, MLB Radio, DirecTV Latin America and Yahoo Sports. Mota was a sideline reporter/analyst for ESPN during the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006 and has worked on broadcasting teams for every WBC (2009, 2013, 2017, and 2023).

A former Major League second baseman with the San Diego Padres (1991) and Kansas City Royals (1995), Mota also played in the Dodger organization in 1987-88. Mota was a two-time Collegiate All-American second baseman at Cal State Fullerton, 1984 National Champion and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from CSUF. Mota made his film debut in Kevin Costner's "For Love of the Game."

The Mota family founded the non-profit Mota's Faces in 2011, which promotes the involvement of American youth in assisting impoverished school children and their families in his native Dominican Republic and Colombia and Venezuela. Mota and his family make their home in the San Gabriel Valley.
